Horses digest their feed less thoroughly than other farm animals. In order to insure thorough digestion of all the food eaten, and to make your horses readier for next day's work, add to their evening feed a teaspoonful of—

Bee Dee STOCK MEDICINE

It will lessen your feed bills.
It will increase your profits.

I am using Bee Dee STOCK MEDICINE with my horses regularly and find it a saving proposition on feed. It also makes them healthy, thriving and clean.

WORLD'S SERIES BASE BALL

Boston Wins First Game 7 To 1.

The World's series of base ball games between the Athletics of Philadelphia, winners in th American League, and the Bostons, winners in the National League, opened at Philadelphia on October 9. Two games will be played at that city, October 9 and 10, then two at Boston, October 12 and 13. If more games are necessary, the fifth will be at Philadelphia October 14, the sixth at Boston October 15, and the seventh will be decided by the toss of a coin. Four games are necessary to win the championship.

Personal * * * * and Social

Mr. Owen C. Smith will remove from his Queen Annes farm to the house left vacant by Mr. James Brice, on the avenue. Mr. Brice goes to Mrs. George B. McWhorter's residence on the avenue recently purchased by him. Mrs. McWhorter ate her first meal in her new home Monday.

Deputy Clerk Thomas Dixon is enjoying his first vacation in two years visiting his sister in Baltimore.

Mr Charles C. Hopper, of Baltimore, is a visitor in Pocomoke this week. Mr. Hopper was formerly a newspaper man, having been with the "Chestertown Transcript," the "Herald" the American and "The Sun," of Baltimore. He says he "got out of the newspaper work to keep out of the penitentiary." In fact, he thinks it is almost impossible to be "good" in the newspaper business. He told us that to our face, and made the futher complimentary remark that "newspaper people are dangerous." He can afford to make these remarks now that he's "out," but they are pretty hard on those of us who have to stay "in." Thanks, just the same, however.—Pocomoke Ledger.

Charlie doesn't talk this way up here.

Mr. Earnest Richards, vice-president of the West End Trust Co., accompanied by his wife and Mr. W. N. Edwards, spent the week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard at their home on Water street.

Mr. E. R. Anthony left on Monday for Philadelphia where he has been spending the week attending the annual session of the Market Gardeners Association of America. While in Philadelphia Mr. Anthony will, no doubt, attend the world's series games between Philadelphia and Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Herman Ireland, of Baltimore, spent the week-end a guest of his sister, Miss May Ireland.

Mr. Laurence E. Duyer has accepted a position as superintendent at the Peerless Fertilizer works.

Mrs. Harrison W. Vickers has rented the Reiche home on Water street and will remove therein as soon as possible.

Mrs. L. Parvis who spent several days recently with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Jefferson on High street, has a son, Dr. Wm. Parvis, who is homeward bound from England after many thrilling experiences during the war excitement in that country and France. Dr. Parvis left here in July to attend the Medical and Surgical Congress in Londen. Unlike most Americans, he decided to remain and take several courses in the English hospitals. Later he visited France and was thrice held up and examined by the miltary authorities in France. Dr. Parvis witnessed the preparations for the defense of the French capital, and also saw the mobilization of the English Army. After a short tour through Scotland and Ireland he left England last Thursday.

LOCAL NOTES

The Methodist Protestant Conference will meet next year in Rhode Island Avenue Church, Washington, D. C.

The latest banner for the rear of a Ford car is "Excuse my dust !"

Put up your flags next Friday and let's give the school children a hearty welcome.

Vansant & Newsome have installed a new hat case made at home by Contractor W. T. Pippin Other improvements have been made in this neat and up-to-date store.

The sale at Mr. Groves' on Monday was one of the best of the season, realizing good prices on everything.

The straw stack on Mr. Jarrell's Wickes farm took fire at midnight Friday and burned. Night prowlers set the straw on fire.

A check room has been opened in Chestertown next door to Kent County Savings Bank by J. B. Burchinal and J. T. Dunbracco. Overcoats, whips, etc, will be cared for at a nominal charge.

The ladies of Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, are preparing to hold a supper and musicale in the parish house November 16 and 17. See adv. later.

The suppers and festivals advertised in the News have all been well patronized and splendid menus have been served. See elsewhere in the News for other suppers to take place and attend them if you wish a pleasant time and fine edibles.

Dan Prettyman, employed at Mr. B. F. Rash's, while hauling in hay Monday, upset the wagon and broke his left arm. Dr. H. B. Simmons set the broken bones.

The court last week delivered an opinion in the case of the Third National Bank vs. Mrs. Mary E. Bryan, to recover on a mortgage. The court decided the case in favor of the bank.

R. G. Nicholson has purchased from R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., a small house in Lynchburg, situated near ice plant.

An automobile party from Maine stopped at Chestertown Friday afternoon, inquiring the way to Easton. The owner of the car stated that the road from Galena to Chestertown was the best road he had encountered on the trip, with the exception of a few miles of road in Connecticut.

Passengers on the train arriving at Clayton at 9.52 a. m. Friday from the south were given a shock just below Wyoming, near the Dr. Cooper farm, when a stone or missile of some kind was hurled through a window of one of the cars, breaking the glass and scattering it all around. A woman passenger from Crumpton, Md., was showered by broken glass, but who fortunately was in no way injured other than by the shock to her nerves.

In his charge to the Grand Jury at Denton on Monday Judge Adkins called attention to the new "gallon-a-month" law, and instructed the jury to investigate the reports of liquor shipments on file in the clerk's office to see whether the quantity limited by law had been exceeded. The Judge said that the new act is a very salutary one, and if rigidly enforced would make it impossible for speak-easies to obtain intoxicants in sufficient quantities to do business.

The "Floating Theatre" arrived at the electric light wharf Sunday. It is a curiosity. Seats 850 on first floor and 350 in balcony, has private boxes, orchestra pit, box office, cloak room, lobby and all conveniences. There are 24 actors who live on the barge, and these have ample quarters for sleeping, eating, cooking, &c. A dynamo and engine provide electric lights. Good houses have been present each evening and speak well of the performances. They expect to visit Centreville, Rock Hall and Queenstown.

Vansant & Newsome awarded the two wireless stations to William Smith and John Collins, these boys have gotten the most votes.

Haverford defeated Washington College 9 to 0 Saturday in the first game of football this season. Coach Kibler deserves credit for the excellent showing. The new talent showed up finely. Mt. St. Mary's will be tackled today at Emmittsburg.

Fifty packages containing whiskey were recived and delivered by Adams Express at Chestertown last Saturday.

G E. Noland has joined the Ford army, also G. W. Atwell, of Kennedyville.

Mr. Thomas P. Skipper, State Live Stock Commissioner, paid a visit to Centreville on Tuesday and examined the fine herd of cattle of Mr. Wm. McKenney, on the Ashley farm, near town, and after testing the herd for tuberculosis found nearly every cow infected. Whereupon the herd was condemned and later on shipped to Baltimore where they will be killed. This is quite a loss to Mr. McKenney for the law only allows about fifteen dollars per head for each cow condemned. The inspection was made at the request of Mr. McKenney.—Observer.

Odd Pears.—Mr. Jas. H Boulter, of Rock Hall, sent to the News this week four fine specimens of pears. He wants some fruit grower to name them. The tree came up on his wood pile four years ago and is now 16 feet high. He has gathered 6 baskets of pears from it this year which is the first time it has fruited. We showed the fruit to Mr. H. L. Boyd who says the name is Dana's Hovy.
