Mr. John G. Wooley's Address

Mr. John G. Wooley, the noted temperance orator of Madison, Wisconsin, delivered a strong and interesting address Wednesday night at Christ M. P. Church, before a large audience. The theme of his address was on the evils arising from strong drink. He dwelt on the necessity of prohibition laws, and cited instances of great benefit morally, socially and financially that have accrued to localities where prohibition laws hold sway, and hoped the day was not far distant when the cause of temperance would rule the country. He was introduced by Rev. Cyrus P. Keen, of the Anti-Saloon League. Dr. W. R. Graham presided and Dr. Barrett made the opening prayer.

KENNEDYVILLE NOTES.

We deeply regret the accident that befell one of our men on Tuesday last, Mr. Howard Clendaniel, who was at work in his feed mill, in some way got caught in a belt and was hurled over the shafting falling upon his head cutting that, and crushing the bone in his right arm at or near the elbow. He was alone when the accident happened, and Mr. James Weer Jr., hearing his call for help, while in the milk shipping station hurried to his rescue, and got him home as quick ly as possible and Dr. J. W. Urie was called and rendered medical service. At this writing Mr. Clendaniel is resting easily and the fear of internal injuries seems to be passed but it will be sometime before he is able to be out again. We extend to him our deepest sympathy in this hour of affliction.

Sunday next will be Rally Day in the Methodist Protestant Church here. The morning service will be given up to the children and C. E. at 7 p. m. will be in charge of the pastor. At 7.30 p. m. Rev. J. E. Maloy will preach. Mr. Maloy was pastor of this church 53 years ago and will be glad to greet his friends on this occasion.

Mr. John Medders who has been indisposed for some time is still unable to be at his shop for work.

Mrs. McKnett, of White Plains, N. Y. is visiting friends of former days in our town.

Mrs. J. D. Urie, Mrs. L. A. Pennington, Mrs. Frank S. Cain, Mr. Geo. R. Rasin and Rev. Frank S. Cain represented the Methodist Protestant Sunday school at the County Convention on Tuesday last, while Mrs. Jas. Archibald, Rev. and Mrs. Clews represented the Presbyterian school.

FIREMEN AND ENGINEMEN.

In order that there might be no hardship on old and deserving employees, the General Manager of the Pennsylvania railroad has slightly amended the recently promulgated order as to method of procedure which should be followed in the promotion of firemen ond engineemen. The original order was as follows:

A fireman will not be promoted to engineman unless he has had at least 528 days' experience as a fireman.

Promotion from fireman to extra freight engineman, provided he has had at least 132 days' experience as road freight fireman, either through or local, immediately preceding his promotion.

Extra freight engineman to regular freight engineman.

Regular road freight engineman to extra passenger engineman, provided he has had at least 528 days' experience as freight engineman, not less than 150 days of which must have been in road freight service immediately preceding his promotion, and it must be understood that this in no way depreciates the application of Regulation No. 1.

Extra passenger engineman to regular passenger engineman.

A man going through the above grades must, of course, pass all the necessary examinations lucident to each grade.

WOMEN SUBJECT TO KIDNEY TROUBLES.

I beg to say that I have been a constant sufferer with severe pains in my back and was on the verge of nervous prostration resulting from kidney trauble and other complications. A friend of mine recommended Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root as a sure cure for these troubles. Acting upon her advice I began taking Swamp-Root and began to improve before I had finished the first bottle. I continued its use until I had taken several bottles and continued to impove until I was completely cured. I am happy to say that I am as well as any woman on earth and have been so for the past nine years, thanks to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and I cheerfully recommend it to all who suffer from kidney troubles.

Very truly yours,
