RIPENED SHEAVES

Some of Kent's Oldest Residents Are Among the Death List.

After seven weeks of illness with pneumonia, Mr. John W. Duyer died at his home on College avenue Sunday night, aged 82. The deceased had resided in Chestertown all his life and was a member of the old military company known as the Reed Rifles, only five or six of whom are now living. He also was a member of the Red Men at one time. He was a quiet, unassuming citizen, but drew about him a large circle of devoted friends. He had been in failing health for some time; but had the buoyant and bright face of a devoted wife and faithful daughters, Belle and Elizabeth, as well as the strong arms of manly sons. The deceased leaves a wife, four sons, Messrs. Frank E., Jesse, William E. and Lawrence R.; three daughters, Misses Belle and Elizabeth, at home, and Mrs. Ella Woodall, of Galena. The funeral was held Tuesday at 2 o'clock, Dr. W. R. Graham officiating; interment in Chester cemetery, C. L. Dodd undertaker. The pall-bearers were his three sons, Messrs. Frank, William and Lawrence, and his three grandsons, Colin, Burt and Jack Duyer.

Mrs. Mary E. Walbert, aged 64, wife of George W. Walbert, of Swan Creek, died at her home Monday afternoon of Bright's disease. She leaves a husband and four children, Mrs. Ida Cranor, Mrs. Emma Rodney, Mrs. John Bedwell and Mr. George Walbert, and two sisters, Mrs. Elbert Nickerson and Mrs. Alfred Crouch. Funeral on Wednesday from her late home, conducted by Rev. H. W. D. Johnson, interment at Wesley Chapel cemetery. The pall-bearers were Joseph Walbert, James Walbert, Theodore Walbert, Alfred Walbert, B. F. Rash, J. W. Joiner. Charles L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mr. Charles C. Wood died at his home on Eastern Neck Island last Friday afternoon after a short illness, aged 74. The deceased was one of the oldest residents on the Island and was recognized as a man of sobriety, integrity of the highest character. He was held in high esteem by the residents in that section and his acquaintance extended far and wide.

Mr. Wood leaves a widow, his second wife, who was a Mrs. Sappington, who has been a faithful and devoted companion. Mr. Wood had four children by his first wife, viz., James M., Mrs. Ida Rebecca, the wife of the Rev. J. M. Elderdice, John C. and Charles D. Wood, all well-known citizens.

The funeral on Monday was largely attended, especially by the elderly friends of the deceased, the service being held at Wesley Chapel church, Rev. H. W. D. Johnson, officiating. Interment took place in the cemetary adjoining the church. The bearers were Jas. M. Wood, Chas. D. Wood, John C. Wood, Alfred C. Loud, Bartus C. Hatcherson and Andrew Harper.

Capt. John McKenzie died Monday at the Soldiers' Home in Norfolk, Va., after a long illness, aged 82. The deceased lived most of his life in Kent and sailed on the "Hiram M. Brown" and other boats for many years. He lived at Capt. R. S. Emory's for a number of years assisting in pear culture and in landscape gardening. His wife was buried about three months ago. He leaves two sons, Thomas and Bruce and two daughters, Mrs Fannie Parrott, and Mrs. Marion Krugg. The body was brought to town Tuesday and funeral held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. James P. She had been sick for a long time but had the constant attention of her faithful children. She leaves the following children: Mrs. W. G. Painter, of W. Va.; Dr. J. Page Strong, of Baltimore; Mrs. W. O. Selby, Elwood Strong, Edna Strong, Mrs. Merrittt Brice and Wm. R. Strong. Also two sisters, Mrs. Martha S. Wickes and Mrs. J. H. Ruth and one brother, Robert Wickes. She was 74 years of age. The NEWS is informed by reliable authority that a well-known packer is offering $9 per ton for tomatoes and that he'll do better if necessary. As stated in the NEWS last week Shaw & Co., have stated with an offer of $8.40.

A WELCOME LETTER

Mr. Harry Jarvis, of near Black's, employed a German helper late in the Fall from Philadelphia. The work of his new employe was very satisfactory and Mr. Jarvis has been congratulating himself upon his helper when on Monday there came a letter which caused the German to pack his grip and leave on the next train! The letter came from a well-known lawyer apprising him of the fact that his uncle had died leaving him $18,000! Mr. Jarvis will look further for help.
