SATURDAY, MAY 16, 1914.

THE first ship to pass through the Panama Canal under regular conditions will probably make the trip early next week.

ALL the world loves a lover and equally so a baby. Therefore the interesting account of little Dorothy Usilton Ivens will be read with avidity by the NEWS readers. It may be found on page 2.

IF it had to be a Republican, Mr. John N. Bennett is a good one to succeed Mr. John P. Ahern as President of the Kent County School Board. Mr. Ahern has made a most efficient official and will continue to give his attention to the duties of commissioner.

GEN. JOS. B. SETH was elected Mayor of Easton at the election last week. Easton and a number of the surrounding towns are to be congratulated upon the splendidly qualified men they are electing to carry on their town governments.

ALL MILKS, except that which has been certified, must be pasteurized before it is served to consumers in Philadelphia after July 1, according to rules adopted by the Board of Health. The new rules were the subject of several hearings, at which the milk dealers were given an opportunity to present their objection before they were finally adopted.

FOLLOWING its ban on the common drinking cup for human beings, the Board of Health in Philadelphia last Tuesday also forbade the use of common drinking troughs for animals. Acting on the request of the State Live-stock Sanitary Board, which declared that glanders and others diseases were being spread by the common troughs, the board decided that the troughs in front of saloons and other places will have to be abolished.

THE Tri-State Farmer is the name of a new farm journal launched at Ridgely by Mr. Henry Wilkinson, of the Ridgely Sun. It sells for 50 cents per year and covers three States—Maryland, Delaware and Virginia. The last issue is a dandy. Among the illustrations is that of Mr. Wm. Ford and daughter in a Kent county orchard where the apples have been sprayed. The guarantee circulation is 120,000 copies per year.

THIS is clean-up week in Chestertown and load after load of cans, ashes, etc., have been dumped on refuse piles. Now let's keep it up. There is much rubbish that accumulates about a property in the course of a month. Dark cellar corners, unsuspected alleys and back yards more or less abound with litter which if allowed to stay become germ-laden and unhealthy and a breeding place for disease. Along with this the dump heap and pound play their part as a breeding place for flies and mosquitoes and it is urged to continue the fly swatting campaign. Instead of a dump heap, use a garbarge can with lid securely fastened. This will break up the breeding place of flies and eventually make cleaner and more healthy surroundings.

GOV. GOLDSBOROUGH announced the following appointments to the State Roads Commission:

Thomas Parran, Republican, of Calvert county.

John M. Perry, Democrat, of Queen Anne's county.

J. Frank Smith, Democrat, of St. Mary's county.

They succeed Dr. Ira Remsen, Dr. William Bullock Clark and Edward E. Goslin, deceased,

Mr. Parran, the new Republican member, long has been one of the machine leaders of his party in the State and since the death of Sidney E. Mudd has been the representative of Southern Maryland in the coucils of his party. He has been in office pretty steadily during the last generation.

Mr. Perry is one of the well-known farmers of his county and has been an advocate of good roads. He is a regular Democrat, but in late years has been antagonistic in county politics to the local party organization. He joined the fight made in the Democratic primaries in Queen Anne's against John E. George last year and, in turn, is understood to have been opposed by George for the appointment, the latter, it is said, having supported W. Irving Walker, of Queen Anne's, as first choice and Capt. Curtis E. Crane, of Chestertown, as second. It is known, that some of the organization people in Queen Anne's supported Mr. Perry for the appointment on personal grounds. Senator J. Frank Harper, who has been friendly with George in local affairs, although a Lee man in State politics, warmly indorsed Mr. Perry. Mr. Perry is the father-in-law of S. Scott Beck, Esq., of Chestertown, and is a frequent vistor here.

The new appointments complete the personnel of the Roads Commission, which now consists of the Governor ex-officio, and six paid members, as follows: Chairman O. E. Weller, whose salary is $2,500 a year, and Commissioners Walter B. Miller, Andrew Ramsey, Thomas Parran, John M. Perry and J. Frank Smith, each of whom receives $2,000 a year. All are Republicans except Mr. Perry and Mr. Smith.

THE scarcity of labor in Kent compelled Rev. O. B. Rice, pastor of Bond and Mowbray M. E. Churches, to accept the kind services of two lady members of his flock to paper the parsonage! "It is a splendid piece of work," says the parson, "and makes me feel somewhat ashamed that I do not know how to do such things myself."

NO REASON FOR OPPOSITION.

The close approach of the time when the fight against the renomination of Senator John Walter Smith must be started, if a real one is to be made, is causing a lot of thought among his opponents, but does not seem to produce anything tangible.

There remains now but little over three months before the Senatorial primary, which will be held early in September—to bring out the candidate, get him before the people, coalesce the more or less divergent anti-Smith elements of the State and organize a fight which, to be successful, must be a steady, uphill struggle against an intrenched organization.

The Baltimore Sun in a column article says, "The truth is that while the aggregate of the opposition to Smith is large—the one man to aggregate that opposition and make it a fighting force comparable to the phalanx behind Smith is not in sight.

"When time is taken to sum up the requisite qualities of a man for the job, the reason he is not in sight becomes easily understood. First, he must be a man of definite and positive personality; one who looms clear-cut in the imagination of the masses. No nice, clean, "milk-and-water" gentleman will do. Next, he must be in good physical condition, for an anti-organization fight now means a personal appeal to all the Democrats of all Maryland. Again, he must have financial resources or friends who have. And, finally, he must be able to enliven and harmonize every political element antagonistic to Smith.

That is a pretty large order for one man to deliver. But delivered it must be if the anti-Smith fight is to be successful.

In the meantime, Isaac Lobe Straus is working hard and talking confidently. However, no one in touch with the political situation in the state seems to think he has any real chance. The betting is that if only he and Senator Smith are in the fight at the close, he will lose the support of his ally of recent months—Arthur P. Gorman.

Smith's friends say they sincerely hope Straus stays in the field. For awhile they were rather apprehensive of the entrance of Mayor Preston, believing that the Mayor could make a more formidable fight than anyone else. They now think that the situation is such as to prevent the Mayor making a winning fight and that he will not go in."
