LOCAL NOTES

A HOUSE belonging to Sam Hackett, colored, of Big Wood's was burned last Thursday evening.

SEVERAL new homes are to be erected at or near Lynch. Mr. Charles O'Neil has purchased land of Mr. Harrison Cornelius and will build a home near the church for his parents.

MR. H. M. HYNSON, who has been engaged in Mr. M. A. Toulson's drug store for several months, has purchased the stock and fixtures of Mr. Julian T. Power, of Millington, and will conduct that business there. Mr. Power will continue in the optical business.

THE LAST basketball game of the season on the local floor was a somewhat easy victory for the Washington College boys Friday night when they defeated the Delaware quintet in the cleanest and best all round game of the season the final score being 24 to 17.

THE Loyal Order of Moose, of Chestertown elected officers last Friday night as follows: Dictator, Foster Cannan; Vice-Dictator, John Lowener; Treasurer, H. B. Nicholson; Prelate, C. E. Anderson; Inner Guard, Graham Nelson; Outer Guard, John Hall; Trustee, W. F. Malin.

WHEN contemplating your need in clothing this spring, look Mr. W. E. Moody up. He's representing the International Tailoring Co. Mr. Moody's long experience in cloths, coupled with this large plant, places at your disposal a combination hard to outclass. He's making clothes to measure at temptingly low prices.

IN accordance with plans formed last year, when the State Legislature made an appropriation for conducting the work, letters were sent to every school in Kent county through School Examiner J. L. Smyth notifying the teachers that the Public Athletic League of Baltimore was ready to superintend athletics in the various institutes of learning. The letter explained the details of the plan for promoting healthful sports in schools, and also prescribed the initiatory tests for athletics.

The letter was from William Burdick, director of athletics in Baltimore, and was to the effect that state officials regarded clean, healthful sports necessary to insure the health of pupils, as well as to increase the vitality of their minds.

The plan of the State League is to have the various schools hold athletic meets. The winners of these are then eligible to appear in the county meet, and the winners of the county meet are entitled to appear in the State-wide contests held in Baltimore.

The boys will be divided into classes in accordance with their weights and ages. The local meet will be held April 19th.

MILLINGTON

The wind is still blowing. Oh you March.

The sound of the fish horn is again heard in the land, a sure harbinger of Spring.

We have a real live Council of the Daughters of America in town thoroughly organized and working finely. This patriotic and benevolent order deserves the consideration and patronage of the ladies of the community. Besides the support it gives the flag of our country and standing for the best in our free school system, it carries a weekly sick and death benefit which is worth considering. Ladies and members of the Junior Order U. A. M. investigate.

Little Norman Cox Higman, son of Mr. and Mrs Norman Higman, of near town, who has been quite sick, we are glad to report improving. Mrs. Annie Cox, his grandmother, of Barclay, has been with him during his illness.

A town election for one commissioner to serve for three years, was held in Millington on March 13th, and Benjamin W. Duling, the retiring member of the board was re-elected, thirteen votes being cast. The voters of Millington were too busy to bother with a town election.

Mrs. Jennie Bryan, widow of the late John Bryan, of Millington, died at her home on West Cypress street Wednesday morning, March 17, after a serious illness of four weeks duration. Mrs. Bryan has been an invalid for several years. About ten years ago she fell and injured herself, after which she was obliged to use crutches and a wheel chair. During all these years she has had faithful and loving attention from her daughter, Miss Clara. Mrs. Bryan leaves a host of friends who regret her demise. Funeral arrangements were incomplete at time of this writing.

Mrs. J. B W. Aydelotte is visiting Galena friends for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Price and Mrs. Annie S. Price attended the funeral of Mr. John B. Nelson, of St. George's, Del., last week, and visited relatives at Delaware City.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Jas. Hall are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wallace, while Mrs. Wallace is in the hospital for treatment.

Mrs. R. J. Taylor and daughter, Dorothy, are visiting her mother, in Franklin City, Va.

Miss Evelyn Seemans, of Clayton, Del., spent a few days this week with Miss Ethel Burris, near town.

Miss Helen Numbers visited her aunt, Mrs. S. A. Orem, of Crumpton, this week.

Mr. Charles D. Moore, formerly with H. H. Benneman has accepted a position with I. Hollins, at the Hub, and will be pleased to have his friends call and shake hands with him.

Services tomorrow, March 21st, at Asbury M. E. Church will be as follows: 10 30 a. m., preaching by the pastor, Rev. G. P. Smith; 2.30 p. m. Sunday school, subject, "Jonathan and His Armorbearer"; 7.30 p m. preaching by the pastor.

The play entitled "The Old New-Hamshire Home," which was given in Comegys Hall last Saturday night by the young folks of Sudlersville, was well attended and fully appreciated.

Elder Baer, of Baltimore, representing the Seventh Day Adventists Church, visited Millington last week and delivered three interesting and instructive sermons. He expects to come again in the near future when he hopes to receive several candidates for baptism.
