A $35,000 DEAL

J. T. Klugh, owner of the Spry home farm at Spry's wharf, Kent county, sold his farm for $35,000, taking in exchange a $35,000 apartment house on Forbs street, Pittsburg, in the Squirrel Hill district, one of the finest residence sections. The Spry farm is one of the best river front farms on the Chester river, with steamboat landing on farm. The buildings on this farm alone cannot be built for $20,000, and J. T. Klugh had them all put in fine condition after buying the farm some four years ago.

SPLENDID YIELDS!

First Good Crop of Wheat in Kent County For 10 Years—45 Bushels To Acre Highest Reported.

Kent farmers have threshed wheat this week and the yield has been very gratifying. It is the first good crop for about ten years, the average yield being above 20 bushels.

A well-known farmer close to Chestertown got 40 bushels per acre off one field, but requests his name to be withheld. He is so modest, you know.

Mr. Eugene M. Bonwill, the "wheat king," grew an average of 45 bushels on one field and will have over 3,500 bushels off 100 acres.

Mr. Robert G. Nicholson reports about 35 bushels to the acre.

Register of Wills Jesse H. Copper got 22 bushels per acre.

Mr. Milton Crew, on "Cacaway," in Broad Neck, is reported to have gotten 800 bushels of wheat.

Mr. Warner Geary, near Kennedyville, got 40 bushels per acre from a 36-acre field.

Mr. T. H. Wood, on the Copper farm in Morgnec, got 20 bushels per acre from 40 acres.

Mr. Thos. Fowler on "Flatland" says he threshed 44 bushels per acre off 5 acres of tomato grouud!

Mr. Will Maslin got 1,000 bushels from the Vickers farm and 24 bushels per acre from the Home farm.

Mr. W. S. Trew got 30 bushels per acre on his Pomona farm.

Mr. Lewin U. Skirven got 2100 bushels off 70 acres.

Rev. A. H. Covey, near Pomona, got about 32 bushels per acre.

Mr. P. V. Hendrickson, on Tolchester farm, got 3400 bushels wheat from 120 acres.

Mr. J. Kennard Aldridge as far as we can learn carried off the laurels for the biggest crop of wheat in Kent county on the Ringgold farm owned by Mr. John E. George, of Queen Annes. Mr. Aldridge had in 140 acres from which he got 4900 bushels, an average of 35 bushels. He threshed 47 bushels per acre from 5 acres of tomato ground!

YOU CAN SHARE IN THE GREAT SAVING

On Commercial Fertilizers By The Use Of

CRIMSON CLOVER

Read Farmers Bulletin No. 579 on Crimson Clover Its Free - Address U. S. Dept. of Agriculture Washington, D. C.

A bushel of Crimson Clover Seed sown on four acres of ground will increase the succeeding yield of Corn or Cotton about the same amount as would a ton of complete fertilizer applied at the rate of 500 lbs. per acre. A good stand of Crimson Clover turned under will ordinarily double the yield of the crops which follow. The physical condition of the soil is also materially benefited. The Sandy Soils are increased in Humus and Nitrogen Contents. The Stiff, heavy clay soils are rendered more open and friable.

Crimson Clover makes an excellent grazing crop, hay, ensilege and pasture for all classes of live stock. Milch cows make considerably more milk, when pastured on Crimson Clover. It is also valuable as a honey plant, furnishing an abundant supply of nectar in the spring.

Crimson Clover is valuable as a Winter Cover crop. It is especially valuable in Orchards where it is generally plowed under as a green manure crop. The plants retain for the use of the trees the following season much of the plant food, which would otherwise leach out of the ground during the Winter and early Spring. A good stand of Crimson Clover not only reduces the erosion and the gullying of the fields, but on sandy fields, the blowing of the soil by the wind is greatly lessened. The Plants also serve to hold the snow to a greater extent than if the field was left bare during the Winter. More and more each year farmers are realizing the importance and great value of Crimson Clover.

Bolgiano's "Gold" Brand Standard Crimson Clover is exceptionally fine. It has large well matured, plump, bright golden berries. If you want the best Field Seeds of any kind always insist on getting Bolgiano's "Gold" Brand Standard Clovers and Grasses.

We Offer Enormous Stocks

WEDDING NOTES.

A quiet wedding was solemnized Sunday evening at Christ M. P. Parsonage, Chestertown, in the presence of only a few witnesses. The bride was Mrs. Susan E. Barker, a well-known lady of High street, while the groom was Mr. Henry M. Rollison, the faithful employe of the Standard Oil Co. After the wedding the couple repaired to their home opposite Sacred Heart Church where they have been receiving the congratulations of many friends.

REV. SAMUEL MELVIN KILLED

Rev. Samuel Melvin, a retired Methodist Protestant preacher, was run down and killed by an automobile at Daytonia, Fla., last Saturday.

Mr. Melvin was about 50 years of age. He was a native of Pocomoke City and a brother of Miss Virginia Melvin, of Newark, Mrs. James Townsend, of Pocomoke City, Mrs. L. C. Quinn, of Crisfield, and Rev. William A. Melvin a prominent M. P. minster, of Washington, D. C. The remains of Mr. Melvin were brought to Pocomoke City for interment on Wednesday. Mr. Melvin resided at Scranton, Pa., and was in Florida with two of his daughters on a pleasure trip. He is survived by a widow and several grown children.

COL. A. W. SISK TO THE VOTERS.

He Makes a Preliminary Statement Outlining His Platform.

Col. Albert W. Sisk, candidate for Congress, to succeeed Hon. J. Harry Covington, resigned, issues the following address to the voters of the First Congressional District:

Colonel Sisk's Statement.

A week ago, when announcement was made that I would be a candidate before the people of the First District of Maryland for the Congressional nomination in the coming primaries, a statement of my political position and attitude was promised.

At this early stage of the campaign, however, only a brief and general statement is advisable or necessary. Later on, we will enter more fully into the discussion of the subject and questions now before the country, as well as the questions likely to come before Congress at an early day, relating to the demands and urgent needs of our people.

In the beginning I will state that I am in hearty sympathy with President Wilson's administration and if elected to Congress by the people of this district, it will afford me more than ordinary pleasure to co-operate with him in placing on the statue book the long list of reform measures which he advocates.

This is the time when every man should feel proud to be a Democrat in the true sense of that term, for in President Wilson we have a leader whose heart throbs earnestly for humanity and whose purpose is to give back to the people the rights and liberties to which they are entitled and which have been stealthily taken from them during past half century. To be even a small assistant in this benign work would be a privilege of which I should always be proud, and I would engage in it with all the enthusiasm and fervor of my being. For some reason, I am possessed of the confidence that the good people of Representative Covington's District will confer upon me the opportunity of continuing the splendid work he has been doing in Congress, in giving aid, lending sympathy to our great President and friend of the people and devoting his best energies to the up-building of our social and industrial welfare.

In local matters, I am interested in horticulture, agriculture and their allied industry, the canning and preserving of fruits and vegetables, which in the past twenty-five years has grown with such marvelous rapidity, that it has outstripped all others in magnitude on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Just at this juncture, when numerous so called pure food laws are being placed on statute books, the industry especially needs some representative in Congress who knows the business and who would know how to protect its interest. Persons connected with this particular business appreciate fully how important this subject is at this time and how far-reaching in evil effect unwise enactments would have on every phase of industrial life in this part of our State.

I would also favor federal aid in the construction of country roads and highways. For years our Government's treasury has been open in assisting many internal improvements to commerce and industry and we think the time ripe and opportune when this work shall be undertaken and carried forward until every mart and highway throughout this great country shall be of the best.

I am also in favor of national aid to our public educational system. This subject has already received some little attention from our Government, but appropriations by Congress have been so very meagre that the work has been limited to investigation of future possibilities. But State and county taxes have reached the point where a further increase would be a burden and though the larger portion of our taxes is devoted to public education the demand for better equipment, better teachers and better salaries has not nearly been met.

If as has so aptly and often been said that the youth of our land is the most precious and important of our national resources; and the further fact that our future citizenship is dependent on the education of our youth, it certainly behooves us to make a still further effort through our national government to extend its helping hand where this help is so urgent.

Other questions of vital importance to our people will be discussed later on.

Very respectfully,
ALBERT W. SISK.
Preston, Md., July 9, 1914.
