OSCAR CLARK, Attorney.

Order of Publication

Joseph W. Peacock, vs. Edwin H. Trinks.

In the Circuit Court for Kent County in Equity. No. 1873.

THE object of the bill is to procure an Injunction directed to the said Edwin H. Trinks, enjoining and prohibiting him, his agents or employees from interfering with, or preventing your Orator in any way, from cutting and removing the timber from the farm, under the terms of his contract.

The Bill states:

1. That on the 7th day of June, 1911, Joseph W. Peacock purchased of Oscar Clark by contract of sale, a copy of which is herewith filed, marked Exhibit "A," the merchantable gum and poplar timber then standing on the John S. Walters farm, in Kent county, Maryland, situate on the county road leading from Golts to Millington, then tenanted by John George, together with the right of ingress and egress over said farm for the purpose of cutting and removing said timber.

2. That on July 15 1911, the said Oscar Clark conveyed to Edwin H. Trinks, the defendant, the farm on which the aforesaid timber stood, subject to the rights of your orator under his contract, to cut and remove said timber, as will appear by a certified copy of said deed, herewith filed, marked Exhibit "B."

3. That in said deed the right is reserved unto your orator to cut the timber sold unto him as aforesaid, but the said Oscar Clark and wife, the grantors in said deed, inadvertently failed to reserve the right of ingress and egress for the purpose of cutting and removing said timber, but your orator charges that the said defendant purchased said farm with the full knowledge of and subject to all your orator's rights under the contracts of sale aforesaid.

4. That your orator cut a part of said timber purchased as aforesaid, and remove same from said farm with this defendant's full knowledge and consent, and continued to cut and remove said timber for a long time without any interference or molestation from the defendant until a short time ago, when the said defendant interfered with and still continues to interfere with and prevent your orator and his employees from cutting and removing said timber, even going so far as to cause the arrest of your orator and his employees for trespass on said land.

Your orator is advised, believes and so charges, that the defendant, Edwin H. Trinks, resides in the State of Pennsylvania, and is a non-resident of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon this 13th day of March, 1914, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent county, in Equity, that the plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent county once in each of four successive weeks before the 13th day of April next, giving notice to the said Edwin H. Trinks, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in this Court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 30th day of April next, to show cause, if any he has, why an injunction ought not issued as prayed.

STILL POND CLUB MEETING

The Still Pond Farmers Club met at the home of Mr. Harry Williams Feb. 26th. After the addresses of the host and hostess, the committee on tomatoes made a partial report. They stated that some offers had been made in the county for tomatoes, but the price named by the canners was too low for the farmers to consider. In Pennsylvania some contracts have been made at $9.18 per ton, and in New Jersey, where the tomatoes are graded, $16 per ton is the contract price for firsts.

The committee named to co-operate with the Southern Development and Organization Company reported no reply to their letter stating the views of the Farmers Club, that immigrant laborers are needed instead of immigrant farmers, who would eventually drive us out of business.

The debate, "Resolved, that the Still Pond Farmers Club can be made more beneficial," was decided in favor of the affirmative, Mrs. Shafer, Mrs. J. S. Harris, Miss Emma Shafer and A. L. Harris. Mr. Shafer, Mr. James S. Harris, Rev. S. S. Hepbron and Mrs. Cornelius were the defeated debaters. Many benefits of the club were presented by the losers, but not enough to prove that we can't put on a little more steam without danger of an explosion.

The new Cannery Bill, the Torrens system of land registration and the Rural Credit Bill were discussed, and all three were considered good laws that should be passed for the benefit of agriculture.

Mr. James T. Anthony, of the Rich Neck Farmers Club, was present. He told us that their club had gotten their first ideas from the old Still Pond Farmers Club.

The subject for discussion at the next meeting will be, "How can farming be made a profitable business?" Mr. Bennett and Mr. Roseberry will open the discussion.

Mr. Tilghman Shafer will entertain the club on Thursday, March 26th.

A HIGH TESTIMONIAL.

The "Redlands Daily Facts" in a column article on the death of Charles F. Harper, Esq., recently, in Redlands, says:

"Charles F. Harper, of Center street, died at an early hour this morning, following an acute heart attack beginning last Saturday. With the passing of this spark of life went out one of the most brilliant minds of the country. That is the undivided opinion of those who had the privilege of knowing Mr. Harper. A career that would have been a national one, a position that would have been near the top of those to which man's ambitions reach, was blighted by disease and ended by death.

"But the ravages of disease had been too great, and despite the benefits of the best medical skill and the tenderest care, Mr. Harper's health gradually failed. His fertile mind continued active, however, and his love of study none the less. Probably, despite the fact that he was barely forty years of age, there was not a man in Redlands better read in history, in philosophy, in all those classics and the more modern books of worth as well that go to make a mind strong and clear and which bring the best culture.

His advices was sought by men of the law, for his clear reasoning powers, added to his wide learning made him an exceptionally safe counsellor. Friends asked his counsel. He was able despite his lack of strength to act in an advisory capacity in his profession. One of his pleasures, and one that brought him into touch with the community, was to occasionally write an article on the political issues of the day, or on some other subject of paramount community interest for the Facts. A letter on the political situation in California, printed less than three weeks ago, excited wide discussion and commendation over much of the state. His clarity of thought and remarkable ability of terse and understandable expression, were as unusual as his historical and philosophical learning. He read books and digested them that are practically called for not at all at the local library. He delighted in the history of the ancients and in following out the parallels in the present day. He was scholarly, but not pedantic. And his close friends loved to listen to his ideas and to watch the play of his brilliant intellect."

Splendid Affair.—A fine audience attended the play in Assembly Hall of Chestertown High School last Friday night. Every character was well taken, Mr. Harry Rouse being the "star." Prof. Mark Creasey deserves the success won by his patient work. Over $40 was realized. The cast of characters was as follows:

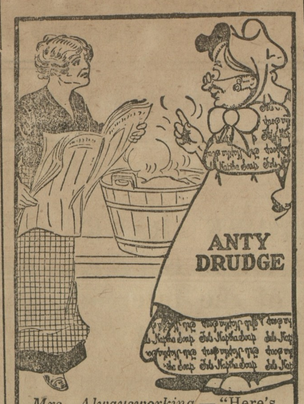

Mad Nance	Florence Hill
Fanny	Eva Kelley
Andy	Harry Rouse
Squire Egan	Floyd Brown
Squire O'Grady	Charles Ford
Edward O'Connor	Edward Meginnes
Murphy	Allie Blyman
Dick Dawson	Albion Bailey
Furlong	Cecil Robinson
Simon	Stewart Price
McQuade	Barber Bartley
Ooney	Rebecca Davis
Instrumental Duet	Elsie Whiteley, Edgar Meginnes
Violin Solo	Merritt Twilley

The entertainment given by the dramatic and musical talent of the Kennedyville Presbyterian church at Galena Friday, March 12th, was a splendid success. There was no standing room and everyone present was pleased beyond words. It must have taken a great deal of time and patience to bring the plays and music to such a pleasing degree of perfection. But as Mr. Clews says, "I have a loyal and devoted band of followers who are sacrificing their time and energy, and who refuse to quit until their object has been attained namely, the building of the manse." Mr. Clews is now arranging to give the entertainment at Lynch and Betterton. Mr. Bowers of Lynch, has very kindly promised to attend to the seating capacity.

DEFINITION OF A GENTLEMAN

A kindly heart, a quiet voice, polite words and manners, a hand open to help, attention to little things for the comfort of others, freedom from anger, boasting and patronizing; toward the strong, courage; toward the weak, chivalry; toward all men, fairness. Few men ever see one in a mirror.

Mrs. Alwaysworking—"Here's a quotation: 'Life, however short, is made still shorter by waste of time.' Some man said that, you bet. I'd like to see the woman that has any time to waste. It's all work in my life."

Anty Drudge—"It wouldn't be all work if you'd use Fels-Naptha Soap. You are wasting your time and your strength as well. I always have a box of Fels-Naptha Soap in my house and use it for everything."

Do your work the Fels-Naptha way. It is easy, quick and thorough. Use Fels-Naptha Soap in cool or lukewarm water and you will find hard rubbing or scrubbing unnecessary because Fels-Naptha does the hard part of your work for you. Your weekly wash will be on the line in one-half the time it used to take; your clothes will be sweet, clean and white.

For everything about the house use Fels-Naptha Soap.

Buy it by the box or carton and follow the easy directions on the Red and Green Wrapper.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

Of Intention of Commissioners of Millington to Open New Streets in Town of Millington.

Under the authority conferred upon them by the Act of the General Assembly of Maryland 1906, Chapter 95, Sections 160, 160A, 160B and 160C, and in pursuance of an Ordinance duly passed and adopted, the Commissioners of Millington will proceed on or after April 6th, 1914, to open and establish a New Street in the town of Millington from Sassafras Street, Westward in the direction of the cemetery and parallel with Cypress street, through and over the lands of Charles M. Hurtt, Richard W. Comegys, James E. Hurlock, Solomon Pippin, David James Smyth and Miss Helen Rasin, and to have two inlets, one inlet to begin between the lands of Richard W. Comegys and Solomon Pippin, and the other inlet to begin at the front of the cemetery and run from then in a northerly direction to the proposed new street.

The Commissioners of Millington will take the necessary proceedings on or after April 6th, 1914, to have the amount of damages sustained by or advantages accruing to any property owner and owners through and over whose lands the above mentioned New Street and the inlets thereto are to pass, who have refused or declined to contract and agree with the commissioners for the amount of damages sustained or advantages accruing, and who have refused or declined to act by the appointment of disinterested citizens of Kent county to assess the damages and advantages which may accrue to such property and make the award thereof to the commissioners and owner or owners of such land, as provided in the before mentioned Act of Assembly of Maryland.

BENJAMIN W. DULING.
PAUL COMEGYS,
LEONARD WILSON,
March 14, 1914. Commissioners of Millington.
