BOLGIANO'S
Perfect Seed Potatoes

The United States Agricultural Department places their Tag of Inspection and Approval on every sack of SEED POTATOES Purchased From J. BOLGIANO & SON.

CERTIFICATE OF QUALITY.

This is to certify that I have had charge of all the Seed Potatoes grown for J. Bolgiano & Son, during this growing season. I have been with them since April 15th; looked after the selecting of their seed and the treating of the same, have also had charge of the spraying during the growing season. There was nothing planted but the very best selected seed, and nothing has been left undone to have them right. The crop is now being harvested, and the results of my work are most satisfactory. We are harvesting one of the largest crops ever grown in Aroostock County, Maine, and of the finest quality, free from any disease and true to name. I spent some time in Washington, D. C., with the Horticultural Board before coming here and their ideas of producing FIRST CLASS SEED have been carried out to the letter for J. Bolgiano & Son.

NEW YEAR WEDDINGS

WHEATLEY—DODD.

The home of Mrs. Mamie Dodd, on High street, was the scene of a lovely early morning wedding last Saturday at 7 A. M., when Miss Avis Dodd and Mr. Charles Frazier Wheatley were united in holy wedlock by Dr. Walter R. Graham. The bride was dressed in navy blue crepe meteor and carried brides roses. Dr. H. L. Dodd escorted her to the bridal altar and her sister, Miss Marghuerita, dressed in wisteria meteor, was maid of honor. Mr. Wm. A. Wheatley, Jr., was best man. The room was tastily decorated in evergreen and lighted candles. Miss Mary Hyland rendered the wedding march. About thirty intimate friends of the couple were present. After the ceremony the couple left in Mr. Walter U. Lusby's car for Kennedyville where they boarded the train and went to their new home in Baltimore. The groom is employed in the internal revenue service. They received many beautiful and useful presents.

LOLLER—LEE.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar R. Pennington on Saturday last at 5,30 p. m. when Mr. George Royce Loller and Miss Lola Lee were made man and wife, Rev. Frank S. Cain officiating. They returned to Philadelphia on Sunday evening where they will make their home. Mr. Loller is a brother of Mrs. Edgar R. Pennington.

SCOTT—WIGGINS.

Mr. William Scott, of near Denton, and Mrs. Annie Wiggins, of Chestertown, formerly of Ridgely, were quietly married in the M. E. parsonage by Rev. W. E. Habbart on Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Scott, who is a prosperous farmer, motored over to Chestertown for his bride, and they were married as they passed through Ridgely on their way home. The bride was attired in steel-colored silk, trimmed in white, with hat and gloves to match.

STOKES—METCALFE

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Joseph Brown Metcalfe, Sudlersville, Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, when their popular and attractive daughter, Miss Margaret Elizabeth, became the bride of Mr. John Friel Stokes, a prominent young banker of the same place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. P. McGoldrick, pastor of Mother of Sorrow Church, Centreville, assisted by Rev. W. J. Scott, of Wilmington.

The home was beautifully decorated with evergreens, cut flowers and potted plants. Ribbons were suspended from the walls, forming a beautiful pathway from the stairs to the room where the ceremony was performed. Accompanied by the Maid of Honor, Miss Mary Cary Harrison, of Baltimore county, and the best man, Mr. Scott Stokes, of Kent county, the couple halted beneath a large arch, from which was suspended a whith wedding bell. There Rev. McGoldrick pronounced them man and wife. The wedding marches were played by Mrs. W. W. Morgan, of Sudlersville.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin, draped with chiffon cloth and with coral aud rhineston trimmings. She wore a tulle veil caught up with lillies of the valley and carried bride's roses and ferns.

The maid of honor, who is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Harrison, of Baltimore county, wore a gown of pink satin with cream lace, and carried pink Killarney roses and ferns. She also wore a pink hat trimmed with lace and pink roses.

The ushers were Messrs. James G. and Joseph B. Metcalfe, Jr.

Before the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served the guests at 11 o'clock. After the ceremony a reception was tendered the bridal party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley G. Roe. The home was elaborately decorated for the occasion, and about two hundred guests were present.

After the reception the young couple left for their honeymoon in the South. They were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents.

The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. C. Stokes, of near Betterton, Kent county. He was appointed to the position of Cashier of the Sudlersville Bank of Maryland on August 1st, 1910. He is a prominent young bussiness man, and has many warm friends in all section of the county.

The bride is a Virginian. She was born near Janesville, Virginia. Her parents moved from there to Queen Annes county several years ago.

Their many friends extend sincere congratulations.

ROBINSON—BOWERS.

A very beautiful wedding was solemnized on the afternoon of Wednesday, December 30, 1914, at the home of the bride's father. The contracting parties were Mr. Harry McCready Robinson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson, of Queen Anne's county, and Miss Nellie Lawrence Bowers, the attractive daughter of Mr. James H. Bowers, of Crumpton. The Rev. C. Turner Jones, B. D., performed the ceremony. After a very sumptuous dinner, served at high noon, and a brief social interim, the bridal couple made their appearance before their admiring friends at exactly 2 o'clock and marched to the north balcony of the west parlor to the step of Lohengrin played by Miss C. Beulah Ford, of Smyrna, Del. Mrs. William T. Godwin, the bride's aunt, was the maid of honor.

The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion and nothing could have been done to make the hymeneal more admirably charming. At three o'clock the nuptial party and their friends were called back to the dining rooms, where refreshments were served, after which good-byes were bidden the bridal couple, who left for the 3 40 train from Millington North, showered with best wishes.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. James H. Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Godwin, Mrs. Harry Robinson, Sr., Mr. G. Herbert Bowers, Miss Ida V. Wallen, Miss Mary A. Robinson, Miss C. Beulah Ford, Mr. Homer W. Dehorty, Mrs. Daisy Creswell, Miss Anna B. Creswell and others.

STEWART—GRIFFIN.

A wedding of interest to Chestertown and the Eastern Shore of Maryland was solemnized Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Griffin, in Baltimore, when their daughter, Miss Anna Pearl Griffin, became the bride of Mr. Milton Melvin Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Stewart, of Baltimore. The Rev. Leonard B. Smith, a former college mate of the bride, performed the ceremony in the presence of the immediate families.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Rachel E. Griffin, while the groom had as his best man his brother, Mr. David B. Stewart, Jr., of Rome, N. Y. Immediately after the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart left for a trip South. They will be "at home" after February 1 at 10 East Mount Royal avenue. The bride will be remembered as a graduate of Washington College and also a teacher at Rock Hall. She was very popular in Kent, where she has many warm friends.

MRS. HENRY H. THOMAS.

Mrs. Mary A Thomas, wife of Rev. Henry H. Thomas, the retired Baptist clergyman, died at 1.15 A. m., Dec. 27, at her home, 720 Grape Street, Vineland, N. J., after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Thomas was the oldest daughter of the late John Lloyd and Susan Barger Moore, of Still Pond, and a granddaughter of the late William Barger, P. G. M., of the Grand Lodge of Pa, and was born in Still Pond, Kent county, Md., March 14, 1850. Both of her parents died within two weeks of each other, when she was but four years of age. She and her sister, Elizabeth, now Mrs. Clark, were taken to the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Barger, of Phila., and reared by them. On June 6, 1867 she was married to Henry H. Thomas. Sue was convert d after her marriage and was baptized by the Rev. A. D. Bush, at Frewsburg, N. Y. when her husband entered the ministry she became very active in church work, as superintendent of the Infant Department of the Sunday school and leader in the missionary activities of the church. She early identified herself with the W. C. T. U. and has been the president of several societies. After Mr. Thomas became pastor of the First Baptist Church in 1895, of Vineland, she became first local, then county and State Superintendent of the Peace Department of the W. C. T. U. She did a large work here distributing thousands of pages of peace literature. She was in correspondence with the great peace societies of America, and with the notable peace workers of the land. She was an earnest Christian woman, a devoted wife, loved and respected by all who knew her. Especially did she love the work among the colored people of the South, and her influence was always helpful.—Vineland Republican.

COLEMAN—WALLS

Mr. LeRoy Hodge Coleman and Miss Rena Dewey Walls called at the Crumpton parsonage of the Methodist Church and were quietly married by their pastor, the Rev. C. Turner Jones, B. D. This was doubtless a successful surprise to their many friends. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam'l Walls, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Doll Coleman, of Queen Annes county. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman wish them a very happy voyage over the nuptial sea.

BLACKSON—TAYLOR

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Rivers Lafferty have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their sister Miss Eugenie Sleden Taylor, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William G. Taylor, of Fonticello, to Mr. Slator Clay Blackiston, son of Mrs. Sarah Blackiston and the late Hepburn Blackiston, of Chestertown, Maryland. Mrs. Blackistcn for many years past has resided at Hampton, Va. Following a wedding journey, Mr. Blackis[illegible] his bride will make their home [illegible]ity.

TOLAR—HICKS.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Hicks on High street, Chestertown, was the scene of a quiet wedding Tuesday at noon, Rev. T. C. Smoot, of Stevensville, officiating, the bride being the popular trained nurse, Miss Emilie Evelyn Hicks, and the groom Mr. Thomas S. Tolar, of Fayettsville, N. C., a successful business man. The bridal couple left for their new home the same afternoon.

WOODALL—CRAWFORD.

The wedding of Miss Alice I. Woodall, daughter of Mrs. Andrew W. Woodall, and Mr. Charles H. Crawford, son of Mrs. Henry Van B. Crawford, of Middletown, Del., took place in St. Dennis' Catholic Church, Galena, January 6th, at 11 a. m. The bride wore a blue cloth suit, black velvet hat and sable furs. He corsage was lillies of the valley. Miss Margaret Woodall, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of green velvet trimmed in beaver and carried American beauty roses. William D. Lecates, Jr., nephew of the bride, was ring bearer. Mr. George Lockwood, of Philadelphia, was best man and the ushers were Mr. Thomas C. Cruikshank, Jr., and Mr. William A. Hyland. After the ceremony a breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother in Georgetown. Tuesday evening Mrs. Woodall entertained at dinner in honor of the wedding party and house guests.

STANLEY—HAPPEL.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at high noon on Tuesday, Dec 29, in St. Johns Reformed parsonage, Sabillasville, Frederick county, Md., when Miss Ruth Happel, of Highfield, Washington county, became the bride of Mr. Harry C. Stanley, of Still Pond, Kent county. The only attendant was Miss Elsie Happel, sister of the bride. The immediate family of the bride having recently moved to Fort Meade, Florida. The ceremony was quiet and witnessed by a few friends. Immediately after the ceremony a dinner was served at the home of the bride's grandmother in Monterey. Later the happy couple left on 4.40 express for their future home in Still Pond. Mrs. Stanley is a very lovable young woman who has a host of friends in this vicinity. For years she has been the devoted teacher of the Primary Department in St. Stephens Reformed Church, Highfield, and has been such a power for good in every position in which she has been placed, that she will be greatly missed by the community. The best wishes of many follow her into her new home.
