THE CONVERSION OF REV. BILLY SUNDAY

Thrilling Story of The Event as Told by The Evangelist Himself in Pittsburgh Sermon Recently — From Baseball Diamond to Salvation Barracks And Pulpit.

Twenty-eight years ago I walked down a street in Chicaga in company with some ball players who were famous in this world, some of them are dead now, and we went to a saloon. It was Sunday afternoon and we got tanked up and then went and sat down on a corner. I never go by that street without thanking God for saving me. It was a vacant lot at that time. We sat down on a curbing. Across the street a company of men and women were playing on instruments — horns, flutes and slide trombones—and the others were singing the gospel hymns that I used to hear my mother sing back in the log cabin in Iowa, and back in the old church where I used to go to Sunday School. And God painted on the canvas of my recollection and memory a vivid picture of the scenes of other days and other faces. Many have long since turned to dust.

I sobbed and sobbed and a young man stepped out and said :

"We are going down to the Pacific Garden Mission, won't you come down to the mission ? I am sure you will enjoy it. You can hear drunkards tell how they have been saved and girls tell how they have been saved from the red light district."

I arose and said to the boys : "I am through. I am going to Jesus Christ, We've come to the parting of the ways" and I turned my back on them.

Some of them laughed and some of them mocked me, one of them gave me encouragement, others never said a word.

Twenty-eight years ago I turned and left that group on the corner of State and Madison streets and walked to the little Mission and fell on my knees and staggered out of sin and into the arms of the saviour.

I went over to the west side of Chicago, where I was keeping company with a girl, now my wife, Nell. I married Nell. She was a Presbyterian, so am I a Presbyterian. If she had been a Catholic I would have been a Catholic, because I was hot on the trail of Nell.

The next day I had to go out to the ball park and practice. Every morning at 10 o'clock we had to be out there and practice. I never slept that night. I was afraid of the horse laugh that gang would give me because I had taken my stand for Jesus Christ.

I walked down to the old ball grounds. I will never forget it. I slipped my key into the wicket gate and the first man to meet me after I got inside was Mike Kelly.

Up came Mike Kelly, he said: "Bill, I'm proud of you. Religion is not my long suit, but I'll help you all I can."

Up came Anson, the best ball player that ever played the game, Pfeffer, Clarkson, Williamson, Fline, Simmy McCormick, Burns and Dalrymple. There wasn't a fellow in the game who knocked, every fellow had a word of encouragement for me.

That afternoon we played the old Detroit club. We were neck and neck for the championship. That club had Thompson, Richardson, Rowe, Dunlap, Hanion and Bennett, and they could play ball.

I was playing right field. Mike Kelly was catching and John G. Clarkson was pitching. He was as fine a pitcher as ever crawled into a uniform.

There are some pitchers today—Bender, O'Toole, Wood, Matthewson, Johnson, Marquad, but I do not believe any of them stood in the class with Clarkson. Cigarettes put him on the bum. When he'd take a bath the water would be stained with nicotine.

We had two men out and they had a man on second and one on third, and Bennet, their old catcher, was at the bat. Charley had three balls and two strikes on him. Charley couldn't hit a high ball. I don't mean a Scotch high-ball. But he could kill them when they went about his knees.

I hollered to Clarkson and said : "One more and we got 'em."

You know every pitcher puts a hole in the ground where he puts his his foot when he is pitching. John stuck his foot in the hole and he went clean to the ground. Oh, he could make 'em dance. He could throw overhand and the ball would go down and up like that. He is the only man on the earth I have seen do that. That ball would go by so fast that the batter could feel the thermometer drop 2 degrees as she whizzed by. John went clean down and as he went to throw the ball his right foot slipped and the ball went low instead of high.

I saw Charley swing hard and heard the bat hit the ball with a terrific boom. Bennett had smashed the ball on the nose. I saw the ball rise in the air and knew that it was going clear over my head. I could judge within 10 feet of where the ball would light. I turned my back to the ball and ran.

The field was crowded with people and I yelled, "Stand back!" and the crowd opened like the Red Sea opened for the rod of Moses. I ran on, and as I ran I made a prayer; it wasn't theological, either, I tell you that. I said: "God, if you ever helped a mortal man, help me to get that ball. And he did and he won the game.

Horse Notes.—William Biggs is wintering a string of horses under charge of Arthur Crowe who drove Princess March, 2.14¼, in several of her races last year. The string includes an Admiral Dewey colt, 5 years old, that will make some other trotter beat 2.15 this year; Fi Fi, a 5-year-old pacer, by Barnett B.; Elsie G., that has made 2.15 in trials; June Bug, a half-sister to R. T. C., by Dignus Brook, that look like the best green pacer around here; also, a 3-year-old bay gelding, by Bohemia Boy, that has been booked up only six times and can show 2.40 speed.

S. Powell Peacock is wintering a string on a farm two miles north of Middletown that includes Barnetta B., 2.13¾, trial of 2.08, Princess March 2.14¼; Dixie D., a green one that showed a mile in 2.14½, half in 1.05½, last July; a green bay stallion by Melodious Chimes that is a fast one; a beautiful bay mare, by Admiral Dewey that looks good for the 2.20 trots this year, and five others, all unmarked. Peacock is hard at work on the bunch and can be found jogging along the dirt roads almost any hour of the day. He will fleace for Chestertown about April 1st.

George H. Johnson, of the Middletown Hotel has a beautiful pacer, Conniston, by Constantine, that has started only once and was, 2, 3, 4 in 1.13¾ three times.

Mr. W. E. Moody's large tailoring plant has authorized him to substantially reduce the prices on one hundred and sixty styles of all wool fabrics from their large line. This means quite a saving to prospective purchasers. Mr. Moody also requests us to say that his spring and summer line is ready for inspection.

Cincinnati Catholic Women Organize

Cincinnati, Ohio, January 20.—In Cincinnati the Catholic people are becoming aroused as never before against the evils of the liquor traffic. The Catholic women have organized what is known as the Carholic Women's Auxiliary of Anti-Saloon League of America. Their motto is, "No saloon with the shadow of the Cross." A large number of women have already allied themselves with the organizers and the effect of our effort is being felt. One of the organizers makes them statement:

"Beyond the shadow of a doubt, the saloon is the greatest enemy the church has to combat, at the present day. It takes years of instruction to instill in young minds, salvation for their immortal souls, and it is absolutely true the saloon will shatter it in a short flight of time. Will we who are loyal to the cross, surrender our young people of coming years to the monster of hades? NEVER. To achieve success, we will call upon the faithful to array themselves against this entrenched inferno and drive it forever from the shadow of the cross. Remember the order of the Council of Baltimore. 'And let the priests never cease to cry out boldly against drunkenness and whatever leads to it.'"

GALENA ITEMS.

Mr. James Caldwell, whose accident was mentioned in the News last week, is improving.

Dr. E. A. Scott has a fine lot of pigeons and will be ready for the Fair. He is averse to bragging on his fine birds, but we know their quality.

After the regular exercises and class study of the Junior League last Wednesday, the children were surprised by a visit from "Cupid," one of the Junior's dressed up, bringing with him fancy valentines for all.

Misses Jennie Parr and Marjorie Todd spent Wednesday in Chestertown.

Don't have to walk to the mill pond to skate this time. Just strap your skates on and skate down the streets. Less danger, too.

Among the sick of our town and vicinity are Mr. Edward Peacock, Mr. Otho Fogwell, Mr. Jas. Caldwell, Mrs. Katherine Hyland, Mrs. C. W. Moore, Mrs. Geo. Jones, Mrs. G. E. Hicks, Mr. Asbury Ruth and Miss Mattie Whitaker.

Mrs. Eva McCauley and Mrs. Elmer Jarman, who have been visiting friends in Baltimore, have returned home.

Thursday's boat only came as far as Tolchester, and passengers for town had to go in automobiles to Chestertown and come home on the train.

Mr. George Jones, Sr., who was quite sick last week, is quite well again at this writing.

Mrs. Lewis King, of Warwick, spent the week-end at the home of her brother, Mr. James Caldwell.

Mr. Wm. C. Dempsey, of Washington, D. C., spent Sunday and Monday in and near town.

Prof. Hugh S. Koehler, of the Centreville High School, was appointed by the Agricultural Department of the United States, as country agricultural demonstrator on Monday. Prof. Koehler highly recommended for the position and will at once enter upon his duties, and any one in the country who wishes his services or desires any information in regard to seeding and cultivating crops is free to call upon him for his services at any time.

WOMAN WOULD NOT GIVE UP

Though Sick and Suffering; At Last Found Help in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Richmond, Pa. — "When I started taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was in a dreadfully rundown state of health, had internal troubles, and was so extremely nervous and prostrated that if I had given in to my feelings I would have been in bed. As it was I had hardly strength at times to be on my feet and what I did do was by a great effort. I could not sleep at night and of course felt very bad in the morning, and had a steady headache.

"After taking the second bottle I noticed that the headache was not so bad, I rested better, and my nerves were stronger. I continued its use until it made a new woman of me, and now I can hardly realize that I am able to do so much as I do. Whenever I know any woman in need of a good medicine I highly praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. Frank Clark, 3146 N. Tulip St., Richmond, Pa.

Women Have Been Telling Women

for forty years how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has restored their health when suffering with female ills. This accounts for the enormous demand for it from coast to coast. If you are troubled with any ailment peculiar to women why don't you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound ? It will pay you to do so. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.
