DR. CAIN MAY STAY

Resignation Discussed By a Well-Attended Board Saturday And Declined—Athletics a Storm Centre—To Be Taken Up Later.

The board of visitors and governors of Washington College met in formal session Saturday to consider the resignation of Dr. James W. Cain, which was made to each member of the board several weeks ago. The following letter was sent to the members by Dr Cain, which evidences the ground of the difference which called forth the resignation according to one side:

"I hereby tender my resignation to take effect at the close of the present academic year. I am impelled to take this action by a consideration of the several recent acts of your honorable board, which seems to evince a determination to pursue a policy disastrous to the college and discreditable to those connected with it. These several acts relate to the following matters, namely:

First—The introduction of professionalism into the college athletics and the wrongful expenditure of college money for that purpose.

"Second—The disregard of the faculty's recommendations concerning the occupancy of scholarships by undesirable students and the setting aside of faculty regulations which were adopted with a view of securing better scholarship generally and particularly on the part of those connected with the athletic teams.

"Third—The exclusion of the principal from the meetings of the board and his consequent inability to carry out intelligently the wishes of the board or discharge the duties which the nature of his position imposes upon him.

"I beg to assure you that I have strived at all times to act in harmony with your honorable board, and I am not conscious of any act or attitude of mine that may be rightly construed as lacking in respect for constituted authority. But I cannot conceive that respect for authority should carry the principal of the college to the extent of giving approval to measures so at variance with propriety and good policy as those referred to unquestionably are. In the the hope the better judgement would eventually prevail I have thus far confined myself to the recommendations which are a matter of record in my reports, but in the face of your most recent action further compliance demands either unmanly submission or tacit appreval. I am unable to yield the one or give the other."

Judge James Alfred Pearce presided and the session continued several hours at which there was some spirited debates. Those present from out-of-town were Dr. John Mace, Cambridge; Allan Goldsboro, Esq., Denton; Harry J. Hopkins, Annapolis; C. W. Perkins, Esq., Baltimore; after more tha two hours of debate the resignations was refused. The questions at issue will be taken up at the quarterly meeting.

GRANGE NOTES.

Monday night was surely a banner night in Worton Grange. One new member was taken into our order by Bro. Jas. T. Anthony who was with us. We were also pleased to have with us Bro. and Sister T. F. W. Crew. Every thing is working harmoniously along for our benefit, and we expect to have even bigger and better times in the very near future. Our lecturer is surely preparing some No. 1 programs for us. Our program of last Monday night was as follows: Singing, Bud and Bloom; reading, by Bro. Geo. E. Sheats; How to make house flowers bloom in winter, by Sister J. W. Ivens, followed by open discussion and questions; reading, On which parent rests the greater responsibility in training the child? Sister Ida Loller, followed by beautiful talks on the subject by Bro. Anthony and Bro. Crew.

Next was a debate, an entirely new feature of our meetings and we hope we will have more of them as this was so thoroughly enjoyed. The subject of the debate was, Resolved, that farming offers better opportunities to the ambitious young man than do the professions. The affirmative side was ably taken by Sister Katie Cooper, Bros B. F. Rash and Barney Cooper. The negative by Sister Sara Carter, Bros. Ralph Williams and Geo. E. Sheats, and indeed it would be hard to decide which was the winner, therefore both sides were presented with a nice box of home made candy by the lecturer. But we must add that those who missed this programme missed a great treat. Our visitors said we are doing fine with our new grange, and we want right here to extend to them a hearty invitation to visit us whenever convenient.

25th Anniversary.—The many friends of Mrs. Wm. Carter will be glad to learn that she is very much improved and hopes to walk this year. She has been an invalid for ten years. The following interesting account will be read with pleasure: "Friends would not permit the twenty-fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Carter, of Bellefont, formerly of Montrose, to pass by without a demonstration, in spite of their wishes for a quiet day and evening, so Friday for them proved quite eventful. Mr. Carter is one of Wilmington's most popular newspaper scribes and he has written almost everything in the news line from a personal to a "full-dressed murder," if the writer may be permitted to steal one of his own news-seeking expressions. Many friends and relatives called to extend congratulations. Fruit from Florida, candy from confectioners and dishes of different designs were included in the glittering gathering of gifts. Mr. Carter's office mates of the News presented them an attractive azalea. The plant stands over three feet high and is filled with pink blooms. Friday was also Mrs. Carter's birthday anniversary and she received many presents in honor of this date. Mrs. Carter was Miss Florence M. Cavender. Their marriage took place at the Episcopal rectory in Chestertown, Md. On that evening snow fell as it did on Friday night. There was another event celebrated at the Carter home, also on Friday—the birthday anniversary of Miss Justine Armstrong, a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Carter and she was substantially remembered by her young and old friends."

NO ADVANCE NOTICES OF THIS BABY'S BIRTH.

"That dear little infant boy under the coverlets there is the greatest and best surprise of my life.

Mrs. William Heckel pointed to a cooing, bright eyed babe that peered innocently from its crib at the mother's side.

This is Cincinnati's "surprise baby." He came into the world without giving his mother or father, doctors or friends the least intimation of his approach. His arrival presents such remarkable features from a medical standpoint that it exceeds by far the interest aroused by the recent "surprise baby" in Chicago.

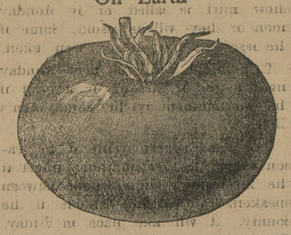

The wounderful fact in this case is that the mother took part in gymnastic classes every week for many months past, danced all the dances of the class and took a plunge in the pool each night, did these strenuous things right up to the last moment, and with never the least suspicion that the stork was about to present the family with a fine young boy.

The baby was born last Sunday a week ago, but the fact was not made public until today, when Dr. C. L. Wertheimer said he would present the facts to the Academy of Medicine.

The father of the boy is a clerk in the Hamilton County Common Pleas Court. The couple have been married six years and this is the first baby.

"JOHN BAER" FIRST TOMATO PICKED THIS YEAR.

Mr. J. T. Wilson, Calvert Co., Md., August 19, 1914, writes: "'John Baer' Tomatoes are the earliest I have ever raised. They would have been very much earlier but for the long, dry season which nearly killed them; even then I was the first in my neighborhood to pick tomatoes. It is a fine tomato for table use or for canning. It has not as many seeds as other tomatoes. You can recommend 'John Baer' tomato highly for early use."

CAME FOR TEN MILES AROUND TO SEE "JOHN BAER" TOMATOES.

Mr. Thos. Howe, Washington Co., Md., writes July 30, 1914: "'John Baer' tomatoes done so fine for me I cannot say enough about them. I grew 1500 plants from the $1.00 package of seed. I picked fine ripe tomatoes from the last part of June to the 4th of July—300 baskets in all, selling them at $1.25 per basket and now the vines are still loaded with tomatoes. There were absolutely no cripples among them. Some of the vines had 102 tomatoes. People came for 10 miles around to see them. If I had bought one-quarter pound of the seed I should have made several hundred dollars more off the crop. Solid first, second, and third pickings. Picked every other day since starting to pick."

"JOHN BAER"...3 WEEKS AHEAD OF ANY OTHER TOMATO

Mr. R. T. Scott Nottoway Co., Va., August 24, 1914, writes: "'John Baer' Tomatoes were ready for market three weeks before any other tomato in our locality. I have been picking fine, large tomatoes off of them for over two months. I had a very successful crop."
