DOWN THE COUNTY NOTES

We are glad to state that Mrs. Walter Hadaway is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mrs. Will Weaver, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. Geo. Hayes, at this place.

Mr. Puppe and Mr. Judefind have united forces, and have Mr. Lecompte's engine to saw logs for them on Mr. Puppe's farm, the lumber to be used for their respective homes.

The fourth Quarterly conference of Wesley Chapel Church was held at the parsonage on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Messrs. Frank Wheatley, Wallace Wheat, S. P. Fithian and Simon Moffatt went to Baltimore on Monday as witnesses in the damage suit case against T. L. Stine at Tolchester. A Baltimore lady sustained a broken limb while riding on the "dip" at that place last July one year, and brought suit against Mr. Stine for $15,000 damages.

Much comment was expressed Tuesday night when two men were seen stalking down the middle of the road They were the worthy "Bowser" and "Deacon Dolby," two well known young men of Rock Hall. The night was dark, the wind howled and blew, they turned neither to the right or left, nor yet spoke to anyone, but with a determination worthy a better cause were measuring the distance from Durding's corner to the Landing road. This was to settle an argument whether a ball could be thrown that distance or not. Later—The matter was fully decided on Wednesday and refereed by Urie and Thompson. The ball could not be thrown that distance. Poor "Bowser" had ost again.

Mrs. Martha Beck has been called to Baltimore suddenly by the illness of her little grandson, Emory Edward, age 4, who fell and broke his arm.

Mr. M. J. Adley and Mr. John Ward were called to Baltimore to bring the remains of Mr. Harry Kay from the Maryland General Hospital. Mr. Kay died Thursday evening at about 10 30 o'clock. He was brought home on Saturday and buried in Wesley Chapel cemetery. Undertaker Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements. The services were conducted at the grave by Rev. Travers and the Lankford Lodge K. of P. He is survived by one son.

Mr. Samuel Burgess has been elected delegate to Conference from Wesley Chapel and Mr. Milton Maslin alternate.

Rev. B. W. Kindley, superintendent of the State Sunday School Association, has resigned because of financial conditions in the district. He will return to a charge at the coming session of Confrence.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hyde Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fowler, Archibald and Warren Simons, and Mrs. Ashley comprised a donation party from Worton which visited Mr. and Mrs. Clews last Friday. It is a source of inspiration and encouragement to any minister to know that his efforts are appreciated and when a people are disposed to engage in acts which are a manifestation of such appreciation, it shows their hearts are in the right place. In addition to above, a pleasing gift was received from Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cooper and family. Mr, and Mrs. Clews say they are very grateful indeed for such thoughtfulness.

Mr. Benjamin I. Ashley, of Rock Hall, says the report that he had sold his store to Mr. Russell Downey is a mistake. He says he is still at the old stand.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wheatley spent the week-end with her grandmother, Mrs. M. J. Howard.

Mrs. Wm. Medders was very much surprised Saturday evening when she answered the door bell to find Mrs. Chas. Walter's Sunday school class and a number of friends there. The evening was pleasantly spent with music and recitations. The ladies of the class served ice cream and cake which was quite a surprise to their hostess.

Miss Dorothy Medders and friend, Miss Jones, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Medders.

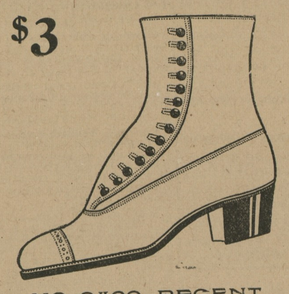

GRANGE NOTES.

Although several weeks have passed since our grange at Fairlee has been heard from through your paper, we wish to publish the fact that we not only exist but that we are in n most healthy and flourishing condition. We hold regular weekly meetings which are well attended and most interesting. Our George Washington celebration was fair with a splendid program which contained the usual monthly garner edited and read by our Overseer, Bro. M. P. Lee. Visitors from Kennedyville, Queen Aune's and other granges in attendance.

St Patrick's celebration in the wearing of the green next Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock. Special program at each meeting of interest to all.

IMPORTANT—Don't fail to read carefully every word of Bordley & Sons advertisement in this issue. It will open your eyes it's a very importment question that has doubtless been bothering you for some time, and will solve the question to your entire satisfaction.
