LOCAL NOTES

THE wedding of Miss Catherine A. Jacob and James G. Duncan, both of Baltimore, took place at the M. P. parsonage, Chestertown, Tuesday, Rev. W. R. Graham officiating. They are spending their honeymoon at a hotel near Tolchester.

NEW homes are being erected in Kennedyville for Messrs James H. Weer, Jr., and George Roeder.

THE trial of the damage cases against the B. & O. railroad because of the ice gorge of 1910 came to an end in Easton on Saturday after 3 weeks sitting by the failure of the jury to agree. This will necessitate a new trial of the case. There are 98 cases depending on the verdict in the case.

JAMES C. BOGGS, of Bowers, claims to have eaten 15 fried trout in 15 minutes and now offers to bet $50 he can eat 30 in a half-hour. They can't be as large as the Chesapeake Bay trout!

MITCHELL BELL, a faithful colored servant in the families of Chapman & Lambert has gone back home to Virginia on a visit after an absence of many years.

THE home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rote on High street is being improved by the addition of a long porch in front. Mr. Charles Hodgkins contractor.

THE fast 3-year old Pony Boy 2nd has been dealt with by Mr. F. U. Smith from Mr. Ray Bonwill.

THE Board of Visitors of Washington College on Saturday night accepted the bequest from the late Garrett Foxwell with all the restrictions and conditions as contained in his will.

WM. ARCHIBALD, Kennedyville, grain dealer, has purchased about 16,000 bushels July and August wheat, and ready at any moment to make wheat contracts for future delivery. It would be well for the farmers at Lambsons, Blacks, Kennedyville and Still Pond stations to communicate with him if they wish to sell. He paid 85 cents for most of the above.

DURING the electrical storm that passed over this section Monday, Mr. George Burk, painting on a home on Maple avenue, near Cross street, was slightly stunned. Mr. Burk, who was engaged with Mr. Elwood Baker, was sandpapering a water spout when the crash came. His right arm was stunned for nearly a half hour. The bolt also struck a tree on Cross street and one near the Voshell House.

THE final rehearsal for the season of the Chestertown Choral Club will be held next Tuesday evening at 7.45 at the High School Building, and all members are requested to be present. A social feature will be enjoyed on the occasion. The full list of those who took part in the splendid concert is as follows :

Conductor—William Walter Chapman.

Sopranos—Mrs. Wm. Speilberger, Mrs. Fred. H. Russell, Mrs. James H. Sides, Mrs. D. B. Ford, Mrs. Merrick Clements, Mrs. W. H. McKee, Mrs. R. Hynson Rogers, Misses Edith Fallowfield, Clara Coleman, Hallie Toulson, Susie Dunbracco, Maud Dwyer, Louise Armstrong, Clara B. Usilton, Elsie Whiteley, Jean Stokes, Caroline McKee, Hope Sappington, Flora Wheatley.

SINCE the gallon-limit law went effect there has been quite a demand for Jamacia Ginger. One man drank 30 bottles within two weeks in town while a store was broken into up the county and a large quantity stolen! "Buddy" Rattler got drunk on it Saturday and was sentenced to House of Correction for four months for being disorderly.

DR. C. W. WHALAND, one of Chestertown's well-known physicians, has received a patent on an invention which may mean a fortune. The invention is an automobile wheel, with solid tires, instead of pneumatic, and has a spring arrangement to take the place of the inflated ones. Dr. Whaland figured out the complicated device in about two and a half hours. The doctor had no trouble in securing his patent rights, as the invention is an absolutely new idea. The cost of tires and the expenses of keeping them in order has long been a problem with the automobile manufacturers, and Dr. Whaland's invention will likely cheapen the cost and upkeep of the machines.

Mr. James Dunbracco, another of Chestertown's popular geniuses has a novel contrivance for locating sunken ships and vessels of all kinds. It is hoped he may also realize a fortune.

Mrs. Sarah E. Chairs, died at her home near Pomona on Thursday night, aged 71 years. She leaves a husband, John Chairs and six children, as follows: John H., Nathan and Albert Chairs, Mrs. Carroll Stafford, Mrs. G. P. Hendrickson and Miss Cora Chairs. The funeral will take place on Sunday afternoon at 2 p. m., interment in Chester Cemetery. The bearers will be Jacob Snyder, E. G. O'Meara, G. W. HaJaway, W. T. Faulkner, J. T. Brown, T. R. Starr. Rev. Mr. Rice and Rev. A. H. Covey will officiate. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

Excursion.—Arrangements have been prefected by which Christ Methodist Protestant Sunday School of Chestertown will run an excursion on the steamer Annapolis from this town to the historic capital of the State, Annapolis, and thence by electric cars to the capital of the nation, Washington. Seven hours will be given in Annapolis and four hours in Washington. The fare will be 50 cents round trip to Annapolis, children up to 10 years of age 25 cents; to Washington, adults $1.50.

The date of the excursion is Wednesday, July 8th, leaving Chestertown at 7.30 A. M., and Annapolis at 6.30 P. M. This will be a rare opportunity and a grand trip. Get ready to go. No fear of being crowded on this fine steamer.

New Autos.—A fine new "Chevrolet" runabout, was delivered to Dr. H. G. Simpers by Graham, Clements & Sutton this week.

This firm also delivered an Indian motorcycle to Engineer Isaac Gibbs, Jr., last week.

MILLINGTON, MD., June 17, 1914.

Messrs. Editors: We wish to correct the mistake published in your paper last Saturday which stated that the Sudlersville baseball team defeated Chestertown on Wednesday, June 10, as it was Double Creek and not Sudlersville that defeated the Chestertown boys by score of 7 to 6. Sparks pitched good ball for D. C., fanning 9 of Chestertown's batters, and he should have held them to 2 runs but for three errors after two were out in the eighth inning. It was Chestertown's first defeat of the season and it did not set very well on some of the town boys. Chestertown had a strong team, but Double Creek had just a little better. There will be a return game in D. C. some time soon and you may look for a hard fought game, as "Eddie" is very anxious to get back at D. C.

COMMENCEMENT AT WASHINGTON COLLEGE

132nd Anniversary of The Illustrious Institution—Splendid Addresses by Judge Burke And Hon. L. Irving Handy.

DEGREES CONFERRED, ETC.

Washington College held its closing exercises this week beginning with the baccalaureate address in William Smith Hall on Sunday morning by Dr. Cain. In the evening Rev. D. H. Steffens, of Evangelical Lutheran Church, Baltimore, preached the sermon before the Y. M. C. A. His theme was "Moderation" rather than strenuousness. Mrs. Cain lead the singing in her graceful manner, the feature of which was a solo "Sancta Maria" by Miss Virginia Mary Cain and an anthem in which solos were sung by Jas. Harris and Jas. Cain.

The Mt. Vernon Literary Society held its 67th anniversary celebration Monday evening. Hon. L. Irving Handy was the orator of the evening his subject being "In Your Day and Generation." Mr. Hendy is one of the most popular speakers of the day and delighted his audience with his wit, eloquence and interesting recital of facts. The medal given by W. F. Russell, Jr., to the best Mt. Vernon man was presented to Wm C. Keller by H. C. Leister, vice-president. Weber's band furnished music.

The declamation contest for the Simpers medals took place Tuesday morning. The speakers were Elwood Farrell Bowen, Pocomoke City' subject, "The Death of Garfield"; Herbert Fulton Davis, Darlington, Md, "Reflections on War"; Thomas Blackburn McCloud, Ridgely, "The Death Bed of Benedict Arnold"; Miss Carmeta Russell, Chestertown, "The Legion of Bregeuz." Mr. McCloud won first prize with Miss Russell second. The judges were S. Scott Beck, Esq., Rev. Walter E. Gunby and Calvin T. Ryan.

At night the Oratorical Contest for the Oates medals brought only three contestants, viz., Stephen Roberts Collins, Chestertown, "The Initiative and Referendum Should Not be Adoped"; Wm. Getty Keller, Grantsville, "A Fallen Idol"; Miss Ida Orem Smith, Chestertown, "Society and the Working Man." Miss Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Smith, won first prize and Mr. Keller second. The composition of these addresses was of a very high order. The judges were Hon. James E. Ellegood, Hon. Clarence W. Perkins, Prof. C. Gauss.

Graduates, Degrees, Prizes.

Smith Hall was filled Wednesday morning with an interested audience to witness the Commencement exercises. The address to the graduates was delivered by Hon. Nicholas Charles Burke of Towson.
