LOCAL NOTES

THE call for Temperance meeting in Kent May 26th is signed by Revs. W.R. Graham, L. E. Barrett, A. H. Covey, Messrs. I. R. Leaverton, Sam'l G. Caldwell, Tilghman Shafer, J. C. Loud, M. A. Toulson, C. H. Jefferson, Mrs. J. H. Othoson, President W. C. T. U.

SAM'L E. FRIEL has purchased Bolingly, the fine hotel property in Queenstown, where he will remove his family. Mr. Friel is a brother to Mrs. H. L. Boyd, of Chestertown.

THE Reiche house on Water street has been ented for the balance of the year to Mr. A. W. Allcutt who takes Mr. Mingle's place at the Exchange.

A NEW wharf is to be built at Buckingham for the convenience of up-the-river farmers. The new tariff to be charged shippers from all county wharves has been published in the NEWS. It is hoped that this will help pay for the up-keep.

THE shad fishing in Kent has been the poorest in many years and no reason can be assigned. The biggest catch of the season at Betterton was made last week by Capt. Will Sykes who came in harbor with 92 shad. Capt. "Bunt" Wheeler, one of Kent's expert fishermen, caught 14 shad same day after 25 hours fishing. A few years ago boats came in with several hundred shad daily!

AN interesting operetta, "Fifteen Miles to Happy Town." was rendered by the pupils of Still Pond public school Friday in Harper's Hall. Those who took part are as follows: Instrumental solos, Leslie Schofield; Dorothy Medders, Bertha Hackett, Alta Price, Hilda Jewell, Anna Bonwell, Susie Krusen, Florence Kinsey, Clara Medders, Henrietta Matthews, Mary Goodman, Beatrice Crew, Ruth Baxter, Anna Walter, Elizabeth Hague, Howard Harper, Laurence Krusen.

THIEVES stole a large bag of flour from the back porch of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Reed one day last week. Mr. E. E. Hudson, the up-town merchant, had hardly left the flour when it was confiscated.

THE Maryland State Firemen's Association will be held at Westminister June 10, 11 and 12. The following were elected as delegates Monday evening by the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company: T. D. France, M. W. Thomas, J. R. Lamhert, W. B. Usilton, J. R. Simpers. The following were elected alternates: R. Snowden Thomas, J. N. Wheatley, A. M. Culp, Walter Wright, W. T. Duyer. The membership of the company is 108.

THE Roman Auto Co. of Philadelphia have moved from 249 N. Broad St. to a much larger and better equipped establishment at the N. W Cor. Broad and Cherry Streets, Philadelphia.

THE nomination for the stake races to be run during the fair at Radcliffe Park the last week in July, closed last Friday night and every class filled finely except the 2.14 pace. The management has decided to substitute a 2.18 class pace instead of the 2.14 pace, and entries are already coming in.

MRS. WALTER FOWLER, of Flatland, from 336 eggs in her Cyphers incubator purchased from Mr. Owen C. Smith hatched out 282 chicks. This was her first attempt with the incubator and is considered a fine hatch.

MRS. CHAS. H. KLINE, JR., of Philadelphia, formerly of Kent county, Md. was bitten by a dog on May 6, 1914. The dog was a strange dog on the city streets and was immediately taken in charge by the police, sent to the V. of P. and examined for any disease but proved free from disease. Mrs. Kline received immediate medical attention and the wound is rapidly healing. She will be all right in a short time.

LAST Friday afternoon the Senior Class of the Chestertown High School with their principal, Mr. Creasy, and Domestic Science teacher, Miss Copper, visited Radcliffe's Flour Mill owned and conducted by Mr. P. M. Brooks. This was one of the most interesting and instructive trips ever taken by this class. Mr. Brooks devoted his entire time to the girls and boys explaining and showing every process of making flour and by products from the time the wheat is carried to the mill until it is barreled ready to be sent out. This was especially interesting and helpful to the girls in the Domestic Science Department and the boys enjoyed it just as much. After getting weighed all started for home thanking Mr. Brooks many times for his kindness in giving them so much of his time and valuable information.

A SPECIAL MEETING of Fairlee Grange will be held on Wednesday, May 20, program conducted by Flora. Sandwiches and coffee at 6 p. m., after which program will be rendered.

By change of advertisement in this issue the manager of the Lyceum Theatre announces as a special attraction next Wednesday, May 20th, of Edward Brigham, basso-profundo, dramatic-reader and artist-pianist. Wherever he has appeared Mr. Brigham has captivated his audience with his rare voice and masterly genius. The press of the country is unanimous in according him first rank as a dramatic reader and vocalist. His appearance at the Lyceum will afford our people a rare treat which they should not miss.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son, HERBERT P. CREW, who departed this life two years ago, May 1912.

Gone in the best of his days,
Blighted in manhood's bloom;
Torn from the hearts that loved him
To sleep in the silent tomb.

He did his best by everyone,
And everywhere true friendship won;
But God, in His wisdom, kind and just,
Called my son away from us.

BY HIS MOTHER.
