A WARNING TO MANY

Some Interesting Facts About Kidney Troubles.

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of the kidneys.

The physician in nearly all cases of serious illness, makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly, the other organs cannot readily be brought back to health and strength.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's disease which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in 1913, in the state of New York alone Therefore, it behooves us to pay more attention to the health of these most important organs

An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

The mild and healing influence of this preparation, in most cases, is soon realized, according to sworn statements and verified testimony of those who have used the remedy.

If you feel that your kidneys require attention, and wish a sample bottle, write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper, enclose ten cents and they will gladly forward it to you by Parcel Post.

Swamp-Root is sold by every druggist in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Dr. Louis E. Barrett And Wife Given a "Surprise" On Their Anniversary—Poems, Prayers And Dollars.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis E. Barrett, the popular pastor and wife, of the Chestertown M. E. church, had been married 50 years Sunday. His congregation being apprised of the fact assembled at the parsonage the previous Friday night and gave them a celebration. It cannot be called a surprise because it is hard to catch the doctor napping but all spent a pleasant evening.

The guests began arriving at about seven o'clock and continued coming until somewhat after ten. Many stayed all the evening while others stopped in only long enough to pay their respects.

Prof. Mark Creasy made the opening speech and presented Dr. and Mrs Barrett with a purse of gold which amounted to $65. Dr. Watt and Dr. Henry B. Martin, rector of Emanuel Church, also made short addresses.

Dr. Barrett, in the course of his response, made a short address and rendered the following poem, which we take pleasure in publishing:

December 13, 1864,
We pledged to each other faith evermore;
1914—December eleven,
Finds us well advanced on our way to heaven.

Days, weeks and months have speedily flown,
Since the moment the minister pronounced us one;
Down by the rivers, up through the towns,
In all kinds of weather, and in all kinds of homes.

From New Castle's hills to Accomac's sand,
We've traveled and lived without owning the land;
In Wilmington city, and in middle Delaware,
We have found peace and contentment year by year.

In all of these places we could but remember,
In Maryland, my Maryland, the 13th of December,
Witnessed the blest union of hands and of hearts,
That has grown but the stronger as the seasons depart.

Grand old Eastern Shore, with its rivers and bays,
Have whispered to us of the by gone days,
When we sailed o'er their surface, and I looked into eyes,
That answered me back with the blue of the skies.

Then we settled down in fair Easton town,
And little prattlers came to gladden our home;
Their cooings and wooings lightened our cares,
And time swiftly passed in the flight of the years.

But clouds overcast our fair home sky,
And into baby's life came the command to die;
And tonight while this charming reception is given,
Five beautiful cherubs await us in heaven.

Then we took up with the itinerant plan,
Resolved to bring blessings and hopes to man;
By preaching Christ's gospel, and living His life,
Assuage the waters of sorrow, and calm the world's strife.

The one little boy who was spared out of the six,
Has reached up to manhood, and is now healing the sick;
He is our comfort and stay, and as we near the sunset,
He stands ready to help, and not to forget.

How grateful we feel upon this December eleven,
For our grandchild so sweet, the beautiful Helen;
She comes with gladness our journey to beguile,
And our pathway illumine with her beaming smile.

For half a century we've sailed the matrimonial seas,
And our lives have been passed in mutual efforts to please;
While storms have swept over us, no thunder has rolled,
For we've never learned how each other to scold.

While all our appointments have been pleasant to serve,
And not one made a heavy draft on our nerves;
While all have received us with open arms of delight,
And bade us God speed when we passed from their sight.

Yet the fair town on Chester's bright stream,
Has vied with them all in such glad acclaim,
That we seem to be rooted in their life and love,
And favored with blessings like showers from above.

Six years of service and loving regard
Have passed all too swiftly in the service of our Lord;
His grace, all sufficient, has ne'er been denied,
And to pastor and people He has been a true guide.

And now, the Bride and Bridegroom, in the freshness of youth,
Extend to you welcome in deed and in truth;
Your kindness and sympathy, and true Christian love
Will keep us glad company wherever we move.

Our welcome is cordial to one and to all,
And in years to come we will ever recall
This happy occasion, and the friends gathered here
To greet the itinerants and give them good cheer.

CONSUMPTION TAKES 350 PEOPLE DAILY

Over 350 people succumb to consumption every day in the United States.

Science proves that the germs only thrive when the system is weakened from colds or sickness, overwork, confining duties or when general weakness exists.

The best physicians point out that during changing seasons the blood should be made rich and pure and active by taking Scott's Emulsion after meals. The cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion warms the body by enriching the blood; it peculiarly strengthens the lungs and throat, while it upbuilds the resistive forces of the body to avoid colds and prevent consumption.

If you work indoors, tire easily, feel languid or nervous, Scott's Emulsion is the most strengthening food-medicine known. It is totally free from alcohol or any stupefying drug. Avoid substitutes.
