IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembramce of our beloved Sunday School teacher, GEORGE DAVIS, who departed this life on Wednesday, Aug. 5th, 1914, at his home in Rock Hall, Md.

One sweet flower has dropped aad faded,
One sweet voice has fled;
One fair brow the grave has shaded,
For our dear teacher is dead.

He has gone to heaven before us,
But he turns and waves his hand,
Pointing to the glories o'er us,
In that happy spirit land.

He is sleeping in the graveyard,
He is lying beneath the sod;
And his scholars' hearts are lonely,
Yet they feel he is gone to God.

Forget thee! 'Tis a bitter word,
We wish it were unsaid;
Forgetfulness is not of life,
But with the silent dead.

There are many that still will linger
Near the spot where he is laid;
And will come and scatter flowers
Over the grave that death has made.

1t* BY HIS SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS.

In sad but loving memory of our dear daughter, ADA MIDDLETON DILL, who died six leng years ago today, Sept. 5th, 1908.

LOCAL NOTES

THE public schools of Kent will reopen Monday, Sept. 14th.

THE Teachers attended Chautauqua faithfully and with few exceptions heard every number during the week.

QUITE a stir was caused on High street Saturday night when the steering gear of an automobile caught and the car rushed up on the pavement in front of C. C. Jones' shoe store, running into it. A front wheel and fender were somewhat damaged. The car belonged to Mr. Harry Lesage, who is a guest of Mr. J. T. Smith, of near town. Just previous to this a lady fainted at the moving picture parlor and was being brought out when the auto started its escapade.

JOS. MASSEY stopped a runaway car one day recently in town.

DOVERS have had fine sport this week. One party bagged 33 Monday afternoon. Autos and motor cycles carry gunners to distant fields quickly.

C. G. HADAWAY advertises fine Heath peaches and names Mr. T. G. Wroth as the proper party to see.

Two weeks ago Mr. Edward Crowding reported his driving horse stolen. On Monday the animal was found dead in the mire!

H. P. SKIPPER has a fine field of melons. He sold a load to a town merchant Saturday, at 15 cents each and unintentionally put one on weighing 60 pounds. It was sold for 30 cents by the merchant. The purchaser put it on ice and retailed it, realizing $1.50 from it! This is an illustration of where the farmer comes in and how the high cost of living is brought about.

THE henneries of C. C. Brown, Major Cree, D. W. Ingersoll, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Kratzer and Mrs. Jacquette, in Quaker Neck, have been robbed recently, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence E. Duyer lost over fifty of her best chickens weighing between two and three pounds each last week by a disease which has not been diagnosed.

LIGHTNING struck the barn of Mr. Charles E. McKee, in Queen Annes, near the bridge, Saturday. Some boys were playing on the upper floor when the bolt came and they not only escaped injury, but did not know the building was struck.

A HALF BUSHEL basket of beautiful Concord grapes was given to the NEWS this week by Mr. B. F. Rash, of near Worton. They were splendid in taste, looks and size. Mr. Rash will have about 6,000 crates from his two places and is now loading them in refrigerator cars and sending to distant parts.

THE big yellow Salway peaches on Poole's Island are now being picked. Mr. John F. Usilton, the tenant, will have about 10,000 baskets during this month and desires to furnish all housekeepers with peaches at reasonable prices. His address is Tolchester.

THE will of the late Rev. J. Earle Maloy, of Colora, was filed in the Orphants' Court Thursday. His estate is left to his daughter, Mrs. Emma Corkran, wife of Dr. M. S. Corkran, of Wilmington, Del. The estate is estimated at $15,000.

THE Camp held in Riley's woods, near Millington, Sunday was attended by 500 people and Sheriff Brown reports the conduct splendid.

One day recently dogs got into Mrs. Wm. T. Nicholson's flock of turkeys and killed 17; the next day or so dogs attacked the flock belonging to Mr. Kernan, living near Fairlee, and killed nearly all of the half-grown turkeys. On another occasion Mrs. Alverta Beck's hogs got into her poultry and slayed about 200 of them.

AT Ginn's Corner, near Townsend, Thursday evening, the auto of John P. Cochran, of Galena, ran into a log wagon driven by James Powell, of Townsend. The auto was considerably damaged. The wagon which was loaded with telephone poles was not damaged.

GALENA

Mr. Wm. Rodgers and daughter, Miss Mary of Washington D. C., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Ella Whitaker.

The Quarterly Conference of Olivet M. E. Church will be held on Saturday evening in the chapel, beginning at 7.30 p. m. Dr. Watt, of Smyrna, will be here and will preach in the church on Sunday morning.

A crowd of Russian singers attended Olivet M. E. Church last Sunday evening in a body and favored the audience with several choice selection although the words could not be understood the music was sweet.

Mr. Frank Woodside and sons, Scott and John, are visiting at the home of Dr. E. A. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Caldwell and daughters, Misses Emily, Mary and Marian are spending a week at Ocean City.

Mr. Theodore Dempsey, who attended a family re union at Brandywine Springs last week, returned home on Friday. Mr. Dempsey had the pleasure while on this trip of meeting again after many years the man who was tent mate with him in the Civil War.

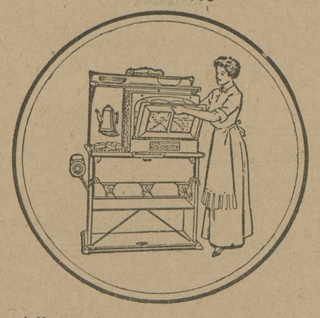

A DOUBLE explosion occurred Sunday afternoon at about 2.15 at the dental parlors of Dr. Chas. R. Twilley, on High street, which wrecked one of his office rooms and did considerable damage in the other room. Several sets of teeth and eleven panes of glass were broken. Dr. Twilley was steaming a set of teeth in a vulcanizer and had left for a few minutes. The explosion occurred immediately afterward. Had Dr. Twilley been in the room he would probably have been severely injured. It is thought that the steam reservoir, becoming too full, exploded, causing the oil tank to explode also. Damage to the extent of at least $75 was done. When Dr. Twilley entered the office it was a mass of plaster, teeth, tin, etc. The top of the vulcanizer went through the ceiling. While the damage is considerable, the doctor is able to continue his practice.

EDESVILLE

Much improvement has been made in the cleaning off of that corner of land on Mr. "Tot" Wilson's farm on the road between Rock Hall and Tolchester. This was a sharp dangerous bend and overgrown as it was with brush and bushes, one could see neither team or auto until nearly on them. Now the danger has been entirely removed.

The excursion from Sassafras, Fredericktown and Warwick held at Tolchester on Wednesday, August 26, was not very largely patronized owing to the wet weather. About 250 came down.
