The road work is progressing rapidly, The way is opened nearly all the way up the hill.

The Ushers Union held their monthly meeting Monday evening in the Chapel.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Dempsey visited relatives at Earlville Sunday.

The May Party held by the Junior League on the Chapel green last Saturday afternoon was well attended and much enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jarman spent Sunday with friends at Middletown.

Mrs. Wm. Merchant with her little daughter, from Denver Colorado, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gray, near town.

Mrs Lena Shallcross, who has been spending some time with Mrs. Emma Pettibone, of Baltimore, returned to her home last week.

Miss Jeanette Middleton, of Chesapeake City, visited Miss Evelyn Fowler on Sunday last.

Mrs. Sarah Hoskins, of Chestertown, spent the week-end with relatives in town.

Rev. A. P. Prettyman, of Greensboro, visited his son, Raymond A. Prettyman, last week.

Rev. Chas. W. Moore, of Laurel, Del., was in town Tuesday and Wednesday on business.

Farmers are shipping out large quantities of fine asparagus this week. Prices are pretty good.

Miss Lavelle Dempsey is visiting her cousin, Miss Della Neal, of Chester, Pa.

Mrs. H. S. Dempsey spent the first part of the week visiting relatives in Chestertown.

The sermon Sunday morning by Rev. Edwin Gardner was from St. John 21:3, "Simon Peter said unto them, I go a fishing." The sermon was very encouraging, heldful and inspiring

Mrs. George W. Jones went to Baltimore the first of the week to attend the funeral of her brother who died on Saturday, after only a few days illness of pneumonia.

At the Sunday evening song service a very enjoyable feature was a chorus of male voices.

Mr. James Hicks, from town, and Miss Ethel Little, of Wilmington, were married and returned to their home here last week.

Saturday's North American published the granting of marriage license to Walter O. Simon, of Galena, Md., and Anna M. Morave, 2539 Jasper St., Philadelphia, so we will probably have another bride in town in a few days. Great place this—for brides and grooms. Cupid is still hanging around.

DIAMOND NOTES.

Saturday was a field day for baseball. For instance at the College the local team defeated Mt. St. Mary's by score of 9 to 11 after a thrilling game. Biddle and Bowen were both in the box. This is the first game in the inter-collegiate series.

Next came the "Rosebuds" and "Basket Factory Blossoms," the former winning by score of 15 to 9. Andrew Lavinus was the "star" in this game.

Next were the Avenues vs. Uptown on Eliason's lot with "Slewey" in charge. The score here was 36 to 19. Wm. Parrott and Clark Davis were the heavy hitters.

Then there was William Smith's "Federals" who rode to Pomona on bicycles with a sandwich in each man's pocket and cleaned up the country boys by score of 9 to 5 and also the sandwiches.

In a close and interesting game at Kennedyville Saturday the Chestertown High School team won from the local team by the soore of 5 to 4. The game was a pitchers battle between Brown and Moore, both twirlers striking out twelve of their opponents.

A league composed of Crisfield, Cambridge, Seaford, Laurel and Easton is about to be started. A good team in each of these towns should draw well and this should make a good league, but Chestertown, Centreville and Elkton should be added to make the league complete.

The Chestertown High School team and the second team of Washington College will play today on Washington Field at 3 30.

Mr. Robert Ayres' Yanigans, with "Bob" on the mound and "Bill" Harris receiving, administered the first defeat to the Chestertown High School they have received this year Tuesday afternoon at Ford's Field. The score was 11 to 7..

On Friday afternoon the High School team got revenge on the Yanigans for defeat of the previous Tuesday, winning from them by the score of 9 to 3. Sachs who was on the hill for the Yanigans at the start of the game, was soon driven off, being succeeded by C. Smith, who was poorly supported.

Mrs. Hurry—"Gracious, goodness! Mrs. Staylong came here this afternoon just when I thought I was going to have a rest after finishing my wash this morning. She's just gone and I was so ashamed. She asked Dorothy to walk home with her part of the way and Dorothy said, 'I'd like to, but I can't. We're going to have dinner as soon as you leave.'"

Anty Drudge—"Well, it is provoking to have your rest broken up, but it is pleasanter to entertain company than it is to stand over washtubs all day like you used to before I told you about Fels-Naptha Soap."
