WEDDING BELLS

They Ring Most Cheerily These Christmas Days.

The Centreville Observer says: One of the most beautiful weddings that was ever solemnized in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Church, Centreville, Md., took place on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Elizabeth Neall Brown became the bride of Mr. Henry Constable Beck, of Houston, Texas.

Besides being a beautiful wedding, it was the most important social event of the winter, owing to the prominence of both the bride's and groom's families in this and Kent counties.

The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Margaret K. Brown and the late Judge Edwin H. Brown, of this county, and the groom is a son of Mrs. Samuel Beck and the late Dr. Samuel Beck, of Kent county, and a brother of State Senator William W. Beck, of Kent.

The bride's gown was of white satin, trimmed with crystal rope trimming and court train; she wore a bridal veil held with orange blossoms and trimmed with Duchess lace, and carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley.

The matron of honor; Mrs. A. Erskine Miller, of Staunton, Va., a cousin of the bride, was gowned in white, crystal, trimmed with pink, and carried a bouquet of pink Maryland roses and pink snap dragons.

The bridesmaids were Miss Catherine B. Conger, Miss Margaret Spencer Corkran, Centreville; Miss Emma Turpin Cahall, Philadelphia, a cousin of the bride, and Miss Isabel Beck, Chestertown, a sister of the groom. Their dresses were pink crepe de chine, with accordion plaited skirts; they wore lace caps trimmed with pink ribbon and carried bouquets of pink Maryland roses and white snap dragons.

The flower girls were Miss Eilen Constable Beck and Miss Merritt Page Beck, neices of the groom, who wore white accordion plaited skirts, trimmed with pink ribbon and roses, and carried a basket of pale pink carnations.

The best man was Mr. William Walker Beck, of Chestertown, a brother of the groom.

The ushers were Messrs. Randolph Fairfax Crow and Coke Killough Burns, of Houston, Texas; Horace Wright Beck, of St. Louis, a brother of the groom; Charles Gilpin Hines, of Baltimore; Joseph Arthur Bradley and Allen Beck Harris, of Chestertown; M. Worthington Bordley and W. Purcell Brown, brother of the bride, of Centreville. They wore the conventional evening dress.

Miss Mary Forman, a friend of the bride, presided at the organ.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Arthur B. Conger, rector of the church.

The church had been most beautifully decorated for the occasion with holly and evergreen, and the altar was a mass of beautiful white flowers. The crowd in attendance was one of the largest that ever witnessed a wedding in this town.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Edwin H. Brown, which was largely attended. The dining room decorations were of pink roses and the rest of the house of holly and evergreens.

After the reception the bride and groom left in an automobile for Wilmington. The groom is president of the Central Contracting Company of Houston, Texas.

NEWNAM—EATON.

The Methodist Episcopal Church at Church Hill was the scene of a beautiful wedding on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock when Miss Margaret Ann Eaton, the popular and attractive daughter of Mrs. Margaret Eaton, of Church Hill, became the bride of ex-County Commissioner Oliver C. Newnam, of Price's.

The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. L. Sparklin, pastor of the church, assisted by the Rev. E. H. Derrickson, of Oxford, Md. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Myrtle Derrickson, of Oxford, a friend of the bride. The bride was attired in a dark blue gaberdine traveling suit, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

The ushers were Dr. W. G. Coppage, of Baltimore; Madison B. Bordley, of Centreville; W. J. Massey, of Price; Dr. N. S. Dudley, J. Carroll Catlin and J. Randolph Meredith, of Church Hill.

Upon their return from the wedding trip they will reside in the new home recently built by the groom in Price's.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's disease which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in 1913, in the state of New York alone Therefore, it behooves us to pay more attention to the health of these most important organs

The mild and healing influence of this preparation, in most cases, is soon realized, according to sworn statements and verified testimony of those who have used the remedy.

If you feel that your kidneys require attention, and wish a sample bottle, write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper, enclose ten cents and they will gladly forward it to you by Parcel Post.
