WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

By Timely Use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Here is her own statement.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and was fat and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your medicine."—Mrs. Hayward Sowers, Cary, Maine.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

SOME SENTIMENTS OF CHRISTMAS TIME.

A MERRY Christmas to us all, my dears, God bless us. God bless us every one, said Tiny Tim the last of all.—Charles Dickens.

MEN cannot live isolated. We are all bound together. No higher man can separate himself from the lowest.—Carlyle.

REALIZE that doing good is the only certainly happy action of a man's life.—Sir Philip Sidney.

CHRISTMAS time I have always thought of as a good time—a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time.—Charles Dickens.

HEAP on more wood. The wind is chill; but, let it whistle as it will, we'll keep our Christmas merry still!—Sir Walter Scott.

THEN arose a joyous clamor from the wild fowl on the mere, and a voice within cried: "Listen! Christmas carols even here!"—Charles Kingsley.

AGAIN at Christmas did we weave the holly round the Christmas hearth. The silent snow possessed the earth and calmly fell on Christmas eve.—Tennyson.

OLD CHRISTMAS SUPERSTITION

Recalling Time When a Peculiar Popular Prejudice Existed.

A well known fifteenth century carol begins:

Holly and ivy, box and bay
Put in the church on Christmas day.

But the customs of those times were rigid regarding the removal of all decorations from churches and dwellings before Candlemas day, Feb. 2, for people had superstitions about their remaining longer. Herrick alludes to this popular prejudice in the lines:

Down with the rosemary, and so
Down with the baies and the mistletoe,
Down with the holly, ivie, all
Wherewith ye drest the Christmas hall,
That so the superstitious find
No one least branch there left behind,
For look how many leaves there be Neglected there. Maids, trust to me,
So many goblins you will see.

Perhaps the superstition was a pretext of the particular old housewives who knew that by Candlemas day the crisped green things, dried by Yule logs and many torchlights for illumination, would be nuisances of falling leaves and berries to tread underfoot. However this may be, the belief obtained.

FOR EMERGENCY GIFTS.

Advice to Avoid Last Minute Despair Over "Another Name."

For the last moment gifts one should always have at hand some boxes of candy and perhaps a few very fine flowers. One, for instance, might rather have a single orchid than all the carnations in the shops, while a gardenia is the most admired of all blossoms by the average young girl. Either of these exotic gifts may be tied up in a little box and decorated with a spray of fern or holly, so that it will look attractive.

For the big hearted woman who always at the last moment adds another name or two to her Christmas list what could be better than silk stockings? These she may buy and have on hand in assorted sizes, and when a name pops into her memory all she needs to do is to tie up the silken affairs in a pretty box and they are ready to send on their way. Having a few such auxiliary gifts in the house saves the busy woman much disappointment.

CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS.

It has been said that a sealskin coat usually makes a devout Christmas churchgoer.

It's a foolish girl who gives her beau the mitten before Christmas. Few do.

Better a paid pork chop than a fat turkey on tick.

Don't forget to kiss your wife just once under the mistletoe.

"FIRST LADY" WAS CHEF.

Wife of John Adams Cooked White House Christmas Dinner.

The first Christmas dinner at the White House was in 1800, when the wife of President John Adams, who prided herself on being a model New England housekeeper, served in the capacity of chef.

Under her directions old colored "mammies," clad in bright calico frocks, long white aprons and bright colored kerchiefs on their heads, flitted hither and thither before the roaring blazes on the hearths as they prepared the food for President Adams and his Yuletide guests.

The mansion was but dimly lighted compared with the present illuminations by numerous candles and lamps. Instead of steam radiators, heat was furnished by great wood fires on the broad hearths, which roared and crackled and sent showers of sparks up the ample chimneys.

The Mistletoe.

Here in her father's library
On Christmas eve I wait sedately
Till Mistress Nancy comes to me,
That damsel most serene and stately.

And dangling from the chandelier
A berried spray (long since I knew it)
Seems to proclaim: "She hung me here.
I dare you—dare you—do it, do it."

Well, Christmas comes but once a year.
Less often such a chance I fancy.
So ere you cross the room I fear
That something may surprise you, Nancy.

The Kent Building and Loan Company desires to call the public's attention to the VERY BEST method whereby they can save money.

For Fourteen years this Company has continued with marked success and has paid its shareholders on an average of 5½ per cent. on their saving. In view of this liberal policy, it is hardly necessary to advance an argument why you should deposit a small sum weekly, monthly or quarterly with this company. Dues received weekly every Monday evening at the Court House in Chestertown, between 7.30 and 8.30 P. M., or by mail at any time. The last statement of the company showed assets of over $80,000. Three years ago the assets were about $60,000. Shares are 25 cents per week, and we have some leading business men who have over 100 shares and have held shares in this company from the date of its organization. The company operates for the advantage of all its shareholders—not merely for a few—and this policy has resulted in a 5¾ per cent. investment which must appeal to any one with any sagacity. Its books are regularly audited and it is managed by a capable and strong body of directors, who give it their constant attention. The condition of the company's business is open at any time to the public. $1 paid weekly earns approximately at the end of 6 years and 6 months from $390 to $400. $1.50 paid weekly means about ½ more.

The officers will be glad to give you further information.
