FROM LABORER TO TEACHER.

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 16.—Edmund L. Dana, grandson of Henry W. Longfellow, the poet, and formerly an instructor of philosphy at Harvard has returned to teaching after a year spent in the role of laborer. He has accepted a professorship in philosophy and education at Washington College, Chestertown Md

About a year ago Mr. Dana created considerable consternation in society circles by marrying Miss Jessie Halliday, an English miniature painter, the ceremony being performed by a justice of the peace, a ritual of the couple's own making being substituted. The youthful Socialist then took a position as a stoker on a railroad. Later he served as a farm hand and a car conductor. Before assuming his present place Dana held a job as a reporter.—Balto. Turkey Sandwiches!—Quite a treat Medders & Co. are giving their distant trade this Christmas. Roast turkey sandwiches, hot coffee and celery served in fine shape. People are going from far away places to see Medders & Co.'s real old kris. They have a great Christmas show this season and it is worth your time to visit this place next week.

Boys, how would you like to be in Oregon. Meat for the needy in several cities in that State was furnished free of charge by farmers of that section Saturday. In a drive covering only two square miles, the farmers killed 1200 rabbits, which have destroyed much fall-sown wheat. The rodents were shipped to Portland and other cities for distribution among the poor. It is planned to continue the drives over a territory of 25 square miles and clear the wheat fields of the pests.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS

Mr. Wm. Ford Thrown from Team and Injured—Mr. Robert Ayres Has Narrow Escape.

Mrs. James L. Beck fell and cut her head quite badly last Friday night while about her household duties. Dr. Whaland attended her.

Mr. Wm. Ford, the efficient Superintendent of the Kent County Almshouse, and one of Kent's most active octogenarians, met with a frightful accident Monday while on his way to Chestertown. Mr. Ford, accompanied by a colored driver, was coming along in front of Mr. Lewin U. Skirven's gate, when an auto coming in the opposite direction caused his horse to shy and the dearborn to strike a post holding a mail box. The horse broke lose from the vehicle dragging the colorod man out and throwing Mr. Ford heavily to the ground. Mr. Jacob F. Thompson, coming along at that time on his automobile route to Tolchester, found Mr. Ford in an unconscious state and immediately carried him to his home, where Dr. Whaland was telephoned for. Dr. Whaland found Mr. Ford seriously injured in the right shoulder and bruised in several other places and he will be confined to his bed for the present. The auto is said to belong to a gentleman from Barclay.

Mr. Robert Ayres, of near Tolchester, coming to Chestertown Monday morning, was thrown from his carriage by his young horse shying at the automobile of Mr. Biddle Hossinger, near Fancy School House, one wheel passing over his right leg and being slightly bruised over the eye. His injuries, however, were slight.

Mr. Ayres, holding a dog in each hand bringing them to Mr. James Thompson, Chestertown, was being driven by an old darkey when Mr. Hossinger's machine came into sight. The horse apparently, was not afraid, but when the team was nearly abreast of the car the horse suddenly shot to one side, throwing Mr. Ayres directly in front of the car. Only the quick work of Mr. Hossinger, Mr. Ayres says, kept him from being run over by the car also. One of his dog's legs were broken. The negro soon stopped the team. Mr. Ayres returned to his home, had Dr. Smith set the dog's leg and then he walked to town. Bob is some walker making the 12 miles in quick time!

DEATHS.

Chestertown received a severe shock Wednesday morning when it was learned that William F. Wink died the night before. Mr. Wink and family moved to the Atkinson farm, near Chestertown about eight years ago coming here from Somerset county, Md. He was a native of Pennsylvania. No man in this community in such a short time had so endeared himself to all persons with whom he came in contact. Mr. Wink was indeed a fine man, neighborly, industrious, sober and always ready to help in any cause. He had sold his farm here and bought a place in Delaware where he was to move in April. About a month ago he complained of feeling bad, but only last week made a trip to Delaware. He was 46 years of age and leaves a widow and three children, Mrs. Jessie Everhart, Esther and Harold Wink.

The bearers were J. L. Smyth, J. C. Davis, C. J. Reiche, E. W. Emory, Frank Shinn T. R. Starr. The interment took place at Chester cemetery yesterday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Rice, officiating. J. E. Ferguson undertaker.

Mrs. Jennie Y. Glascock, wife of the late William A. Glascock, of 1824 Linden avenue, Baltimore, died at her late residence Saturday, aged 69 years. Mrs. Glascock was a sister of Mrs. Thomas W. Elliason, of Chestertown. Funeral was held Tuesday.

Mrs. Harriett B. Kelley died at her home near Betterton on Friday night last after a lingering illness of diabetis, aged 64 years. She leaves a husband, Mr. W. F. Kelley, and three daughters, Mrs. E. D. Briscoe, Mrs. Charles Brice and Mrs. Thomas Silcox. The body was taken to Baltimore on the Tolchester line on Monday morning and interment was made in Louden Park on Tuesday at three o'clock. Undertaker Wm. H. Krusen had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Tempie Lambert received word last week that Mr. William Baker had died in Arizona on Nov. 24th. The deceased was a native of Chestertown being a son of the late Doe Baker and a nephew of the late Mrs. Worrell and Miss Sarah Jane Houston. He left here about 1887 and has been living in the West ever since. Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., attorney, is trying to arrange for his interment here.

Mrs. Mary L. C. Crouch, wife of Emory I. Crouch, died at her home at the Cliffs Wednesday morning, aged 49. Mrs. Crouch had been to Piney Neck the previous day and went about her home duties as well as usual, but had been in poor health for some time. She leaves a husband and six children, viz., Lulu, Mrs. Frank Hadaway, Mrs. Howard Hadaway, Mrs. Arthur Legg, Lester and Samuel Crouch. The funeral took place yesterday morning, interment in Chester cemetery, Rev. O. B. Rice officiating; C. L. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers were Romie Crouch, R. L. Kirby, Frank and Howard Hadaway, Arthur Legg and James W. Brown.

Sales of Real Estate.—Mr. John H. Evans has sold the detached field of his farm where Robert E. Deager lives, on the road from Church Hill to Price's Station, containing about 55 acres, to R. Oscar Walls, for $3,600.

W. H. Temple has sold his McCollister house to James Brown and E. S. Vallient, for $700. This property is situated in Church Hill.

Duck Record—Robert B. Johnson, of Golt, has a record hard to beat in his duck business. He set 600 eggs and hatched and raised 500 drakes and ducks. His old ducks, 40, laid 435 eegs from Jan. 1st to July 1st, 1913. They are of the farm and white variety, white egg strain.

Thieving.—Thieves broke into the store of Messrs. Graham & Clements, in Chestertown, Sunday night, and stole several articles and ransacked things in general. They pried the back window up with a stick and left it standing. They searched the cash register, but found it empty, as the firm has adopted the wise policy of putting their cash in a safer place at night. Nothing of considerable value, except a case of razors, was taken.

Forgeries.—Jim Green, a Chestertown negro, is now a fugitive from justice because of having attempted to cash a check forged on Mr. A. Leon Brown, of near town, for $93. The negro presented the check at the Chestertown Bank of Maryland, but Mr. Crouch saw in a moment that the writing was not Mr. Brown's and called up the sheriff's office, but the negro escaped.

Walter Coleman, a Chestertown negro, is now in jail on the charge of forging a note on Mr. Thomas Supers for $3, and having the same cashed at Graham & Clements' store.
