MRS. THAWLEY MAY BE AN HEIRESS

According to the "Ridgely Sun," Mrs. Fannie Thawley, of that town, is an heiress. The Sun of Saturday said:

"Through her attorney at Chestertown, Mrs. Fannie Thawley of this place was notified a short time ago that she was an heiress to a $300,000 estate—she being the only surviving female relative of an uncle, a Mr. Pinder, who died a few months ago at his home in Washington, D. C. The rich uncle was a bachelor, and sometime after his death Mrs. Thawley and her brother learned, through the untiring efforts of the attorney, that they were the only surviving relatives and would eventually fall into possession of the vast estate.

"This was certainly good news to Mrs. Thawley, and she could hardly believe it when she was call by phone by her attorney. Mrs. Thawley is the widow of the late Alexander Thawley, in his day a prominent farmer of Queen Anne's county. She makes her home with her son, Albert, a blacksmith at Ridgely.

"Mrs. Thawley, accompanied by her lawyer, went to Washington to see about the estate and returned this week. She has this to say about the estate: 'Mr. John Pinder was my mother's brother and he left a will. The will left the estate to my mother, and in the event of her death, to her girl children. I, being the only girl child, will get the full estate, with the exception of $500 which goes to my brother. The estate consists, according to my understanding of the will, of about $130,000 in cash and securities and about $180,000 in real estate. The land is valuable and is situated about 170 miles from Washington, in Virginia.'"

The attorney of Chestertown, mentioned above, is Senator W. W. Beck, who will represent Mrs. Thawley's interests.

MRS. THOMAS D. FRANCE

Mrs. Thomas D. France departed this life December thirtieth, nineteen hundred and fourteen.

"It singeth low in every heart,
We hear it each and all—
A song of those who answer not,
However we may call!
More homelike seems the vast unknown
Since they have entered there."

The above lines are from the beautiful heart-song of John White Chadwick. Surely cometh the Grim Reaper, as a thief in the night, to carry our loved ones across the dark river. The spirit has flown from our grasp In our anguish we wonder? Who on the other shore reaches out a helping hand to our cherished one? No matter how the crushed heart may cry in pleading—no answer ever comes back to tell us of that beyond which is veiled in a cloud.

Mrs. France was possessed of a character, the intrinsic worth of which was known only to those intimately connected with the goodness in her daily life. She was indeed in her home a ministering spirit of love and duty. Ever ready to give comfort and ease to those afflicted, she was directed by the only true religion, "Love Thy Neighbor as Thyself." Bear no malice. Liturgies and isms may play an impressive part in one's living, but deep down in the human heart let it be, "Do unto others, as we would they do unto us." The sacrifice of wishes or aspirations to give peace and gladness to the needful. The simple life—in the old way—the beaten track—the straight and narrow path—neither to the right or the left. Speculation upsets our creed and we drift away from that old way—into a groping in the dark—led astray, far from the light—our only hope is faith in the Father and the Christ crucified.

Though our dearest treasure is taken from us, it is thus, "Thy will be done."

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS

Genuine Merit Required to Win the People's Confidence

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extesively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have been benefitted, to those who are in need of it.

A prominenl druggist says "Take for examble Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy that I know of has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact that it fulfils almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder diseases, corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcels Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghampton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention the Kent News, Chestertown, Md.
