We'll tell you the story in a few brief words and show you actual proof that nothing in this town can equal them for style, smartness, fabrics, elegance, tailoring excellence or the value we give for the price demanded.

Comparatively no expense for me to do busines—THIS IS WHY.

Come in and take a look at our beautiful array of patterns.

W. E. MOODY

Special Representative for Kent and Queen Anne's of the International Tailoring Co., of New York, Chicago and London.

LOCAL NOTES

A. COHEN will pay 40 cents for eggs next Wednesday.

THE rendition of Queen Esther by the Chestertown Choral Society will take place in the Lyceum the second week in February. It promises to be a rare treat.

"To feed six persons off of four wild ducks has been successfully accomplished by one of Kent's sportsmen," says one of his guests. He fills them up with scalloped oysters on the first course.

THE Candy Kitchen has taken in another room on Cross street in order to accommodate their growing trade. They will use this room as a kitchen in which to make candy, etc. Mr. E. H. Nickerson, the occupant of this room, has removed to one of the Davis houses on Mill street.

THE W. W. Clayton property in Rock Hall was sold at public sale last Saturday to Mrs. W. W. Price, of Fairlee, for $1000.

THE sixteenth series of Kent Building & Loan Company installment stock matured January 1st, and is being paid off at par, $100, per share. A new series was opened Monday night with a large number of shares subscribed.

IN the name of the people of Chestertown, Mrs. W. E. Moody sent Wednesday to Mr. B. Howell Griswold, Jr., treasurer of the Baltimore Chapter American National Red Cross, for the European War Relief Fund, the sum of $20,00. This amount was collected by Mrs. Moody, asking the small sum of five cents and the kindness of others who voluntarily gave larger amounts.

"PETITE, graceful, artistic," are terms fittingly applicable to little Miss Mildred Crew, who performed at the Lyceum Theatre several nights last week. Although but eleven years old, Miss Crew displayed marked talent in her dancing, posing and singing acts, while her composure and self control proved her to be perfectly at home on the stage. Her performances in every way would have done credit to an actress of far maturer years and riper experience. Miss Crew is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Medford Crew, formerly of Betterton, now residing in Philadelphia.

W. E. MOODY, representing the International Tailoring Co. for Kent and Queen Anne's counties, has received notice from this large plant to begin a special reduction sale on about 200 good patterns from their fall and winter line of made-to-measure guaranteed all wool fabrics. Call at Mr. Moody's office and he will be glad to show you the saving on your next suit or overcoat.

THE old saying, "it never rains but what it pours," is true in reference to the tailoring conditions in Chestertown. Messrs. J. P. Parrott, Newton, Sachs and "Teddy" are to be joined by Mr. H. Kaplan who has rented the Eliason building opposite the NEWS office. Mr. Kaplan has lived here before.

THE two Misses Thomas occupying a farm in lower Kent heard a noise about the chicken house one night recently and went out to investigate. Upon opening the hen house door there was a big opossum which was quickly killed, and upon further investigation a burly negro thief was discovered just as he made his escape from a rear entrance. He was given a parting shot. This negro had the opossum along to save his scalp. He thought the ladies would retire as soon as the invader was killed, but they were wiser than he thought.

FROM now until Jan. 28th, Manhattan Shirts all over the United States are reduced. Bordley & Sons are agents for this famous brand and are throwing 300 shirts into this wonderful sale. Their windows are full of beautiful patterns. Their advertisement this week will give you a hint at what they intend to do with their Suits and Overcoats. Don't buy until they have quoted you "rock-bottom."

THE Belgian Relief ship sailed from Baltimore Thursday. Kent's contribution was magnificent. Ten dollars came last week from a lady in Galena and two dollars from Messrs Bramble and McWhorter.

STILL POND

A very Unique Sunday School Christmas service took place at Still Pond M. E. Church on Wednesday evening, Dec. 30th. It was known as an evening of Christmas surprises, in that each class took a part which the other members of the school knew nothing of until rendered. The violin duet by Howard Harper and Laurence Krusen, and the Santa Clause song rendered by Mrs. Taylor's class of boys revealed the musical talent of our growing youth. The church was beautifully decorated with Christmas trees, wreaths and etc. The treat consisted of unusually fine candy, daintily packed, and oranges. Thanks to the labors of Messrs B. F. Harper and C. T. Norris to whom was assigned the task of procuring the same. Never before did Still Pond Sunday School give so fine a Christmas entertainment at so little expenditure of labor and worry. The surprise feature is a splendid idea and will doubtless accomplish even better results if adopted in future years.

The sacrament of the Lords Supper will be served at Still Pond M. E. Church tomorrow (Sunday Dec. 6) and a special collection will be taken, both in the church and Sunday school, for the Methodist war relief fund.

One of our popular young men, Mr. Harry Stanley returned from his Xmas hollidays last Thursday, bringing his bride with him. On Monday evening his many friends serenaded them.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norris, Mrs. Sallie Norris and daughter and Mr. Wilson Capps spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watkins, of Betterton.

The Ladies Aid Society met at Mrs. Chas. Walters Wednesday afternoon. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. F. H. Cornelius, Secretary, Mrs. Wm. Medders, Treasurer, Mrs. S. C. Rasin.

The Epworth League Social met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clark-Thursday evening.

LOCAL BUYERS yesterday were offering $1 32 for wheat and 72 cents for corn.

THE contract to furnish and erect the elevated tank for the Chestertown Water Co. for fire supply was awarded Monday to the Pittsburg-Des Moines Steel Company, of Pittsburg. The price is $4,345. The tank will hold 100,000 gallons. The tank must be erected and in position seventy-five days from the time that the contract is approved by the State Board of Health and the Pittsburg company.

THE R. G. Nicholson Panama calendar is a beauty and quite instructive. Messrs. Graham & Thomas also put out a good one.

McKee, Walter Bramble, J. H. Sides, Wm. F. Watson. Thos. W. Perkins resigned and Wm. F. Watson was elected a director to fill the vacancy.

AT the meeting of the Town Commissioners Monday Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., resigned as counsel and S. Scott Beck, Esq., was appointed.

THERE will be a meeting of the Federated Club at the home of the president, Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard on Satday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Further business for the winter will be discussed.

PLANS are moving along nicely for the new road to Lambson, one real estate owner in Chestertown contributing $500. It certainly is much needed.

THREE weddings announced but "please don't publish" was added.

DAY OF PRAYER.

Thursday, January 14th, is the day set apart by the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union as a Day of Prayer for National Constitutional Prohibition. Our State President urges that we seek Divine direction and help in the effort to rid our land of the legalized drink curse and urges us to pray as well for personal preparation for the work that each of us is called to do. It is hoped that all churches and organizations in our county will do something to impress upon their members the truth that without national prohibition the states are in many instances practically unable to enforce their own laws.

The Kennedyville Union will meet at the M. P. Church on the evening of the 14th, when an interesting program will be presented. It will include two brief addresses on the following topics: "The Past: Milestones Passed in the Prohibition Movement," and "The Present: The Battle To-Day." A cordial invitation to attend is extended to every one.
