ROCK HALL NOTES.

After a heroic struggle of more than a year against the demands of the grim reaper, Mr. C. H. Jones succumbed on Friday night of last week. His ailment was a general breakdown. He was for many years one of our energetic hackmen, always genial, courteous and ready, day or night, to accommodate all comers, distance long or short. His retirement a year ago was most regretable and his demise is most lamentable. The funeral service over his remains took place Tuesday afternoon at the M. E. Church, conducted by Rev. J. W. Prettyman. The edifice was crowded. Interment was in Wesleyan cemetery, with Casey Bros. in charge. The following were the pall-bearers: C. H. Smith, Wm. Williams, Price Orr, J. R Ryan, Jr., C. O. Donnelly and T. E, Jones. Two selections from each order of which the deceased was a member, Jr. O. A. M., D. A. R. and P. O. S. of A., and these orders attended the funeral in a body and performed the last sad rites at the grave.

Oystermen, under the influence of the Oystermen's Protective Association, of which Capt. Tom Webster is leader, seems to be in a fair way to injure their "craft." Oystermen of Kent and Queen Anne's ought to stand aloof from the plans proposed Our oystermen have not forgotten Webster's raid on Hodges' bar a few years ago, nor do they have much use for Capt. "Tom" Howard.

Mrs. Wm. T. Harrison was taken to the hospital on Monday. She is a victim of appendicitis.

That ground hog is some forecastsr. He's no joke!

GRANGE NOTES.

Kennedyville Grange has been having very good and interesting meetings this winter, one of its aims has been to help and encourage the young people. Our young members have taken part in all our meetings and one night in each month has been left in charge entirely with the young folks after the business part of the meeting was over. Our Granges should encourage the young men and women if we expect them to take an interest in the meetings, and the Grange needs the young people as much or more than other organizations.

On Monday night, Feb. 16th, we have ten candidates to confer the first and second degrees on. Last Monday night our Worthy Lecturer, Mrs. Lily Arcnibald prepared a debate on the question, "Resolved, that it is more beneficial for a young man to stay on the farm than to take a position in the city." For the affirmative was Wm. W. Clendaniel, Wm. Groves, John Sutton ; negative—Wm. T. Hague, Harry J. Hill, Jas. Weer. The judges, Miss Emma Shafer, Mrs. R. L. Wallis and Mrs. Dr. Urie after a careful counsel together decided in favor of the negative. We missed our Chaplain, Rev. F. S. Cain on Monday night. He is under the care of Dr. Urie having a bad case of the grip. We are glad to hear he is improving.

A MEMBER.

The next special meeting of Fairlee Grange will be held on Wednesday, Feb. 18th, at which time the old colonial costumes will be worn with powdered hair, etc. Subjects of interest will be discussed. Garner edited and read by Mrs. Harry T. Hoyle. The program will consist of readings, recitations and special music.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian Church at Worton enjoyed an instructive and forcible sermon last Sunday night. The text, Luke 14-21, "Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city and bring in hither the poor and the mained and the halt and the blind." I take it that Rev. Mr. Clews meant it for us to go out and invite the people to come and hear the word of God and see the light that they may heed. The text for next Sunday night is Matt. 25; 16 : "Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same and made the other five talents" Come and hear the sermon you are more than welcome, at 7.15 p. m. at Worton.

LARGE CATCH OF ROCK.

Captains Joshua Thomas, William Carter and Bert Carter, three deep water fishermen from Rock Hall caught two tons of rock fish near Bloody Point Light House a few days ago.
