KNOW THYSELF

BY MRS. L. H. SIGOURNEY

"They are never alone that are accompanied by noble thoughts."—SIR PHILIP SIDNEY.

When gentle twilight sits
On day's forsaken throne,
Mid the sweet hush of eventide,
Muse by thyself alone;
Ere sleep asserts its power
Hold pleasant converse with thyself
In Meditation's bower.

Motives and deeds review
By memory's truthful glass,
Thy silent self the only judge
And critic as they pass;
And if thy wayward face
Should give thy conscience pain,
Resolve with energy divine
The victory to gain.

Not on the outer world
For inward joy depend,
Enjoy the luxury of thought,
Make thine own self thy friend;
Not with the restless throng
In search of solace roam,
But with an independent zeal
Be intimate at home.

Good company have they
Who by themselves do walk,
If they have learned on blessed themes
With their own souls to talk;
For they shall never feel
Of dull ennui the power,
Not penury of loneliness
Shall haunt their hall or bower.

NEGRO HEIR TO $200,000.

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 6.—Levi A. Taylor, 35 years old, a negro farmer near Newark, was notified today that he had fallen heir to an estate worth about $200,000.

Mrs. Susie B. Righter, a white widow, who died recently at Atlantic City, made him her sole beneficiary. He worked for the woman for several years as gardener. The bequest is the strangest ever known here. A lawyer from Atlantic City came here in search of Taylor, who was ignorant of his good fortune.

The estate includes 61 houses on a tract bounded by Pennsylvania, Mediterranean and Virginia avenues, Atlantic City.

Taylor, a native of Coochs Bridge, Del., was an inmate of the Ferris Industrial School, a reform institution near here, when a youth, being committed for a minor offense. He remained there two years and during his commitment learned gardening. In 1900 he went to Atlantic City and entered the employ of Mrs. Righter. He supervised the reclaiming of lowland at the seashore resort, upon which his employer built many houses. This is the property bequeathed him.

He looked after the dwellings and was also gardener for Mrs. Righter, until two years ago, when he left Atlantic City and bought two farms near Newark. Recently his benefactress paid off mortgages on his farms "in order to give him a good start."

The woman had no direct heirs, it is said. As Taylor had worked faithfully for her, she decided some time ago to make him her beneficiary, although he knew nothing of it.

The negro said tonight that because of his experience in early life he will devote the proceeds of the estate in establishing a home for negro boys near Wilmington, where they can be taught useful trades.

He engaged a Wilmington lawyer and will go to Atlantic City shortly to claim his bequest.

SALISBURY TO CLEAN UP.

Chestertown has some excitement but Salisbury is a close rival in another way. A dispatch from that fine city dated Sunday says:

In every church today the ministers prayed for the move for a "cleaner" better Salisbury. At Asbury M. E. Church the members indorsed the petition wherein the Legislature is asked to pass an anti-shipping liquor law for Wicomico county, and the county representatives are called on to work for such a bill.

At the Presbyterian Church the Rev. T. W. M. Beale made an urgent appeal for his members to back the Law and Order League and to support the Anti-Shipping bill. Another petition was circulated and signed at this church.

That every God-Fearing citizen of Salisbury must rise and drive out vice was the declaration of Rev. Dr. L. F. Warner, pastor of Bethesda Methodist Protestant Church, one of the most prominent churches in Salisbury.

"Shall we stand idle by and see our daughters and our sons dragged to that gambling den and the resorts that are luring. The time for action has arrived and God has given some of us strength to seize the opportunity to stamp out this thing before it is beyond our power. We are fighting an enemy that knows how to fight, but we have with us the might of God and we fear not.

The churches were thronged and the attendence of men was larger than in years.

Mayor Kennerly pointed out that Salisbury is a typical country town of from 7,000 to 8,000 inhabitants, that conditions has grown up so slowly and silently that few persons realized them, that suddenly the citizens awoke to conditions, which exists in practically every country town, and determined to make Salisbury a cleaner, better town.

A report of the arrests made up to date and given out by Mayor Kennerly is as follows:

Crap shooting, 29 men and boys.
Disorderly house raid, four women and three men.
Poker game raid, seven men, a boy and a women.
Proprietors of five poolrooms and one bowling alley.
Second crap game raid, seven men and boys.
Resort keepers, two women.
Street walkers, four women.
Bootlegging raids (two), nine men.
Disorderly house raid, nine persons.

One of the results of the agitation—possibly the most far-reaching outside of Salisbury—is the sentiment which has sprung up for an anti-shipping bill. It appears to be the first move in this direction in the "dry" counties of the Eastern Shore, and there is a possibility that it may spread far and wide.

This town has suffered greatly in illicit liquor selling, because of its proximity to Delaware. There is an anti-shipping law in that State, and it has become a custom for many negroes and others to drive over to Salisbury and receive liquor shipments. The possession of liquor by this class has led, naturally, to bootlegging and similiar violations of law, which have grown in extent until the people became aroused.

It has been charged here that towns and shipping points near the Delaware line have become important depots for liquor shipments intended for persons living in Delaware. The Rev. George Jones made the statement recently that at Hobbs' station there were received 1,000 packages of liquor during Christmas week.

No Timid Settlers Wanted In Kent, Mr. Spear Declares, But Men Who Will Join In Driving Out The "Savages."

TO THE EDITORS OF THE SUN.—Sir: We feel very sorry for the Baltimore real estate men who are afraid of losing the sale of a farm in Kent county on account of the fact being made known that we have savages among us; but the truth is we do not need such timid settlers here on the frontier. We need men who are able to shoulder their guns and force the savages to their jungle.

Of course, we do not expect to have it thus always; we expect to break the spirit of these bold savages, and that peace again will reign in this delightful land, so the most timid settlers can come among us and share in our bountiful harvests. And it will come the sooner when Baltimore ceases to be an asylum for escaped criminals and the State Militia ceases to escost them across the Chesapeake aboard a Government yacht.

And then, too, when the country becomes more thickly settled Kent may be able to furnish one of the judges, one who can appreciate the situation

Colored Citizens Pass Resolutions.

WHEREAS, there has been a gloom of sadness and darkness cast over our town, namely Melitota, by two adults, in persons of James Paraway and Norman Mabel, we the people of Melitota are heartily sorrowful of the deed that has occurred among our negro race. Please do not lay the charge to us, for we, as law abiding citizens are willing for the law to have its full extent for what has occurred in the past.
