THE NEW REGISTRATION

While County Total is An Expected Decrease Democrats Make Big Gains—Colored Vote is 166 Short.

Registration was completed last Tuesday with revision day, and the figures for Kent county, by precincts, are given foo the first time below. They will be found interesting in a number of ways, one of these being in the increase of affiliated Democrats and the falling off of white Republicans. The colored vote is also about 53 short of the old registration.

The total names of those of all parties and those who declined to give their party affiliation, for the entire county, placed upon the books was 4,309 names. The old books carried 4,473 names. This shows the very small decrease of 164, and it must be remembered that the old registration was a cumulative one, while that of this year is entirely new. Subsequent supplemental registrations, after the primaries, would undoubtedly result in a total in excess of the old one.

The Progressive and Prohibition parties do not seem to be growing very fast, voters having learned that they can exert more influence and express their sentiments just as well through one of the old parties.

If the voters cast their ballots according to affiliation, Kent county should give Hon. John Walter Smith and Hon. Jesse D. Price at least 800 majority this November. Why not make it unanmous!

For comparison we give the registered vote, without affiliation, of last year:

REGISTERED VOTE, 1913

CHURCH NOTES.

Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Rev. W. R. Graham, D. D., pastor. Services on Sunday, October 18th, and preaching by the pastor at 10.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Sabbath school 2.30 p. m. Christian Endeavor service 6 45 p. m. Mid-week service Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock.

Sassafras M. P. Church, Rev. A. B. Dupuy, pastor—Services next Sunday, as follows: Sunday school 9 30 a. m., preaching at 7.30 p. m. All welcome.

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, October 18th, as follows: preaching both morning and evening by Rev. J. A. Arters, of Middletown; 2 15 p. m., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7.00 p. m., Epworth League song service followed by sermon by Mr. Arters. Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening at 7.30. All invited.

Last Sunday was Rally Day in Christ Church Sunday School, not only in name but also in deed. Classes taught by Mrs. G. H. Cannan and Miss Mamie Thompson decorated the room with roses and growing plants most tastily. "The S. S. Four Square" service was used and other features. It was Missionary Sunday and over $29 was contributed by the classes. Miss Mamie Thompson's class won the banner with over $5, which was presented by Mr. Charles F, Wheatley, of Washington, D. C. Mr. T. D. Bowers' class won the attendance banner. Among the "scholars" of this school and present on this occasion were Mrs. Sallie Rollison, in her 84th year, and ex-Senator Wm. T. Hepbron, who will be 84 next year. It was an inspiring sight to see these friends in the Sunday School.

It was Maryland Day at the Endeavor meeting and Miss Mamie Thompson conducted an interesting meeting. Short talks on "Steps of Endeavor" were made by Mrs. C. N. Satterfield, Misses Mary Knight, Clara Usilton and Mr. Frank Elburn. A male quartette by Messrs A. L. Sparks, Webster Hague, Thos. G. Bowers and F. G. Usilton was rendered. An impressive feature was the pledge given by ten young ladies in concert, members of the intermediate society.

Rev. George F. Farring, of Brooklyn, Anne Arundel county, has accepted the call extended to him last week by members of the Methodist Protestant Church at Cannon, Del. The former pastor, Rev. C. W. Sanderson, who was appointed to the church in April, 1913, died last month and Rev. Mr. Farring was asked to take charge of the work until the regular session of the Maryland Annual Conference, which will be held in Rhode Island Avenue Methodist Protestant Church, Washington, D. C., next April. This is the second pastorate for Mr. Farring at Cannon, he having been appointed pastor there in the year 1905 and served until April, 1907. This is also the second time that the members of Cannon have asked for his return since he left the church in 1907.

The Journal of the Diocese of Easton was issued this week, giving the minutes of the 1914 convention, and also the vital statistics of the year C E. Shanahan, secretary of the diocese, was the editor of the book. It shows that there are in the diocese 2,100 families, 6,956 baptized members, 7,900 parishioners, 1,928 Sunday School scholars, $51,464.93 contributed for diocesan work, church property to the value of $484,600.96; missions, $6,575.85. Large increases in the number of confirmations, in contributions, etc., are indicated.

Rt. Rev. Wm. Forbes Adams, D. D., will be present at St. Paul's Church for confirmation Sunday, Oct. 18th; services at 11 a. m., offering for the Bishop. Everybody welcome.

Rally Day services will take place at Fairlee M. E. Church on tomorrow evening at 7.30. An interesting program has been prepared.

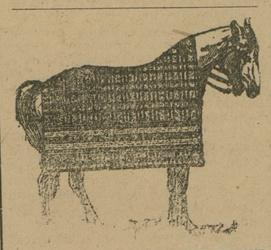

Rev. T. F. Beauchamp, of Wilmington, will preach in Fairlee M. E. Church on tomorrow morning at 10.30 and in Worton M. E. Church in the afternoon at 3 o'clock. All cordially invited.

Rev. Ivanhoe Willis, pastor at Tilghman's Island, is in the midst of a great revival in his church. He writes: "We have been in the work this is the sixth week and have had one hundred and twenty-five conversions. I have been my own evadgelist and the good Lord has wonderfully blessed us. We have a great work here. We built a new church last year costing $8,000 which is practically provided for."

Mrs. Mary A. Biggs, aged eighty-five years, widow of former Governor Benjamin T. Biggs, died Monday at her home in Middletown, Del. She fractured her hip several months ago and never recovered. She is survived by two sons, one of whom is ex-attorney General John Biggs, of Wilmington.

RALLY NEXT WEDNESDAY

Prominent Speakers To Be Here Including Hon. L. Irving Handy, Asst. Postmaster General Roper And Others.

The Democratic State Central Committee has designated Wednesday, October 21st, as the day for the big Democratic Mass Meeting in Chestertown. There will be two meetings, one at 2.00 in the afternoon and the other at 7.30 P. M. Both meetings will be held in Firemen's Hall. Plenty of good music will be provided for both meetings and prominent speakers will be on hand to address the audiences both afternoon and evening.

Acident.—His face badly cut and his right arm broken, as the result of injures received in an automobile accident near Centreville, Md., Tuesday afternoon, George I. Harrison, Democratic member of the Queen Anne's County Board of Election Supervisors, was brought to the University Hospital Baltimore Wednesday night.

With Dr. A. E. Landers, former county health officer, Mr. Harrison was on his way to Centreville from his home in Crumpton. Near Salem church the auto, traveling at high speed, left the State road, leaped a ditch and crashed into a large tree stump. The force of the impact swung the car around and it then turned over on its side, throwing Mr. Harrison into the underbush.

Dr. Landers, who was at the wheel, escaped with a shaking up.

THE carload of weanling mule colts was sold in Chestertown Monday. Another carload is advertised for Millington. These mules were intended for the South but owing to conditions there have been switched off to Kent.

THE rain yesterday seriously interfered with the School Rally. The town pupils made a fine showing accompanied by the Chestertown Band. But three country teachers were present, Misses Jewell, Dunbracco and Hessey.

A RED CROSS FUND is being collected by Mrs. Wm. E. Moody, Washington avenue. She will be glad to receive any amount.

MR. HARRIS' WILL.

The will of the late James S. Harris was filed for probate in the Orphan's Court for Kent county Tuesday. It was made February 19, 1913, and witnessed by W. W. Beck, Esq., and Mr. Allan A. Harris. Mr. Carson W. Harris was named as executor. The following bequests are made:

All furniture and household property to Mrs. Margaret Harris and also a dower interest in all his farm property.

"Blooming Neck" farm of 357 acres to Walter B. Harris.

"Howard" farm of 370 acres to James G. Harris, provided he pays Walter B. Harris $1,000 within two years without interest.

"Home" farm of 210 acres to Carson W. Harris.

"Grange" or "Creek" farm of 120 acres consisting of 6 parcels, also $5,000 to Arthur L. Harris.

All the rest of property to be divided, one-third to Mrs. Harris and remainder to sons share and share alike.

THE queen of the Fall, Chrysanthemums, are coming out in all their glory. Mrs. Wm. H. Lambert, Mrs. C. D. McCleary, Mrs. Belle Smith, Miss Flora Wheatley and others have magnificent displays.

THE Kent County School Board are arranging to use the basement of the new Bethel A. M. E. Church in which to teach the colored children of Chestertown. This will make an ideal place with plenty of play ground, etc.
