POSTMASTER THOMAS ENTERTAINS

Postmaster M. Wilbur Thomas, of Chestertown, made a most genial host on Monday night last at the Voshell House. Mr. Thomas has been postmaster of Chestertown over eight years and has made a most agreeable, accommodating and successful official. In appreciation of the co-operation of his deputies, fellow-workers and a few friends he gave this turkey supper on Monday evening.

The supper was served in the usual sumptuous manner of "Aunt" Tempie Lambert and consisted of oyster cocktail, escalloped oysters, roast turkey with cranberries, hominy, celery, potato salad, slaw, olives, coffee, frozen maringo-cherries in ice cream, cake, nuts, raisins and other trimmings. Short remarks were made by Postmaster Thomas, Col. W. J. Vannort, L. B. Russell, T. D. Bowers, W. B. Usilton, Jr. and H. F. Jefferson. All congratulated Mr. Thomas upon his successful administration of the Chestertown postoffice and wished him success in his new business career as a member of the hardware firm of Graham & Thomas. Those present besides the host, Mr. Thomas, were :

Col. W. J. Vannort,	Charles E. Woods,
Harry R. Graham,	Thomas Willis,
R. Frank Elburn,	Fred. S. Russell,
Harry F. Jefferson,	H. Shimp,
Alvin Coleman,	James Dunbracco.

A REAL EASTERN SHO' BANQUET

The Board of Governors of the Eastern Shore Societies have perfected plans for the first annual dinner, which will be given at the Hotel Rennert on Wednesday, January 21st. The menu has been arranged with a view of selecting those dishes for which the Eastern Shore counties are famous and nearly every dish served will carry the name of the county it represents. Here it is;

Selected Somerset Oysters,
Tomato Bisque, Caroline County Style;
Wicomico Celery, Salted Nuts,
Terrapin, Dorchester County Style,
Queen Anne's Filet of Beef,
Musharoon Sauce,
Cecil County Peas,
Boiled Young Chicken, Kent County,
Worcester Sweet Potatoes, Grilled,
Old Talbot Ham, Hearts of Lettuce,
Old-Fashioned Ice Cream,
Caker, Coffee, Cigars, Cigarettes,
Eastern Shore Beaten Biscuit,

Beaten biscuit will be imported direct from the Shore. The oysters will come from the waters of Somerset, while down in Kent they broil chickens as no one else can, then there is the genuine diamond-back terrapin. It is said that in the board meeting there was considerable competition among the county-vice-president as to which county the honor of claiming the terrapin should go. No one disputed the claim of Caroline to the tomato, as she grows more than any other two counties put together; nor was there much dispute about the sweet potatoes, for the southern counties on the "Shore" produce the best that reach the city markets. Cecil took the petit peas, but Somerset, Dorchester, Kent and Talbot all thought their terrapin the best.

A committee has been appointed to look after speakers and they will all be Eastern Shoremen. Lynn R. Meekins, of Dorchester county, will be the toastmaster.

WEDDING BELLS.

STRONG—WALLS.

Crumpton M. E. Church was the scene of a pretty wedding Saturday, Dec. 27, 1913, when Laura Virginia Strong, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Strong, became the wife of Mr. Homer Catlin Walls. The bride beautifully attired in white and carrying carnations and lilies of the valley was given in marriage by her father. Miss Reese, of Baltimore, the maid of honor, wore a gown of delicate pink and carried pink carnations. The wedding march was rendered by Prof. Numbers, of Millington. Mr. Dauson Walls, brother of the groom was best man while the following acted as ushers: Messrs. Wm. Weist, J. S. E Pardee, — Price, ——.

Mr. and Mrs. Walls left on the afternoon train for a trip north. Upon their return they will reside on the Walls farm, near Crumpton.

BOWEN—BURRIS.

Bloomingdale, on Chester river, was the scene of a lovely home wedding on Saturday, December 27, at high noon, when Miss Evelyn Burris, third daughter of Mr. William P. Burris, was given in marriage to Mr. C. Vernon Bowen, a popular young man of Church Hill. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns, potted plants and evergreens.

The ceremony was performed by Dr. T. Manley Sharpe, rector of St. Luke's parish, and was witnessed by the relatives of the two families only. Mrs. Etta Brierly, of Centreville played the wedding march. The bride's gown was white satin, and the veil was caught with lillies of the valley. She carried bride's roses and lillies of the valley. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served. They will reside in Church Hill where Mr. Bowen is engaged in business.

The bride was married in a dark blue traveling suit, hat and gloves to match, and carried a large bouquet of white carnations. They will reside on a farm near Chestertown.

MORRIS—BEAUCHAMP

Quite a surprise was sprung on Princesss Anne last Thursday, when Mr. Charles B. Morris, now residing in Baltimore, arrived with his bride who was Miss Bertha Beauchamp, of near Snow Hill. The marriage was solemnized at the home of the bride on New Year's morning at 5 o'clock and the happy couple at once set out for Princess Anne where they spent the day at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Morris. The bride, who is a graduate of the Normal Department of Washington College, at Chestertown, has been a teacher at Pittsville, Md., for several years past.
