

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers"— said one of the greatest thinkers this country ever produced.

Did you know that each TWIST of PICNIC is the result of as much scientific knowledge, as much skill and care as a chemist employs in making a chemical analysis?

Not otherwise could every PICNIC TWIST give the same mild, naturally sweet, long lasting chew, that you can keep on chewing without feeling you are overchewing.

No food product could be prepared in a more cleanly manner than the mild, mellow tobacco that goes into PICNIC TWIST.

McKENNEY ESTATE TO BE DIVIDED

Administrators, Through Their Attorneys, Ask Court to Name Commission to Partition Property. 15,787 Acres of Real Estate Involved. 15 Pieces of Town Property.

The first of a series of final steps to close the estate of the late General William McKenney, of Queen Annes county, involving 15,787 acres of land, fifteen pieces of town property, 265 shares of National Bank stock and other valuable personal property, was taken last Tuesday morning, when Thomas J. Keating and J. Frank Harper, attorneys for the administrators of the McKenney estate, filed a petition with the Clerk of the Circuit Court, asking the court to name a commission of five to make a partition, division and allotment of the estate, in accordance with General McKenney's will.

The administrators are William McKenney, W. L. Holton, and Clayton Wright. The heirs to the estate are: Mrs. W. L. Holton, Mr. Wm. McKenney, Mrs. Nannie McKenney Jacobs, Miss Maria McKenney, of Centreville; Mrs. Robert F. Gibson, of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, and Mrs. Ellen Mitchell, whose heirs are Mrs. Clayton Wright, Miss Susie Mitchell, Archibald and John Mitchell.

Since 1897, when General McKenney died, the estate has been conducted by the administrators, and some time in the very near future Judges Constable, Hopper and Adkins will announce the personnel of the commission which will divide what is regarded as, perhaps, the largest agricultural estate in Maryland. The total value of the property to be partitioned by the commission, it is believed, will aggregate in the neighborhood of one million dollars.

MRS. BROWN GRANTED DIVORCE

In the Superior Court, Monday afternoon, Mrs. Ethel Parvis Browne, of Middletown, was given a decree nisi in her suit for a divorce from her husband, Hugh C. Browne, the former well-known lawyer and postmaster of Wilmington. Mrs. Browne stated that she was married in 1895 and that she had lived with her husband until October, 1912, after which he failed to make provision for her. He had gone west and is now in Colorado, she said. She said she saw her husband at Christmas in 1913. There is a son 17 years of age. Mrs. Parvis, mother of the plaintiff, testified to the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Browne, also to their separation. Mrs. Grace P. Brady, sister of the plaintiff, corroborated the testimony of Mrs. Parvis.

The depressed business conditions necessitates the immediate disposal of our stock on account of unfavorable weather during the past season; it has left us with too much stock for this time of the year. Nothing will be spared regardless of cost. This firm has been engaged in business here nearly two years, and has already gained the reputation of carrying the very best merchandise for the money in the county.

Sale Begins on Wednesday, January 13, 1915, at 9 A. M.

FOR TEN DAYS ONLY

Do not compare this with other so-called sales where the object is to dispose of old and shop-worn goods. Remember, this is a bona-fide SALE, and every word stated is that of plain truth. We must turn our entire stock into cash. WE NEED THE MONEY. Space does not permit us to quote every item contained in this establishment. Suffice to say that there is nothing reserved—all goods on display are marked in plain figures.
