SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1913.

TAMMANY was snowed under Tuesday by a tremendous majority.

THE vote throughout the country means that the people believe in Wilson.

ANDERSON made a terrible blunder in trying to defeat Lee. He was wrong in his judgement.

LLOYD WILKINSON won in Baltimore—the man whom Anderson and the Sun fought so hard. He is a candidate for Speaker.

SENATOR W. W. BECK, of Kent is mentioned for President of the Senate. He could fill the position with credit but is not an aspirant by any means.

THE cutting of Orlando Harrison is to be regretted. He is a good man and should have had the support of every Lee man. Lee got 1200 majority in Worcester while Harrison was defeated by 16 votes according to unofficial returns.

THERE were over 270 votes thrown out most of which were Democratic votes. The colored voters made quick work of it but failed in many instances to vote all the ticket.

ELECTIONS in Kent are becoming more quiet as the years come and go. There were but few around the polls except those whose business took them there and men are learning that it requires but a few minutes to vote.

SHERIFF BROWN will take his 'seat' about Dec. 1st. He wants to thank all his friends for his fine vote. He goes into office with a determination to do his duty. A selection of deputy will be made at once. Mr. James Bolton is being urged by his many friends for the position.

THERE is a demand among Democrats for a return to sample ballots and to a fac-simile ticket. The colored voter will attend school and try to learn how to vote but many white voters think it a reflection to ask about the ticket. The results, however, in Kent would tend to prove that the present system works well for the Democrats.

NOW for some things which our county needs. Let's bend our efforts towards the uplift of the community with the same enthusiasm as we have the pursuit of politics. Less rum on Saturday nights and Sunday should be one object.

DEAD hogs should be buried. The law is strict on this matter and every farmer owes it to himself and to his neighbor to prevent the spreading of hog cholera. To bury or burn the hogs dying of this disease will help solve the problem.

THE Enterprise, one of our cotemporaries, has added an office superintendent and assistant editor in the person of Mr. Polk T. Bramble. Mr. Bramble is well and favorably known to Chestertown people and is well equipped for his position. The NEWS welcomes him to the fraternity and hopes he may find his path strewn with good things.

THE ELECTION IN KENT.

Democrats all over Kent waar a broad smile over the splendid victory attained at the election Tuesday. Because of the bitter primary contest there were misgivings among some as to the success in the election but these all disappeared as the day approached. General apathy was the hardest foe to face and the vote throughout the county shows that this fear was well founded. In Rock Hall alone the vote was about 75 short and in Chestertown fifty in each precinct. In 1899 the Democrats and Republicans each polled about 2300 votes and Lowndes won Kent by 78. There were 1800 negroes registered that year. At the election Tuesday the highest Democrat got 1830 votes while the highest Republican only got 1250, being a shortage of the total vote by 1313!

The returns prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that the Organization were as true as steel to every man on the ticket. They worked like Trojans in every precinct and stood shoulder to shoulder in the fight to the finish. A commendable instance is noted in the Millington precinct where that indomitable fighter, Hon. John P. Ahern and his friends gave to Treasurer S. G. Caldwell, over 100 majority! In other districts defeated candidates turned in and worked faithfully for the ticket as every man should do. It was a day of co-operation and all have a share in the big victory.

There is one man, however, who stands out pre-eminent as the leader in the effective work of the campaign. That man is Mr. Charles L Dodd, chairman of the State Central Committee. He has been diligent from the day of the primary and to his excellent management is due much of the credit for the great victory.

The day was ideal, the results splendid and all can share in the victory.

A DEMOCRATIC SWEEP!

Bryan's Visit To Maryland Helped Blair Lee To Win—The People Did Not Want Parran to Tie the President's Hands—House and Senate Overwhelmingly Democratic.

Blair Lee Wins By 42,000, Harrington and Magruder By Over 35,000.

The Democratic landslide of Tuesday gave Lee a plurality over Parran of 42,670 in the State, and a majority over both Parran and Wellington of about 5,000 votes less.

In Baltimore city Lee received over 24,100 majority.

Lee's plurality in the State is the greatest received in years, except that given Wilson. Then the Republican vote was cut in half by Roosevelt, while this year Wellington received only approximately 5,000.

Lee carried every county in Maryland except Garrett, Charles and Calvert, and he carried every ward in Baltimore City except the Seventeenth ward, in which the colored voters predominated.

Harrington and Magruder ran somewhat behind Lee, but both polled tremendous pluralities.

The next Legislature will be overwhelmingly Democratic in both the Senate and the House.

All six of the proposed amendments to the State Constitution were ratified.

The Democrats elected to the State Senate Jones, of Montgomery; Holmead, of Prince George's; Watkins, of Anne Arundel; Archer, of Harford; Curran and Ogden, of Baltimore city; Cooper, of Caroline; Collier, of Talbot, and Shepherd, of Dorchester.

The Republicans elected to the State Senate Zihlman, in Allegany; Speicher, in Garrett; Williams, in Cecil; Mudd, in Charles, and Chesley, in St. Mary's.

In Baltimore city the Democrats made a clean sweep, electing their full city and legislative ticket.

TURNER AND SHALLCROSS will make a fine showing at Annapolis for old Kent.

CALDWELL made a good showing in his district add the whole ticket was given a big vote, but Millington beat them.

EVERY district in Kent went Democratic but one and that gave our Sheriff 50 majority.

HOW times have changed! Betterton and Fairlee have joined hands with Rock Hall in meeting the Democratic hosts from the Upper at Chestertown. Boys, you did fine!

QUAKER NECK certainly did things up Brown! The voters made no distinction just so he was a Brown. That excellent citizen, Mr. Henry Brown, carried his home district by 100 and our popular sheriff, "Shake" Brown, carried his home district by 50, both living in the same Neck and each being on different party tickets.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Rock Hall Rebekah Lodge No. 30, I. O. O. F., had the pleasure of the presence of Mrs. Emma A. Kean, Mrs. Susan Jones, President and Secretary of the Maryland Rebekah Assembly, and Miss Mary Horisberg, assistant to the Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Maryland, at the regular meeting last week. Routine business was transacted and a class of five candidates were admitted. The visiting officials conferred the Rebekah degree with impressive ceremony, after which the membership was entertained with fluent addresses by Mrs. Kean, Miss Horisberg and Mrs. Jones. Ice-cream and cake were served.

Hallow'een pranks were not so extensive and provoking this year as has been the case in years past. Nevertheless young folks in grotesque costumes were out on parade last Friday night and their movements were closely watched by our vigilant "cop" and the ever scrutinizing "Nat." Some got in their pranks, however.

Mr. W. D. Downey, who for many years has been handicapped with a wen-like lump on his left wrist, produced by a sprain, went to the Maryland General Hospital two weeks ago to have it removed. It was reported on Monday that an operation was performed, but it was not as successful as desired, and it feared that the hand will have to be amputated.

One of the employes at Brook's sawmill, on East Neck Island, was seriously injured on Tuesday by having his right hand caught in a revolving saw. The hand and forearm were terribly cut. He was rushed to Dr. Beale, who rendered surgical aid.

Gunners were out long before sunrise on Saturday and rabbits seemed an easy prey to dog and gun.

Hons. Blair Lee, Lloyd Wilkinson and J. Dawkins went through with flying colors, notwithstanding Bro. Anderson's onslaught. Hurrah for our "Bob" and Turner, too!

HARRISON W. VICKERS, JR.

WHITHER IS IT TENDING!

There are three forces at work, hard at work, leading to present day immorality—the dance, the drama and dress. Properly indulged in and under wholesome surroundings, there is no form of diversion as graceful, as relaxing nor more innocent than a dignified dance. This cannot be said of the barbaric and positively vulgar contortions that make up what are called dances today. The drama has an educational quality that can inspire, uplift, broaden refine. The tendency of the play of the hour, however, is decidedly downward; it is coarse, vile. As for ultra dress, there is a lack of words adequately to describe the indecency of it.

One does not have to be a prude to take this view. It is borne in upon one, it actually obsesses.

We look for the causes and all that we can find is that it is a case of supply and demand—a supply consequent upon an insistent desire for the bizarre and the questionable, the seeking of expression through forms of immodesty. How long will it last? Just as long as there is not practical protest from the refined element—just as long as there is no ban put upon it by parent or guardian and those who have it in their power to with hold patronage and to change conditions.

Very pertinent, in this connection, is the advice of Miss Jessie Wilson, who, in her address on "The Girls of Our Nation and of the World," said:

"Our great work is the building up of character, that our girls will realize the real purpose of life and will not become the playthings of environment. We should teach them social morality so that they will have a spiritual power which makes them rise above the things which tempt them."—Emmitsburg Chronicle.
