SATURDAY, MARCH 20th 1915

THE big public school parade, sports and addresses will be held in Chestertown this year on Friday, April 16.

THE last week of the big revival in Philadelphia draws to a close. The free-will offering to Rev. W. A. Sunday will amount to $50,000 besides presents which amount to thousands of dollars. There have been over 38,000 who have signed cards and professed conversion!

IT is reported that Mr. Barroll is about to drop his man, Mr. W. B. Copper, for the Senate and put him up as a candidate for Comptroller. The encouragement certainly does not come from the showing made at the last attempt of Mr. Copper for this office.

IT is with pleasure the NEWS announces the candidacy of Dr. EDWARD A. SCOTT, of Galena, for Judge of the Orphans' Court, subject to the Democratic primaries. He is a Democrat, true and tried, an aggressive and progressive citizen, and a man of the highest character and perfect integrity. He will make a strong addition to any ticket.

CAMPAIGN ISSUES?

The Boss of the Barroll faction in Kent county and his organ have presented to the people of Kent county what is supposed to be their "issues" in the campaign now about to open. Mr. Barroll in his statement, delivered by his son, charges "that Hon. William W. Beck's nomination in 1911 was stolen from the late State Senator Foxwell."

Well, well, Mr. Barroll, your boasted assertion that you are game is here proven to be without truth. It reminds one of the recent discussion as to the difference between the "muck writer" and the "muck manager." The former is an assassin of character, while the latter is the greatest criminal of the age. For you to charge that Hon. William W. Beck's nomination was stolen is beyond credence were it not for the evidence before us, and especially in the light of the knowledge in the possession of those who make the charge. It is a matter of no concern, however, to the perverter of facts when such perversion is stimulated by political motives, that the reckless charges are aimed at one free from all semblance of the same.

Every public officer must assume the risk of criticism and of misrepresentation, also the perfidy of ambitious political enemies; but standing securely upon his conscious rectitude, he defies his enemies and consoles himself with the hope of justice from a people who look through the dust of calumny and see the true man beyond. The Anti's had faithful followers and expert watchers in all rooms and no objections were filed until after the vote was announced, and for Mr. Barroll to now charge that Mr. Beck's nomination in 1911 was stolen is indeed poor policy and an issue that will find but little or no encouragement from the good citizens of Kent. If this is the Boss' chief issue, he'd better save his wadding!

The next "issue" which Boss Barroll flings out is the charge that the Organization "cut" Sheriff McKee in 1911! It is said that if you give a calf enough rope he'll hang himself sure! This charge reads more like one emanating from Boss Barroll's son than from the Boss himself, because he certainly ought to know the facts of that campaign. If he does not we'll inform him. The Democratic county ticket had no opposition. The Republicans did not even nominate anybody for local offices. Therefore, there could have been no "cutting" of McKee or any other candidate.

If Mr. Barroll wants to take up the question of "true soldiers" why go back to 1911, when there was no opposition to the Democratic ticket? Let's come nearer home. In 1913 Caldwell received 1761, Shallcross 1716. Would you charge your Anti's with cutting? Mr. Charles D. Wood got 1839 and Sheriff Brown 1798. Was there "cutting" here? There was strong opposition from the Republicans in that year. What have you to say about the figures in that contest? Meet the "issue" which you have raised and let's settle the fight on your own platform. It's really laughable to read such charges from a man who pretends to be a leader of sane men.

The other "issues" will be taken up in their order.

THE candidacy of Mr. George Harry Cannan for county commissioner on the Organization ticket seems to be causing the Anti's some little uneasiness. In last week's issue of the Barroll paper the claim is made that the county commissioners should always be composed of farmers only and men of all other occupations barred. The organ must be hard up for "copy" when it prints such silly rot as this. Is there a farmer in the county who would object to associating in the commissioners' room with an intelligent mechanic like Mr. Cannan or any other good business man? If there is we would like to hear from him.

THE Barroll organ, in its issue of last Saturday, gives notice to all the world and the rest of mankind that the coming primary campaign will be a clean one on its part. There will be no mud-slinging and no personalities—nothing but clean and straight-forward discussions of men and measures. My, how sweet! But—WAIT!

THE meat house belonging to Mr. William Burgess, in Piney Neck, was robbed of a dozen or more shoulders and hams a few nights ago. He thinks he knows the thief and advises him not to repeat the visit.

PLENTY OF FUN

The Young Men's Club gave a minstrel show and entertainment in the Lyceum Tuesday night to nearly a full house. The characters were well taken and audience laughed heartily at the jokes and initiation of the new Knight. Miss Anna Smyth presided at the piano and the following young men presented the entertainment:

Minstrel Circle—W. Russell Wheatley, interlocutor; end men, Joseph N. Wheatley, Clarence Newcomb, J. Waters Russell, L. M. Elliott, John Morris, Neavitt Satford, Alvin Brown, Colin Duyer, Lewin Howard and Roy Woodland.

"The Ancient Order of the Knights of Chivarly," a burlesque initiation in one act.
