Why grin and bear all these ills when Sloan's Liniment kills pain?

"I have used your Liniment and can say it is fine. I have used it for sore throat, strained shoulder, and it acted like a charm."—Allen Dunn, Route 1, Box 88, Pine Valley, Miss.

"I am a painter and paperhanger by trade, consequently up and down ladders. About two years ago my left knee became lame and sore. It pained me at nights at times till I could not rest, and I was contemplating giving up my trade on account of it when I chanced to think of Sloan's Liniment. I had never tried it before, and I am glad to state that less than one 25c. bottle fixed me up apparently as good as ever."—Charles C. Campbell, Florence, Texas.

LEADS AMONG WOMEN CARTOONISTS

MRS. MARION BALLOU FISK.

IN KEEPING with its established policy of providing the best in every line of platform entertainment for its patrons, the Affiliated Lyceum Bureaus some time since added to its list of attractions, Mrs. Marion Ballou Fisk, the best woman cartoonist-entertainer in the Lyceum. Mrs. Fisk's engagement came as a result of an appearance before the Efficiency Convention held by the bureau's representatives, on which occasion she enthused what is perhaps the most skeptical audience which any entertainer is ever called upon to face. So enthusiastic were the bureau representatives over her work that more dates were sold for her than she could possibly fill, and she has been "making good" in the most positive and convincing way. Of charming personality, a rare artist and clever impersonator, Mrs. Fisk makes her cartoon entertainment a talked-of feature of every Lyceum course on which she appears.

BOYHOOD DAYS

When I look back o'er my boyhood days,
Long before I began to roam;
I now can see that I was happy
When the little farm was my home.

I had a father there to guide me,
And shield me from all harm;
Life to me was all smooth sailing
In my younger days on the little farm.

I remember how I drove the horses,
And just how I miked the cow;
And I felt just so much larger
When I was asked to take the plow.

I remember how I churned the butter,
And how I hurried in the wood;
And how I used to watch the gooses,
Helping mother all I could.

And at evening we would gather
Around the fire when the day was o'er;
And then I'd listen to my father
Telling tales about the war.

But alas! how things have changed;
We have'nt got that home any more;
And my father he has left me
To join his friends on the unknown shore:

And to-day I feel as if deserted,
Like a mouse on a barren plain;
And in my mind I am often longing
For those boyhood days again.

Much complaint is made among the oysters tongers, in regards to the price of oysters. They sold for 12 and 13 cents a bushel last week. This is crying hard times with a vengeance, with sugar going up and flour at such fancy prices, there is cause for complaint. The working man sure has a poor show, for no matter how high the prices of food, or clothing, may soar, wages remain about the same, or less.

Over thirty persons have been baptised in the new pool at the Seventh Day Adventist Church, and received into membership.

We are glad to report Mr. John Moffett as a great deal improved.

Chew Tobacco and Ruminate and You Will Make a Good Senator

Interesting Assertion That Thinking and Chewing Are Closely Allied, Made by a Famous Educator.

One of America's brainiest men, formerly president of one of the great universities, speaking at Columbia University, said that senators from tobacco chewing sections were clearer thinkers than those from localities where tobacco chewing is less general.

He said:

"I want to suggest that chewing tobacco leads to ruminative habits. If a man stops long enough between sentences to chew, he is more likely to have opinions that are of weight than if he does not."

This suggestion has been carried out in a series of interesting advertisements of Picnic Twist Chewing Tobacco that is now appearing in the newspapers of this section.

The advertising that is making this already popular brand still better known and liked, features the various well-known types of men who find solace and an aid to clear thinking in a good chew of tobacco.

The Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company, makers of Picnic Twist Chewing Tobacco, express themselves as extremely well pleased with the reception their brand has [illegible] Maine.

Dont's for Dancers.

It takes more than rules to produce good conduct. Where a proper spirit prevails, rules are superfluous. This is particularly true in regard to dancing. When people of refinement dance with their friends they do not need a long list of rules and regulations hanging before their eyes. Their natural sense of fitness of things, insures an observerance of all the proprieties. Unfortunately an innate sense of modesty and of the fitness of things cannot be trusted to regulate the public dance hall. Here rules are necessary to insure an observance of the proprieties.

The Public Dance Hall Inspector of Elizabeth, N. J., has set forth succinctly correct rules for partners in five "dont's". They could not be put more tersely:

Don't hop.
Don't dip.
Don't breathe in the lady's face.
Don't hold the lady too close.
Don't wave the arms up and down.

Effect of Great Kidney Remedy is Soon Realized

I feel it my duty to let you know what Swamp-Root did for me. I was bothered with my back for over twenty years and at times I could hardly get out of bed. I read your advertisement and decided to try Swamp-Root. Used five bottles, and it has been five years since I used it, and I have never been bothered a day since I took the last bottle of it. I am thoroughly convinced that Dr. Kilmer's Swamy-Root cured me and would recommend it to others suffering as I did.

My husband was troubled with kidney and bladder troubles and he took your Swamp-Root and it cured him. This was about five years ago.

You may publish this letter if you choose.
