NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER, OCTOBER 4

Washington, Sept. 8.—President Wilson today signed a proclamation calling for a national day of prayer on October 4 to pray for cessation of war in Europe.

The proclamation was as follows :

Whereas, great nations of the world have taken up arms against one another and war now draws millions of men into battle whom the counsel of statesmen have not been able to save from the terrible sacrifice;

And, whereas, in this as in all things it is our privilege and duty to seek counsel and succor of Almighty God, humbling ourselves before Him, confessing our weakness and our lack of any wisdom equal to these things;

And, whereas, it is the especial wish and longing of the people of the United States, in prayer and counsel and all friendliness, to serve the cause of peace;

Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do designate Sunday, the 4th day of October next, a day of prayer and supplication and do request all God-fearing persons to repair on that day to their places of worship, there to unite their petitions to Almighty God, that overruling the counsel of men, setting straight the things they cannot govern or alter, taking pity on the nations now in the throes of conflict, in His mercy and goodness showing a way where men can see none, He vouchsafe His children healing peace again and restore once more than concord among men and nations without which there can be neither happiness nor true friendship nor any wholesome fruit of toil or thought in the world; praying also to this end that He forgive us our sins, our ignorance of His holy will, our wilfulness and many errors, and lead us in the paths of obedience to places of vision and to thoughts and counsels that purge and make wise.

A GOOD INVESTMENT

SENATOR JOHN WALTER SMITH.

Maryland has found a good investment and a diligent representative in Senator John Walter Smith.

The world wide misfortune of the great European war found hundreds of Maryland people in Europe; caused a complete congestion in the export of American wheat, tobacco and cotton, and great disorganization of business.

Senator Smith has aided daily in locating and helping Maryland people abroad through the State Department, He was the first Senator to take definite and active steps to break the embargo on the export of grain and tobacco, thus causing the price to rise with increased foreign shipments, and placing thousands of dollars in the pockets of the farmers.

Baltimore firms had nearly 400,000 bushels of wheat on the ocean consigned to German buyers at Rotterdam when war was declared. Of course the German buyers could not receive or pay for the grain owing to the war, and the shippers had no one in Rotterdam to handle the wheat on arrival. Senator Smith with characteristic energy and ingenuity prevailed upon the Government to direct the U. S. Consul at Rotterdam to receive and sell the wheat for the Baltimore shippers, thus saving them a big loss, Nothing escapes his watchful care. News reached him that horses were dying on the Eastern Shore. In a few hours he had Government experts on the scene.

Throughout the excessively hot weather he has not relaxed his efforts to aid the Administration in its work to relieve the country as far as possible by emergency legislation and otherwise from the blighting effects of the war. Always at work, always approachable, he is looked upon as one of the most useful men in the Senate.

Though a candidate for renomination at the primary election on September 15th, he has given up all such personal effort to secure renomination and canceled all such political engagements which might take him away from duty in the Senate, saying that his duty was to be there looking after the interests of the people. He has left his canvas to the management of his friends.

No Senator has accomplished more in a substantial way for Maryland from the U. S. Government. Within a few months he has successfully passed through the Senate among many others the following bills :

| | |
|---|---|
| To turn Fort McHenry over to Baltimore City for a park. | |
| To build an Immigration Station in Baltimore, appropriation | $550,000 |
| To erect a memorial to Francis Scott Key in Baltimore, appropriation | 75,000 |
| To build a Federal Building at Crisfield, appropriation | 90,000 |
| To build U. S. Powder Plant at Indian Head, cost | 500,000 |
| To dredge York Spit Channel and to improve Baltimore Harbor | 305,250 |
| To establish Dairy Farm for U. S. Naval Academy, near Annapolis | 100,000 |
| To build Federal Building at Cambridge | 80,000 |
| To build Federal Building at Salisbury | 90,000 |
| To erect Market Sheds in Washington for use of truck raisers near by | 32,000 |

Senator Smith thinks now is the time to expand and is urging the passage of the Rivers and Harbors Bill carrying appropriations to improve many Maryland water-ways, notably $123,700 for Baltimore's harbor, $12.000 for the Chester River, and various amounts for improving Herring Bay and Rockdale Creek, Tred Avon River, Elk and Little Elk Rivers, Breton Bay, Corsica and Tuckahoe Rivers and improving harbors of Rock Hall, Queenstown, Claiborne and Cambridge, Choptank, Waverick, Wicomico, Pocomoke, La Trappe and Manokin Rivers and Tyaskin Creek.

Senator Smith has the distinction of securing the payment of a number of just and bona fide war claims due to Maryland people, some of them having been pending and neglected by Congress since 1814.

Always an enthusiast for public education, and the father of the free school book system, Senator Smith has secured for Maryland people, adjacent to Washington, valuable privileges in the use of the Washington public schools. As Chairman of the Senate District Committee, he has made himself indispensable to the welfare of the City of Washington. In the opinion of most residents of the Capital, he is the wisest and most useful man who ever headed the District of Columbia Committee.

Tireless, experienced and original, with an eye single to the interests of his constituents, and exercising an immense influence in Washington, the Senator is one of the most valuable men the State has ever sent to the Senate.

ACCIDENT ON PUBLIC ROAD

A serious accident was narrowly averted Saturday morning at about eleven o'clock, when Mr. Richard Leaverton's team was run down, on the Quaker Neck road, near the residence of Mr. Arthur Brown, while on the way from Chestertown home.

Miss Lida Edwards, a sister-in-law of Mr. Leaverton, was in Chestertown with his eight and twelve year old children attending the Junior Chautauqua. On reaching Mr. Arthur Brown's gate, Miss Edwards, who was driving, heard the sharp clatter of horses hoofs on the hard shell road, and looking backward saw two horses, which had become unmanageable in the hands of a 13-year-old colored boy living with Mr. Alfred C. Loud, plunging toward her.

Mr. Kratzer, who was also on his way home, drove his team in the lane of Beck & Walker Fertilizer's works to escape it.

Miss Edwards put the whip to her horse in an effort to escape the fast approaching horses, but was soon overtaken the runaway horses running pell mell into her carriage. The impact threw Mr. Leaverton's horse to the ground, bruising him somewhat, and the dearborn, becoming entangled with the overturned carriage, dragged it some distance when both vehicles were piled in the road.

Mr. Leaverton's two children were luckily thrown in the carriage top, while Miss Edwards was caught in the overturned carriage and dragged along the road fifty yards or more before the horses finally came to a standstill.

The colored boy and Mr. Leaverton's children escaped with a few injuries.

Mr. Leaverton's carriage was almost demolished, while Mr. Loud's dearborn was somewhat damaged.

CHAUTAUQUA CLOSES

Will Return Next Year — Big Success In Every Way.

The Chestertown Chautauqua for the third consecutive time has come to an end and there is no question that it was a week of seven joyous days. The weather could not have been better while all conspired to make it a grand success.

The aftermath of the Chautauqua is a pleasant flavor in the community, no one speaks of it except in praise. Of course all tastes were not alike and features which some wanted prolonged others wanted shortened. But the entire audience were pleased in the main. There was a unanimous vote in the tent for the return of the Chautauqua for 1915 and to that end about 500 tickets were subscribed for and nearly 100 guarantors pledged to insure its return.

It is impossible to tell of the individual numbers and give an idea to those who did not see and hear them. The only way to get the real joy out of a Chautauqua is to attend it. The musical numbers were of a high order—in fact mostly of the very highest order. Some of the artists are said to be non-excelled in their specialties.

Victor and his band Saturday gave two concerts, both afternoon and evening before an over-flow crowd. It was the most popular musical event of the Chautauqua. This band of twenty-five Italian musicians led by Signor Caleraty Victor is one of the best. For ten years Victor and his Band have been known at the big resorts of the Atlantic Coast and to Chautauqua and Lyceum audiences all over the country. The most wonderful part of the famous Victor and his Band is Signor Calefaty Victor himself. There is no Italian Band leader in America who is quite the peer of Signor Victor. For ten years he has been recognized as without a dangerous rival,

The list of guarantors for 1915 are as follows and any others who wish to add their names may do so :

The union service held in Chestertown Sunday evening was enjoyed by over a thousand people. The big Victor Band rendered a sacred concert for half an hour, which was ideal. "Onward, Christian Soldier," "Pilgrim's Chorus," selections from "The Messiah," "Nearer, My God, to Thee," and other impressive and beautiful hymns were rendered in a thrilling manner. Dr. Harmon, of the Chautauqua Circuit, of St. Paul, Minn., preached a sermon from the text, "Is it necessary that I preach the Gospel?" which was one of the greatest features of the week.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Kennedyville M. P. Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Weer Friday. The usual services will be held in the Kennedyville M. P. Church on Sunday next, Sept. 13. The pastor, Rev. Frank S Cain, and family expect to reach home on Friday, 11th, from Knoxville, Tenn., where they have spent a delightful vacation.

Dr. W. R. Graham, by request, delivered a patriotic sermon Sunday morning to the orders of the town. His text was, "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God," and the unanimous opinion was that this sermon was eloquent, masterful, patriotic and of much depth. In this connection we would like to state that the people of Chestertown have men in their church pulpits who would grace any Chautauqua platform and give to their hearers wholesome food.

It requires three marks on the ballot this year. One opposite Senator John Walter Smith's name, one opposite Jesse D. Price in first group and one opposite Jesse D. Price in second group. Make three marks!
