EDESVILLE

Mrs. Merritt Thompson who is sick, will not be able to take charge of the children's part of the Christmas entertainment at the Wesley Chapel. Misses Margaret Burgess, Helen Wagner, Julia Adkinson and Fannie Hadaway will take charge instead.

Mrs. John Newcomb has been very sick at her home near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Newcomb spent Sunday with their mother, who was ill.

The road leading from Rock Hall to Edesville has been improved by re-shelling. This same road was shelled heavily last winter and has been in splendid condition since that time.

A very large decayed chestnut tree, together with several old out-buildings have been removed from Wesley Chapel church yard. These buildings will be replaced by new ones later on.

Those persons who have turkeys, chickens and etc. to ship to the cities have found the prices so small, that many have decided to keep their poultry to eat in preference to buying meat.

Mr. Charles Jarmen has decided to discontinue farming for the winter, and expect to locate in Rock Hall, until he can get suited in a farm that he can buy.

Mrs. Annie Kendall has suffered a great deal of pain during the past week from rheumatism.

The Xmas entertainment at Wesley Chapel will be held Dec. 31, 1914.

We wish the Editors of the KENT NEWS a Merry Xmas and much good luck for the New Year of 1915.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of JAMES R. COLEMAN, our beloved husband and father, who departed this life one year ago, Dec. 24, 1913.

Dearest husband how I miss you,
Since from earth you passed away.
And my heart is aching sorely
As I think of you today.
Days of sadness still come o'er me,
Tears of sorrow silently flow,
Fond memory keeps my husband near me
Though Heaven claimed him one year ago.
BY HIS WIFE.

He has fought a good fight,
Was loved by one and all;
He was led only by Heaven's light,
In that path no one ever falls.
It's sad to part with one
So kind so loving and so good;
He did his part by us here,
As only a dear father would.
Yes, we all miss him,
As around our hearth we gather.
We will miss the ever welcome smile
Of a true and devoted father.
We miss you in our home, dear father,
We miss the sweet smile of your face;
We often sit and think of you
In that sweet land of rest.
BY HIS CHILDREN.

In loving remembrance of our darling baby, CATHERINE PIERCE who died two years ago today, December 17, 1914.

Her beautiful soul like a ray of light
Has gone to the realms above
Where never again comes sorrow or pain
In that land of celestial love.
How sadly I counted the hours
That measured two sorrowful years,
Since they laid 'neath a mantle of flowers
Our darling we loved so dear.
Sleep on dear baby, sweetly rest,
I needed you, but God knew best;
God's will be done He doeth it well,
But how we miss her no tongue can tell.
BY MAMA AND PAPA.

Dear little Catherine was our darling,
Pride of all our hearts at home,
But an angel came and whispered,
Little Catherine do come home.
BY HER AUNT MINNIE.

If you ask me do I miss
Yes, it fills my heart w
But her spirit sweetly w
In Heaven we will

Xmas Gifts Worth While Giving

Present conditions serve to accentuate the folly of making Christmas a time for the interchange of gifts that are without use and meaning. The war abroad has given a great impetus to the practical gift movement. This year, if never before, one should give practical gifts that are of real use to their recipients.

We are presenting unusually large displays of sensible gifts-goods—things that are useful and practical, and at the same time carry their full need of the Christmas spirit. These are gifts that are sure to be welcome.

Handkerchiefs for Gifts

No one ever has too many handkerchiefs, you are always safe in giving them! We have a big stock from which you can easily choose.

Footwear—Sensible Presents That Will Be Welcome

If you give this footwear, you give something that is useful and practical, and is sure to be appreciated.

The Newest Styles In Women's Neckwear

A host of clever and becoming neckwear styles to choose from, ranging in prices from small sums up to several dollars. Hardly any gift at the same price will be acceptable as neckwear. Wise gift buyers will be sure to include neckwear in their Christmas list.

Sensible and Practical Are Gifts of Blankets and Comforts

Especially so when they are chosen from our stock where every blanket and comfort is guaranteed to give thorough satisfaction and service. The assortment is now at its best and provides the early Christmas shopper with widest varities and finest values.

Fancy Aprons—A Welcome Gift Suggestion

Here is an unusually large and interesting display of fancy aprons in many new and pretty styles. Wouldn't YOU be pleased to receive one or two of these dainty aprons for Christmas? Your feminine friends will, too!

Art Needlework for Gifts

What woman does not appreciate lovely art needlework pieces? And what woman would not be pleased to receive a piece or two for Christmas?

Trunks and Suit Cases
