ROCK HALL NOTES.

Ex-Sheriff J. A. Casey has been quite ill since the election of last week. Let no one think however that the Democratic landslide was the cause of his illness. He is so use to such things that they have but little effect on his nerves. "Jim" took the result of the vote very philosophically. He believes there is a better day coming his way. He is now on the improve and will soon be his old self again. So be it.

Our section was visited by another heavy south wind and high tide last Sunday which caused considerable uneasiness among the watermen. Not much damage was done to boating. One of our young sports N. K. was cut from his bungalow at the head of R. H. Creek.

J. R. Ryan, Jr., is sporting a broad smile these days all because the stork visited his home Wednesday and left him and his wife a fine daughter.

A DAY IN KENT.

Don't mention the city, or what you got
To me Kent Co is the world's garden spot
Still Pond, is the place to start the pace,
Now give old Kent, a motor race.
Then motor along to Chestertown
And on the way, just look around,
Around the first bend, don't fail to see
That grand old farm, where Atwell used to be.
And the Norris place, just a little to the right,
Just stop and taste those peaches, if they are ripe.
The next stop is Lynch's that you go through
Go very slow, a train might be due.
Now take a look at some of Kent's finest land;
As you speed by Casy's and Sammy Mann's.
Now run your car with its great speed
For roads in Kent, are good you see
Put on low gear, then climb Goose Hill.
The next in sight is the paper mill
When you pass Washington College,
And its beautiful ground
Then you know you are motoring through Chestertown.
If you see any land you want to buy, or rent
Just look in the News, the best paper in Kent
Now if you are hungry, and like very much to eat.
Stop at the Voshell house, while in the county seat.
And when you hear the waiter, blow that dinner horn.
Just set your mouth for biscuit, chicken, and some sugar corn.
And if you are in politics and wonder where Kent stands,
I'll tell you now and don't forget
You are in a Democratic land.
To prove these words, in the News you will see
Where Kent went strong for Blair Lee
Now if your time, is short in Kent.
I know you will think it was well spent
But before you depart, I wish to say
That all over Kent is just this way.
And if you have another trip on hand
I know you will visit this beautisul land.

FALL
Announcements

TWICE during each year a store (especially of this sort) presents to the buyer entirely different aspects. In fact, due to our local climate, the Dry Goods Merchant has but two seasons—Fall and Winter merge to make one season, and Spring and Summer the other. To prepare for one of these seasons (six months long) is no small task.

To assist us in this preparation the policy of this store has been to buy only from wholesale houses which are considered foremost in the country, both as to style and quality of their goods. This policy has been the bulwark of whatever success we have achieved as distributors of good merchandise.

A "Reason Why" Advertisement On Clothing!

In reading the many different advertisements on clothing, each claiming to be the best values in the world for the money, it is small wonder that all advertising is taken by the average reader with a grain of allowance for the enthusiasm of the advertiser.

But when you read our advertisements, we earnestly urge you to take every word we say literally. Each statement we offer, each claim that we make, is carefully and thoroughly considered before it is made, and then when it is put in one of our advertisements, we stand ready with our entire organization to back it up to the limit.

While we admit that many clothes handled by other reputable dealers are just exactly as good as ours, we do claim that in no other store can we get a service that equals ours in promptness, carefulness and absolute dependability.

And it is, then, this combination of service and quality that makes this store the store for you to think of when you need clothes.

Don't you know that we're making a good many OVERCOATS

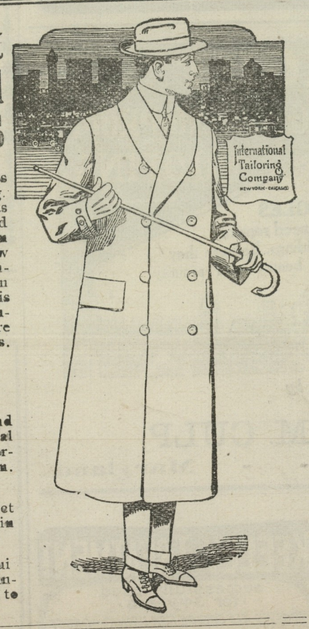

DON'T YOU BUY ONE unless you let me show you the saving. It's the same on OVERCOATS as on Suits. Then you're measured and then they're tailored by clean people, both from a sanitary view point and manner of trading, insuring you absolute security in more ways than one, and this superior service is at your command for less money than you're now asked for ready-made clothes.

WHY?

No large stock to carry and carry over, large rents, general losses and large expenses generally. This is the plain solution. Look and you'll see.

A nice line of Raincoats direct from a large manufacturer just in and will be sold likewise.

Give me six days to make a Suit or Overcoat, two days on Raincoats and I can deliver them to you from our New York plant.
