SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1914.

THE Purse net bill and traction engine bill seems to have been vetoed by Gov. Goldsborough.

THE Caroline Sun which has undergone a change in its form is always a welcome visitor to our exchange table. Bro. Wilkinson is a hustler. He also recognizes true worth as is evidenced in these few lines in reference to our esteemed friend: "Ex-Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, 'the grand old man' of the Eastern Shore, has presented to the Bar of Caroline county a large portrait of himself. The Judge is held in high esteem by all members of the Bar, and his portrait will ever occupy a conspicuous place in the court house where he presided so long and well."

GARRETT FOXWELL.

In the death of Ex-Senator Garrett Foxwell Kent County has lost a good citizen. His goodness comprised these qualities of faithfulness and loyalty which make the true man. We differed with him in factional politics but have never been thereby blinded to his good traits nor those of any other man. He was generous to a fault, liberal with his purse, kind to all with whom he came into contact and a man who never cared much for formalities. Dr. W. R. Graham who preached his funeral on Tuesday summed up his good qualities in the following appropriate language which we make our own offering:

"Benevolence without ostentation, sincerity without dissimulation, goodness without affectation, friendship without hypocrisy formed a chain which linked him closely to his fellows and claimed the admiration of all."

LIQUOR SHIPPING LAW UPHELD.

The Webb-Kenyon Law, which gives the States control over liquor shipments was upheld by the Kansas Supreme Court Tuesday. As a result of the decision Kansas will take charge of all liquor shipped into the State.

The case was that of a St. Louis Brewing company, which appealed from a decision of a district court. The St. Louis company shipped a carload of beer to Corona, Kan. State officials confiscated it under the Webb law and the company sought reimbursement.

"Without this law no State has any more control over liquor than it has over the shipment of wheat and corn," said Justice R. A. Burch, who wrote this opinion. "We believe that the liquor traffic can be made subject to the same regulations as obscene literature and white slavery and that Congress has sufficient power to regulate the shipments of liquor as it has to prohibit transportation of white slaves."

Why I Wear KRYPTOK GLASSES

"I wear them, first of all, because of their convenience. They give me far and near vision in one pair; I do not need to be continually changing from one pair to another.

"I wear them also because of their distinctiveness. They look far better than the old-fashioned double-vision glasses with the ugly conspicuous cemented seam. My friends cannot detect them from single vision glasses.

"That's why I recommend KRYPTOK GLASSES to you."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Garrett Foxwell passed by the Directors of the Third National Bank of Chestertown, Md.:

WHEREAS it hath, in His infinite wisdom pleased Almighty God to call to its eternal reward the soul of Garrett Foxwell, our late friend and fellow director;—

Resolved, That while we bow in submission to the Divine Decree, it is the sense of The Board of Directors of the Third National Bank, of Chestertown, Md., that it should suitably and properly record in its minutes the high estimation and regard in which each member of this board always held and valued the aid and assistance, which he so freely rendered to this and its predecessor, the Second National Bank from the time of its organization in 1890 until his last meeting with us on March 25th, 1914. To Garrett Foxwell as much as any man was due that success with which the Bank met from its inception until the present time. It is his due that this be said.

The same integrity, fidelity to duty and high sense of honor which we all around the table of this Board recognized in him, were manifested in his private and public life. Our grief we cannot record, our sorrow we cannot express, but our debt of gratitude we can and do acknowledge when we attest that in his life and every act we believe that of Garrett Foxwell it may truly be said, "Here was a man."

the four following tracts of HIGHLY CULTIVATED FARM LAND:

TRACT NO. 1

All that tract of land situate near Black Station, Kent county, Maryland, now tenanted by Mr. Charles E. Faulkner, and containing

288¼ Acres of Land, More or Less,

It being the same tract of land which is secondlydescribed in a deed from David C. Blackiston and others to Elizabeth G. Constable, dated April 27, 1875, and recorded in Liber D. C. B., No. 1 folio 317, etc., one of the Land Record Books of Kent county. It is improved by a good substantial BRICK AND FRAME DWELLING HOUSE in good repair, together with all the outbuildings found on a modern farm. Every foot of this land is tillable and has been recently limed. This is one of the most attractive and productive farms in the State of Maryland. It is situated about half way between Black and Lambson Stations, on the Chestertown Branch of the Delaware Railroad.

TRACT NO. 2

All that tract of land adjoining the farm described as Tract No. 1, tenanted by George C. Johnston, and containing

180 Acres, 1 Rood and 24 Perches

OF LAND, more or less; it being the same tract of land which is first described in the deed mentioned in Tract No. 1. It is improved by a FRAME DWELLING HOUSE, together with the usual outbuildings. This farm has also recently been limed and every foot of it also is tillable. It is the same high-grade farming land as the above tract and is surpassed by none in productiveness.

This farm, like the others, is in a high state of cultivation, and is very productive.

56 Acres, 3 Roods & 16 Sq. Perches

The landlord's share of the growing wheat crop will go to the purchaser of each of the above tracts upon the purchaser paying for the landlord's half of the fertilizer used thereon.

This is an excellent opportunity for intending purchasers of real estate to acquire some valuable land, for this is to be a positive sale made necessary for closing the estate of Elizabeth G. Constable, deceased.
