ROCK HALL

The Fourth was alright for "safe and sane" down this way. Tolchester was the Mecca for many, but many more of our people observed the spirit of the day at home, under great display of Old Glory and bunting and brilliancy of fireworks at night.

Among the non-residents noticed here during the holidays were: Mr. and Mrs. S. Loewner, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Alexander. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ayres. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boyer and grandson, Ray, at the home of Mr. and Mre. C. H. Harrison. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elburn, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Elburn, Sr. Capt. J. F. Stevens, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stevens. Mr. Howard Taylor and family, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Taylor.

Mr. Conkling has felled the giant tree which for very many years stood in his yard as a familiar landmark to the watermen about Huntingfield and Rock Hall creeks.

Mr. John Lewis, one of our provision merchants, says the butchers are the only business men with plenty of hard cash in this section. Lewis is in a position to know whereof he speaks. Wonder if that has anything to do with the levying of a penny a pound higher rate on meats recently?

INVESTIGATE

WHY pay more? In good many instances, for an article of less value. The only successful plan is—INVESTIGATE, learn by comparison, and learn just as a great number of clothing users in this locality are doing.

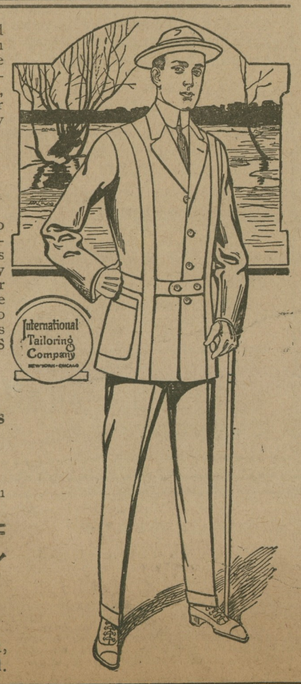

We Reiterate This Stubborn Fact

i. e.—we are making clothes to order. Fit, material and workship fully guaranteed for less money than you can NOW buy same qualities in ready-made for and we reiterate this indisputable reason, i. e.—no large stock to carry and carry over, large rents and up-keep generally.—THIS IS WHY.

We have a full line of—

Alpaca and Mohair Coats
Linen Dusters and Rain Coats

from a specialty house. See them and compare prices.

LOCAL NOTES

Local buyers were paying 80 cents for wheat yesterday.

Arrangements are moving along very nicely for the Chestertown Chautauqua August 31, Sept. 1—7. Dr. N. McGee Waters, of Brooklyn, will be one of the star attractions. He is the author of a great book called "A Young Man's Religion and His Father's Faith." Dr. Waters is one of the greatest preachers in Brooklyn, the city of big preachers.

Among the school appointments is that of Miss Pauline Willis as teacher at Melitota, in place of Miss Ward, who has resigned.

The potato crop in Kent will be short. Shipments will begin about July 15th. Prices are higher than last year.

A concrete wall is being built on the Maple avenue side of Mr. Thos. S. Bordley's and Miss Maud Kemp's properties in Chestertown, which will prevent washing of the bank and improve those eligibly located homes.

The better telephone service with improved equipment, etc., will likely be opened to the public use next week. The Company deserves credit for the uninterrupted service while the new work was being constructed.

The Fertilizer Distributer Company, of Chestertown, at a meeting held Wednesday night, ordered one hundred fertilizer distributing machines. A Pennsylvania firm is doing the work of constructing the machines. Those who have seen the machine in operation say that it works fine and that the idea of furnishing fertilizer during the cultivation of plants is a good one.

An outbuilding near the corner of College avenue and Calvert street was destroyed by fire Tuesday between ten and eleven o'clock. The building was owned by Mr. William McIntyre and was rented by Mr. Finley Thawley, who on the Fourth had cut hay and filled the place with it. The building was insured, but the hay was a loss. The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company promptly answered the fire alarm, and aided by several teams the apparatus was on the scene in a few minutes and had little difficulty in confining the blaze to the burning building.

Mr. Robert J. McWhorter sold to Mr. Tucker, of Chester, Pa., last week, his fine race and brood mare, Bardstown Belle, at a good figure.

Percy Jones was sentenced to House of Correction for 8 months by Justice Bryan for assault at Butlertown Saturday. Florence Robinson was shot in a fracas at Golt's same day her assailant having escaped.

Tobias Miles, aged 28 years, of Cecilton, employed on the steamer Susquehanna, fell from the boat while coming up the bay last Friday and was drowned.

Mr. S. Vannort's fine gardener, Isaac Brown, served roasting ears of corn from his garden July 3rd. Mr. Harry Graham who thinks he is something swift as a gardener pulled a shipment on the 4th.

The folks at Mowbray church will give their annual fish fry at the Cliffs next Friday. See adv. in this issue.

Next week Mr. Chas. Legg will advertise his fine personalty to be sold on August 5th at his home near Higman's mill. He has bought the Jones home near Millington and will retire from farming. Mr. Sam't Sparks will tenant the Benson farm.

For making a public display of his razor and particularly for playing it in the face of Arthur Coleman on last Sunday afternoon, Will Waters paid a fine and costs of $54.40 before Police Magistrate Kendall on Monday evening.

Mr. Rumsey Anthony is having a large two-story packing house built on his farm in Queen Anne's, near town, to be used in his trucking business.

The Chestertown baseball team captained by Edw. Blackway played two games at Queen Anne last Saturday. They lost the first 3 to 1 and won the second 3 to 2. The feature of the first game was the pitching of Thompson for the home team who allowed Chestertown only two hits and fanned twelve. Brown pitched good ball but his support was weak. Young Usilton hurled the second game in good style. It required ten innings to decide the winner in this one. Scully was the star for Queen Anne while Usilton and Brown did good work for Chestertown, each gathering three hits in that game. Robinson caught both games in fine style.

There was quite an exciting time in Smoketown, a little village about a mile from Kennedyville, on Saturday among the colored residents which resulted in one man being shot in the face with a shot gun. Luckily it did not inflict a dangerous wound unless complications set in. The trio concerned were brought before Squire L. A. Pennington on Monday and committed to jail to await the next term of court.

THE FIFTH DECADE OF A WANDERING BOY

(Written especially for the Kent News.)

In 1869 we signed the bonds after all sorts of frets from the county attorneys and the railroad men. The railroad had about $100,000 from Kent county and subscribed $250,000, and I do not remember how much they got from the State. But getting nothing from the road they issued $250,000 more in bonds I have heard, and sold them to some New York people. With bad management, etc., we went on with the road for years and I. N. Mills told me that as bad as it was conducted, it was the best feeder on the shore. It was a frequent occurrence for people to be caught between here and Clayton maybe in the forest and have to remain a half night in severe weather. I heard that they received only a small amount for the $250,000 bonds. Finally they got into the hands of two young men by inheritance and finally the Pennsylvania R. R. Co. got possession of them and since then we have had a very fair accommodation. Although in the charter we, the state and county were to have three directors you see that we have no say. We get some taxes from the rolling stock and the property they own in the county.

The old board went out with conditions pretty good and a new board was elected which I will say something about in my next article.

We agreed to keep the dam in order which we did at Urieville and if it had been kept up, today it would have been a good mill, but the owner was such a peculiar man we could not get along with him. Sometimes he would pull the planks from the bridge so that the people could not pass. Although we did not make a road it was afterwards done and has proved a great advantage to our people.

Memory.

Where Shall I Go This Evening?
To The Candy Kitchen

Hot weather has started and the taste for good, cool ice-cream is returning and the only place to get it is at the CANDY KITCHEN.

Our friends have noticed what a nice clean parlor we keep and have favored us all along with an ever-increasing share of their patronage. There is but one reason for this increase. We keep the cleanest, purest cream in town, as well as the best line of purely Home-made Candies.

Everything good to eat can be obtained at our parlors, and there is no better way to spend a few minutes these warm evenings than to come with your friends and hear the good music while you eat. New records every week.

Of course we keep a full line of cigars, cigarettes, and tobacco. We also handle all kinds of fruits in season, and we might remark that nothing but pure fresh fruits go into our ice-cream.

If there is a party, a festival, a picnic, or an excursion—remember that you can get a special discount on cream bought in large quantities. Shipped free over five gallons. This is a saving.

We are always glad to see you and your friends at all times. Come in and spend a while with us. Yours very truly,
