BOLGIANO'S
Perfect Seed Potatoes

The United States Agricultural Department places their Tag of Inspection and Approval on every sack of SEED POTATOES Purchased From J. BOLGIANO & SON.

CERTIFICATE OF QUALITY.

This is to certify that I have had charge of all the Seed Potatoes grown for J. Bolgiano & Son, during this growing season. I have been with them since April 15th; looked after the selecting of their seed and the treating of the same, have also had charge of the spraying during the growing season. There was nothing planted but the very best selected seed, and nothing has been left undone to have them right. The crop is now being harvested, and the results of my work are most satisfactory. We are harvesting one of the largest crops ever grown in Aroostock County, Maine, and of the finest quality, free from any disease and true to name. I spent some time in Washington, D. C., with the Horticultural Board before coming here and their ideas of producing FIRST CLASS SEED have been carried out to the letter for J. Bolgiano & Son.

THE duckers have been having fine sport this week near town. Edward Wilkins, Edward W. Emory, J. Thomas Davis, W. W. Beck, S. S. Beck, H. Clay Brown, Thomas Massey, Thomas Maslin, W. H. Lambert and others bagged scores of ducks. One man near Chester bridge is reported to have killed 17 red head ducks.

THE farm residence on the Ringgold farm owned by John E. George and tenanted by Mr. Kennard Aldridge has been painted inside and out by Elwood Baker and George Burke and looks fine.

THE excellent driving mare belonging to Miss Nellie McWhorter died Saturday night. She was buried in the garden on the avenue and evergreen wreaths placed on the mound.

THE Committee in charge of the new Chestertown school building, made a trip of inspection to Denton, Federalsburg and Centreville on Thursday to examine the school buildings at those places. In the party were Capt. C. E. Crane, C. S. Smith, Eben F. Perkins, T. G. Wroth, Prof. J. L. Smyth and Claude F. Parks.

POLITICS FROM START TO FINISH

This Year To Witness Continuous Activity—Governor and Mayor—Candidates To Be Elected In Spring And Fall.

From the beginning to the close of this year, and even beyond, politics will be at the forefront in Baltimore and in Maryland. There will be two primaries and two general elections and two days for registration of voters in Baltimore in the spring.

The first primary and first election will take place in Baltimore, the primary in April and the election in May. At the primary there will be nomination by the two leading parties of candidates for:

Mayor.
President of the Second Branch City Council.
Comptroller.
Members of the two branches of the City Council.

Who the candidate for Mayor will be is uncertain. Mayor Preston will be renominated by Democrats without opposition if he will say that he will accept the nomination.

Three avowed Republican candidates for Mayor have thus far come to the front, with possibly more in the background. There are: James McEvory, Charles H. Heintzeman and former Sheriff Theodore Weis.

The State Election

Hardly will the municipal election be out of the way before the fall primary and the fall election loom into view. At this primary there will be nominated candidates for:

Governor.
Comptroller.
Attorney general.
One-half of the State Senate.
All members of the House of Delegates.
Sheriffs in the city and in all the counties.
Chief judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore.
Clerks of Common Pleas, Criminal and Circuit Courts and register of wills and Orphans' Court in Baltimore.

Candidates for clerks of courts will be nominated in the following counties—Anne Arundel, Calvert, Carroll, Cecil, Charles, Dorchester, Frederick, Harford, Howard, Kent, Montgomery, Prince Georges, St. Mary's, Talbot, Washington and Wicomico.

Candidates for judges of the Orphans' Court, county commissioners and other local offices will also be nominated in the several counties.

The legislature to be chosen will be called upon to elect only one official—state treasurer. Senator Blair Lee's successor will be elected by a direct vote in 1916.

Candidates for the State Senate will be nominated as follows: First, Second and Third districts of Baltimore, Baltimore county, Anne Arundel, Calvert, Carroll, Frederick, Howard, Kent, Queen Annes, Somerset, Washington and Wicomico counties. The holdover Senators are Messrs. Ogden, of Baltimore; Zihlman, of Allegany; Cooper, of Caroline; Williams, of Cecil; J. H. Mudd, of Charles; Shepherd, of Dorchester; Speicher, of Garrett; Archer, of Harford; Jones, of Montgomery; Holmes, of Prince George; Chesley, of St. Marys; Collins, of Talbot, and Harrison, of Worcester.

The Governorship

The storm centre in the primaries and at the general election in the fall will be the Goverorship. While several capable and distinguished Republicans have been suggested as available candidates for Governor, none has yet appeared openly in the field. Those mentioned include: W. T. Warburton, of Cecil; Gen. W. Bladen Lowndes, formerly of Allegany county, now a voter in Baltimore county; former Senator Wm. P. Jackson, of Wicomico; Dr. J. McPherson Scott, of Washington, county, and Henry F. Baker, of Baltimore city. Gov. Goldeborough has declared that under no circumstances will he be a candidate for a renomination.

While Congressman Linthicum is the only Democ[illegible] nor in the for[illegible] are others who may appear later. They include Mayor Preston, Emerson C. Harrington, at present State comptroller; Chief Albert Constable, of the Second Circuit; Chief Judge N. Charles Burke, of the Third Circuit; Congressman Jesse D. Price, Congressman David J. Lewis, Senator Carville D. Benson, Senator W. Milnes Maloy, Senator James J. Archer and United States Senator Blair Lee.

One of the paramount issues in the campaign will be an amendment to the constitution prohibiting the sale and manufacture of liquors and beers in Maryland. On this issue the Prohibition and Anti-Saloon League forces will combine.

Personal ✱ ✱ ✱ ✱ and Social

Mr. Josiah Massey, who has been in a Baltimore hospital suffering with blood poison of the hand, is home. Mr. Massey had three operations on his hand and will recover we hope without any further trouble.

Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, of Western Maryland College, visited Dr. Cain, of Washington College, on Wednesday last on business.

Mrs. Frank Miller, of near town, went to the University Hospital, Philadelphia, Friday for special treatment.

Mr. Henry S. DeFord, the well-known carriage builder and wheelwright, has been quite sick at his home on Queen street.

Master John C. Fay and sister, Miss Elizabeth M. Fay, are at home in Queen Anne's, near town, having spent their Christmas and New-Year holidays with ther parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Fay, in Philadelphia.

The "Sun" of Friday reported a marriage license issued the day previous for Helen R. Story, of Chestertown, aged 22, and Leslie H. Creager, age 28.

Mr. Maxwell Blakeney, of West Chester, is spending some time with relatives here.

Mr. Earle Gitt spent the past week in New York, Philadelphia and other cities.

The many friends of Mr. J. W. Hirons, vice president of the Beacom Business Colleges and in active charge of the Salisbury College of Business, who has been until this week a resident of Salisbury, and has devoted his entire time to the school here, will regret to know that he has removed to Wilmington, and will not any longer be a citizen of Salisbury under the present plans of the school. He will, however, spend a portion of the time here in connection with the management of the school.—The Maryland Tribune. Mr. Hirons is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hirons, of Chestertown.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Klinefelter are spending sometime in Baltimore.

Miss Lillian Hicks, who has been quite ill of typhoid fever for six weeks, continues to hold her own.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Comegys have removed to Chestertown and taken charge of the apartment house on Front street heretofore conducted by Mrs. Florence Finley.

Mrs. George E. Lambert and Mrs. William H. Brown were quite sick during the past week.

Walter T. Jackson, many years in the fish and game business at Havre de Grace and Perryville, has moved to Florida, to engage in orange brokerage. He is a brother to Mrs. Simmons.

We are glad to report Hon. Joseph A. Wickes to be doing nicely under the careful nursing of his home folks and Miss Roberts, a trained nurse.

Mrs. W. W. Chapman has been spending the week in Baltimore the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Chapman.

Mrs. Earle Nicholson has returned from the hospital and is convalescent.

Mrs. James Chilcutt, of Atlantic City, is visiting relatives near town. She reports Mr. C. as well and well located by the seaside. Mr. John Chilcutt is married and now in Boston making money showing in vaudeville while his wife sings.

Messrs. George D. Lofland, P. A. M. Brooks, Harry Nichols and Jesse H. Copper attended the auto show in Phila. this week making the trip in Mr. Lofland's auto.

Lucky No. 10.—The coaster sled given by Wm. Medders & Co. at Christmas was won by Miss Sadie Sollenberger, Lynch, Md.
