HOW TO HANDLE MILK.

U. S. Experts Tell Housewives Of Safeguards.

No matter how carefully milk is handled between the dairy and the home, it can become very quickly undesirable food if carelessly handled in the home. This warning is contained in a series of articles on safeguarding adults and children from contaminated milk written by specialists employed in the United States Department of Agriculture.

Milk when left only for a short time in summer heat or when exposed to the air or unclean vessels may become unfit for use, according to the specialists. Though some bacteria always exist in milk, they are generally harmless, provided their numbers are small and are not of the disease producing type, but milk must be kept cool to prevent the bacteria already in it from multiplying and thus making the milk dangerous.

In handling the milk in homes, the specialists make an urgent appeal to those in whose home a sick person may be, to use every precaution in washing the milk bottles, so that they will not be sent out contaminated with disease-laden bacteria to infect other homes. Wherever possible milk bottles should not be taken into a sick room or even into a home where sickness is prevalent, but the milk should be emptied into a vessel.

The handling of milk in the home is one of the most important duties left to a housewife, according to the specialists. As soon as the milk is left at the home, if it is in bottles, it should be placed in the ice-box and before using, the bottle and the cardboard stopper should be carefully washed. Milk is easily contaminated and the mere transferring of it from one vessel to another may often cause it to become laden with disease bacteria. Even in cool places milk should be kept tightly closed and free from strong oders. Onions and other strong smelling foods should be kept out of the refrigerator.

Milk dipped from a can or drawn from the faucet of a can may be a source of danger and should be avoided where it is possible to get bottled milk. The air of city streets and houses is laden with dust and bacteria and frequently particles of filth. The repouring of the milk always invites these bacteria from the air and gives an excellent opportunity for floating disease germs to get into it. It is dangerous to give such milk or milk obtained at a store to invalids and children.

If bottled milk cannot be obtained, it is well to have the milk delivered personally to some member of the family and receive it in a scalded covered vessel that has not been exposed. In no case should an uncovered vessel be used.

Cleanliness in the handling of milk is as necessary in the home as in the production of milk on the farm. Milk must be kept at low temperature at all times to prevent growth of bacteria and subsequent souring. It should be kept in closed vessels as far as possible.

If ice is not available the bottle should be placed either in running water or wrapped in cool damp clothes. This will keep the milk at a slightly lower tempature than the air about it.

GOOD ROADS IN TOWNS

Chairman Weller Will Urge the Next Legislature to Amend the Present Law So That Long Gaps in Incorporated Towns in Improved Highways May Be Added to the General System.

Relief is in sight for those towns in the counties which are barred under the present laws from receiving financial assistance from the State in construction of roads and in improvement of streets.

Chairman O. E. Weller, of the State Roads Commission, declared the other day that, under certain restrictions, he is in favor of helping the incorporated towns in their efforts to get better highways. The subject has not yet come before the commission for action, but it is understood that it will get behind Mr. Weller and will urge desired changes in the law by which State aid, where needed, may be forthcoming. It is also understood that Governor Goldsborough is favorable to the proposition, and in his message to the Legislature will urge the enactment of necessary legislation.

Mr. Weller said that no definite or set rule can be adopted for aiding towns in the improvement of their highways, since all towns are not on the same financial basis, nor are they all alike as regards the length and width of their streets and the rights of street railways whose tracks occupy beds of streets. Mr. Weller is particularly anxious, however, that gaps in towns and villages, which gaps are serious inconveniences in long stretches of good roads, shall be improved. Many of the 56 incorporated towns of the state have no funds which they can apply to road improvement and their taxpayers are unwilling to issue bonds for the purposes. The needs of these towns, Mr. Weller says, are entitled to favorable consideration by the state. There are many towns, however, which are financially able to improve their roads and streets, but will not do so. They may have to get along without good roads. On behalf of these towns it may be stated that their leading residents claim that they are large taxpayers, the state and the counties in which they are situated being the beneficiaries. They declare that they are entitled to aid by the counties and state irrespective of the condition of their local treasuries.

Mr. Weller said that the whole question is a complex and embarrassing one, and will require intricate study before satisfactory legislation can be framed.

CHAPTER 402.

AN ACT to propose an amendment to Article 3 of the Constitution of this State by adding a new Section, to be known as 40A; and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, (three-fifths of all the members of each of the two Houses concurring), That the following new section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Article 3, title "Legislative Department," of the Constitution of this State, the same to be inserted after Section 40 and to be numbered 40A, and if adopted by the legally qualified voters thereof, as herein provided, said section shall become a part of Article 3 of the Constitution of Maryland.

40A. The General Assembly shall enact no law authorizing private property to be taken for public use without just compensation, to be agreed upon between the parties or awarded by a jury, being first paid or tendered to the party entitled to such compensation, but where such property is situated in Baltimore City and is desired by this State or by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, the General Assembly may provide for the appointment of appraisers by a Court of Record to value such property, and that, upon payment of the amount of such valuation to the party entitled to compensation, or into Court and securing the payment of any further sum that may be awarded by a jury, such property may be taken.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said foregoing section, hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution, shall at the next ensuing general election, to be held on Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November, 1913, be submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof, for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of the directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at the said election the vote on said proposed amendment to the Constitution shall be by ballot and upon each ballot there shall be written or printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment" and "Against the Constitutional Amendment," as now provided by law, and immediately after said election due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment, as directed by said Article 14 of the Constitution.

AN ACT to amend Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III. Circuit Courts," of the Constitution of this State, and to provide for the submission of said amendment to the qualified voters of this State for adoption or rejection.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, three-fifths of all the members of the two houses concurring, That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 21 of Article 4, title "Judiciary Department," sub-title "Part III. Circuit Courts," of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof as herein provided, it shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of Section 21 of said Article 4.

SEC. 21. For each of the said circuits (excepting the eighth and third) there shall be a chief judge and two associate judges, to be styled Judges of the Circuit Court to be elected or appointed as herein provided, and for the third circuit there shall be a Chief Judge and three associate judges to be styled Judges of the Circuit Court to be elected or appointed as herein provided.

And no two of said associate judges for any of the said circuits, except the third circuit shall, at the time of their election or appointment or during the term for which they may have been elected or appointed, reside in the same county. If two or more persons shall be candidates for associate judge in the same county in any of the circuits, except the third circuit, that one only in said county shall be declared elected who has the highest number of votes in the circuit. In case any two candidates for associate judge in any of the circuits, except the third circuit, residing in the same county, shall have an equal number of votes greater than any other candidate for associate judge in the circuit, it shall be the duty of the Governor to order a new election for one associate judge; but the person residing in any other county of the circuit and who has the next highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The said judges shall hold not less than two terms of the Circuit Court in each of the counties composing their respective circuits, at such times as are now or may hereafter be prescribed to which jurors shall be summoned; and in those counties where only two such terms are held, two other and intermediate terms, to which jurors shall not be summoned; they may alter or fix the times for holding any or all terms, until otherwise prescribed, and shall adopt rules to the end that all business not requiring the interposition of the jury shall be, as far as practicable, disposed of at said intermediate terms.

One judge in each of the above circuits, including the third circuit, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business; and the said judges, or any of them, may hold special terms of their Court, wherever in their discretion, the business of the several counties renders such terms necessary.

The additional associate judge for the third circuit herein provided for, shall be elected by the qualified voters of Baltimore and Harford Counties, at the first election that shall be held in said counties subsequent to the adoption of this amendment, and the judge so elected shall be subject to the same constitutional provisions, hold his office for the same term of years, receive the same compensation and have the same powers as are herein provided for the other associate judges in the third circuit.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the aforegoing section hereby proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of this State shall be, at the next general election for members of the General Assembly to be held in this State, submitted to the legal and qualified voters thereof for their adoption or rejection, in pursuance of directions contained in Article 14 of the Constitution of this State, and at the said general election, the vote on the said proposed amendment shall be by ballot, and upon each ballot there shall be printed the words "For the Constitutional Amendment," and "Against Constitutional Amendment," as now prescribed by law, and immediately after said election, due returns shall be made to the Governor of the vote for and against said proposed amendment as directed by said Article 14 of the Constitution.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, (three-fifths of all the members of each of the two houses concurring), That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 3 of Article 1, title "Elective Franchise," of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof as herein provided, said section shall supersede and stand in the place and stead of Section 3 of said Article 1 of the Constitution of Maryland.

But the General Assembly may in its discretion remove the above penalty and all other penalties upon the vote seller so as to place the penalties for the purchase of votes on the vote buyer alone.

SEC. 2. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland (three-fifths of all members of each of the two houses concurring), That the following section be and the same is hereby proposed as an amendment to Section 9 of Article 5, title "Attorney General and State's Attorney" of the Constitution of this State, and if adopted by the legal and qualified voters thereof, as herein provided, said section shall supersede and stand in the place and instead of Section 9 of said Article 5 of the Constitution of Maryland.
