MILLINGTON

Mrs. Mattie Sudler, of Clayton, is the guest of Mrs. R. E. Porter.

Miss Will Moffett spent Monday in Wilmington, Del.

Messrs. George Slaughter and Harry Pugh, of Conshohocken, Pa., visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Slaughter last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Lidie D. Reynolds, of Elkton, is visiting friends in town.

Mrs. R. E. Porter spent a few days last week with relatives near Price's.

Mr. George Light, of Wilmington, Del., spent the week-end with his aunt, Mrs. Annie Benton.

H. H. Benneman, the up-to-date merchant of Millington. is visiting Baltimore and Philadelphia in the interest of his business.

Prize Flag Contest With P. O. S. of A.—The State Executive Committee of the Maryland Patriotic Order Sons of America is a body of energetic workers. No time is wasted, nor is an opportunity allowed to pass unimproved. Circulars have been distributed which give notice that a splendid prize flag will be given the Camp on the Eastern Shore that initiates the most members by July 1st next. Camp 34 will enter into the contest with energy, and we presume other Camps will do the same. Camp 34 has a membership of 180 and with only about 5 who are not in good standing. This Camp is in splendid financial condition and is proud of the excellent work it has done in this community, and, which it continues to do. It has over $600.00 in the treasury and has met all claims promptly. She expects EVERY member to bring in a good citizen for membership. Do it now.

Those Who Favor Us With Hurry-up Orders Receive Their Suits in FIVE DAYS After Measurements Taken

For in so large an organization as the International Co., there's a special hurry up department maintained for such emergencies.

We are making to your individual measurement an absolutely all wool, perfect-fitting, well-tailored suit for $12.00, with very gradual advances up to the finest imported fabrics. Every suit fully guaranteed by this large plant and backed by home people, whose record for 35 years fair trading in this locality is quite well known.

We guaranteed to fit you, give you first-class trimmings and workmanship and even better material than you can NOW obtain in ready made for the same money.

Why So? Think This Over

Because we are rid of the interest on large stock of ready-made clothes and carry over (owing to backward season), no big rent or interest on investment, taxes, insurance and quite heavy up-keep generally. This is the obvious, logical reason. They're coming in daily. Look at the fit, workmanship and ask the price. Won't be much trouble to see one—there's plenty around and will be satisfied with the verdict.

ROCK HALL

Holy Communion was administered in the M. E. Church last Sunday morning. About 70 partook of the emblems. The pastor, Mr. Prettyman, gave a splendid exposition of the text, "This do in remembrance of Me."

Tomorrow (Sunday) morning Mothers Day exercises will be held. The sermon will be from the text "Let your women keep silence, etc.," 1 Cor. 14; 34. This will without doubt be an interesting discourse. Years ago the church women here were disposed to take Paul at his word and stand aloof with voice and otherwise from church activities, but in this day of masculine femininity and clammar for equal suffrage, the dear ones will tell Paul to mind his own business.

Miss Ida Hinson is a popular young woman of this place and will make good as Postmistress. The patrons have confidence in her ability.

Mr. R. A. Shallcross and one of the Legislative delegates of Somerset county will conduct a soft crab enterprise for this section during the coming season. Mr. Shallcross hopes to establish a crab pickling plant at this place. Success to them, it would be a boost to this entire section.

Mr. Joseph Williame is quite a sufferer from rheumatism. Joe says, "if there is anything right or good about the malady it has got him good and right."

Reybold had a standing offer to bet $200,000.00 on the town election here. but he found takers as scarce as henteeth. The election passed off fine. Messrs. Joseph Downey, Wm. P. Durding, Thos. L. Rich, Chas. W. Ayres and Capt. Thos. Hogans winning out. The Bond issue, too. went through with flying colors, 46 to 19.

Mr. Fred Carter and family of near Still Pond. were visitors among Mr. C.'s relatives here on Sunday.

Ex-Sheriff Casey is getting his bakery and confectionery business more prominently before the public by placing a large sign over his store front. Try an adv. in the KENT NEWS, Jim, it will bring results.

Capt. Thos. Hogans is determined that no coal famine shall occur here next winter. He has purchased another vessel and larger than his present bugeye for coal freighting this summer.

Mr. Charles H. Smith has about the finest growing crop of early cabbage in the District.

Frosts and freezing of last week retarded our gardeners and truckers very much.

PINEY NECK

Mrs. Jas. Wood, Misses Bessie Jewell and Susie Frazier spent Saturday in Baltimore visiting the British Convict Ship Success and were very much impressed by the sight.

Mrs. Maggie Hyland, who has been spending some time in Baltimore, returned home on Saturday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. L. Ashley and children have been visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Ella Ward.

Mr. Edward Capel and sons, John and Paul, have been visiting Mrs. Sarah Plummer, of Wilmer's wharf.

Mrs. Cora Edwards has returned home from Baltimore.

Mr. Henry Capel is spending the summer with his sister in Queen Anne's,

We are sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Fannie Hodges, although she has been a great sufferer for a number of years and death came as a relief to her. Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Crouch, with whom she has been residing. Services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Prettyman, of Rock Hall. The pall bearers were Rev. L. A. Crouch. Romie Crouch, John and Wm. Frazier, Harry Hudson and Wm. Hyland. Undertaker, Casey Bros. The deceased is survived by an aged mother, Mrs. Maria Shriver, one daughter, Mrs. J. Crouch, and two brothers, Henry Jones and Carroll Shriver, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Collier, of Rock Hall, all of whom have the sympathy of the entire community in their bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, of Baltimore, came over to Mrs John Crouch's for the funeral of the latter's mother, Mrs. Hodges.

We were all very much interested in the Rev. Alonza Traver's sermon on Sunday evening last. He talked from Matt. 19-16. We hope Rev. Travers will soon be permanently settled among us.

Miss Nellie Brady is visiting friends in Baltimore.

STILL POND

Mr. James Severson, of Chestertown, is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rasin.

Mrs. Dr. Atwell has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Herbert Watson, Newark.

Dr. and Mrs. Kelley have had their nice home painted and it looks grand. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradley are having their home painted and will look fine when finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Gisrel and Rev. and Mrs. Colt, of Baltimore, spent the week with Rev. and Mrs. F. X. Moore.

Mr. Harry Jones spent Tuesday in Baltimore.

Mrs. Claude Hackett spent a few days with her grandmother, Mrs. Greenwood, Chestertown.

Mrs. Joseph Bowers is spending the week with Mrs. George Rash.

Mrs. Mattie Crew, of Rock Hall spent some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price.

Mr. Baynard Harper spent last week with friends at Newark, and returned home Sunday with his fine new touring car.

Miss Marion Hackett spent Wednesday with Miss Bertha Price.

January Session, 1914

CHAPTER 831.

AN ACT regulating the shipment, transportation, delivery, carrying, bringing into, handling and distributing of spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol, for beverage purposes, in Caroline, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset, Worcester, Kent, Cecil and Wicomico counties, except as herein provided, and providing penalties for the violation of the same.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be unlawful for any corporation, firm, partnership, club or association of individuals to have shipped into Caroline, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset, Worcester, Kent and Wicomico counties any spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol for beverage purposes, in any quantity whatever; but it shall be lawful for any person or individual over the age of twenty-one years to have shipped or bring into any one of the said counties spirituous, vinous, or fermented liquors in any quantity not to exceed one gallon in any one calendar month, or any malt liquor in any quantity not to exceed six dozen pint bottles or one-eighth barrel in any one calendar month, such liquor to be for personal use only of such persons, but such persons shall not be allowed to have shipped or bring both the malt liquor and the spirituous, vinous or fermented liquor in the same calendar month. Any corporation, firm, partnership, club or association of persons receiving any of the above liquors in any quantity and any person or individual receiving from any public or private carrier or carriers more than the above mentioned quantity of spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors in any one calendar month, or for any other purpose than the personal use of the consignee, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than ten dollars ($10) nor more than fifty dollars ($50) for the first offence, and for each and every additional offence not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) and be imprisoned in the Maryland House of Correction for a term not exceeding six months. The statement rendered the Sheriff and the Clerk of the Circuit Court for any of the said counties, as provided for in Section 2 of this Act by any and all public or private carriers of the delivery of more than one gallon of spirituous, vinous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol for beverage purposes, or more than six dozen pints of malt liquor or one-eighth of a barrel of malt liquor as hereinbefore provided in any one calendar month, or any copy of the statement filed with the said Clerk certified under the hand of the said Clerk with the seal of his office thereto attached, shall be prima facie evidence of the violation of this Act; provided that any person, firm or corporation who shall aid or abet in any manner or form any one in getting or obtaining more than the amount of the liquors hereinbefore described and permitted to be brought into and delivered in any of the aforesaid counties, shall be deemed to have violated the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any railroad company, steamboat company, express company or any private or common carrier or carriers to convey, transport or deliver to any depot, wharf, or any point or place in Caroline, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset, Worcester, Kent and Wicomico counties, any spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol for beverage purposes, to any firm, corporation, club or association of individuals; provided, however, that it shall be lawful for any of the aforesaid public or private carriers to carry, transport, bring into and deliver to any individual over the age of twenty-one years spirituous, vinous, or fermented liquors in any quantity not exceeding one gallon in any one calendar month, or malt liquor not exceeding in quantity six dozen pint bottles or one-eighth of a barrel in any one calendar month, and it shall be unlawful for the aforesaid common carrier or carriers to deliver such liquors to any person other than the consignee thereof or to any person under the age of twenty-one years, whether consigned to such minor or not. All such railroad companies, steamboat companies, express companies or common or private carriers doing business within the limits of any of the aforesaid counties are hereby required to keep a book in which shall be entered, immediately upon the receipt thereof, the name and address of every person to whom such liquors are shipped, the amount and kind received, the date when delivered, and by whom and to whom delivered, and the name of the firm, corporation or individual shipping such liquors, and the statement that such liquors are for personal use only. After such record shall be a blank space on which the consignee shall be required to sign his name and address in person to such record before the delivery of such liquors to such consignee, which book shall be open to the inspection of the public at any time during the business hours of the company. If the consignee shall be unable to write his name, he may sign by mark in the presence of a witness, and such witness shall sign his name on such record after the word "Witness." Such book shall constitute prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated and be admissable as evidence in any court or tribunal having jurisdiction or in any manner empowered with the enforcement of the provisions of this Act. On the last day of each month such railroad company steamboat company, express company, common or private carriers shall file with the Clerks of the Circuit Court and the Sheriffs of the respective counties aforesaid in which any such liquor has been shipped a transcript of the records of said book for that calendar month, which transcript shall be filed and preserved by the aforesaid Sheriffs and Clerks as a public document. No package, parcel or container of spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof containing alcohol for beverage purposes, shall be delivered by any common or private carrier to any person in any of the aforesaid counties unless there shall be plainly and visibly labeled or stenciled thereupon the following: the name and address of the consignor, the name and address of the consignee, the kind and quantity of the liquors contained therein, and that the liquors are only for the personal use of the consignee. And any employee or agent of any express company, railroad company, steamboat company, or any common or private carrier, failing or refusing to comply with any of the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100) for the first offense, and any subsequent offense shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100) and not more than five hundred dollars ($500) or by imprisonment in the Maryland House of Correction for a term not exceeding six months, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the Court. Provided, that if the said carrier, or its agent, does not know the identity of the person who may call for the said liquors, the said carrier or its agent shall use reasonable precaution (o be assured of the identity of such person before delivery.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to carry, bring or have brought into Caroline, Queen Anne's, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset, Worcester, Kent and Wicomico counties any spirituous, vinous, fermented, malt or intoxicating liquors, or any mixture thereof, containing alcohol for beverage purposes, except as hereinbefore provided, and any delivery by any carrier or its agent or any receipt by any person, other than is provided for in this Act, shall be deemed to have been done with intent to violate the law of said counties relating to or prohibiting the sale of such liquors. Any person, firm or corporation who violates the provisions of this Section upon trial and conviction thereof shall be subject to the fines and penalties hereinbefore provided in Section 2 of this Act.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall be construed to apply to the shipment or delivery to duly licensed pharmacists or druggists to be used in compliance with existence laws and to hospitals in said counties, of spirituous or vinous liquors and alcohol; nor to the delivery to churches or proper officers thereof of wine in unbroken packages for sacramental purposes; provided, that nothing in this Section No. 4 shall apply to Worcester county.

Sec. 5. And be it further enacted, That all prosecutions for violations of the provisions of the preceding Sections of this Act, which are he eby declared to be crimical offenses, may be either upon presentment and indictment, or by trial before a Justice of the Peace in the county in which the offense is committed, and jurisdiction original and concurrent with the Circuit Courts for the aforesaid counties is hereby given in such cases to the Justices of the Peace in and for the aforesaid counties respectively, in which the said offense is committed and the said Jus ices of the Peace shall have power to issue all process and do all acts which may be necessary for the exercise of said jurisdiction and may try and determine all such cases and may pronounce judgment and sentence therein to the same extent as the Circuit Court for such county could do in such cases, if such cases were tried before said Court without a jury; provided, however, that if any person when brought before any such Justice having jurisdiction in the case shall, before trial for the alleged offense, pray a jury trial, or if the State's Attorney for the county shall, before trial of such alleged offense, pray a jury trial on the part of the State, it shall be the duty of such Justice to commit such alleged offender for trial, or to hold him to bail to appear for trial in the Circuit Court for said county at its then or next session and to return said commitment or recognizance, with the names and residences of the witnesses for the prosecution endorsed thereon, forthwith to the Clerk of the said Court; and the Justice of the Peace before whom the accused is brought for trial shall, prior to the beginning of the trial, inform him of his right to demand a trial by jury. If after trial before a Justice of the Peace, either party shall feel aggrieved by the judgment of such Justice of the Peace, there shall be a right of appeal within ten days to the Circuit Court for said count in which such Justice resides.

Sec. 6 And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the First day of May, in the year nineteen hundred and fourteen.

Approved April 16, 1914.

P. L. GOLDSBOROUGH, Governor.

JESSE D. PRICE, President of the Senate.

JAMES McC. KIPPE, Speaker of the House of Delegates.

State of Maryland, Sct.:

I, Caleb C. $20,000 a Year

More To Savings Depositors

¶ Depositors carrying Savings Accounts in the Banks of Kent and Queen Anne's counties will receive in the future $20,000 a year MORE in interest than they have heretofore been paid by the same banks.

¶ This material increase in interest benefits is due directly and solely to the stand taken by the PEOPLE'S BANK in paying the liberal rate of FOUR PER CENT. interest, and refusing to join the other banks in their binding agreement to pay no more than THREE per cent.

¶ Those depositors who appreciate the benefits accruing to themselves and others by reason of this general increase in interest rate, will show their appreciation by giving THE PEOPLE'S BANK a liberal share of their deposits and banking business.

¶ Think this over carefully. Get the facts. Investigate.

¶ The PEOPLE'S BANK is ready to serve you faithfully and well.

Cordially submitted.
