

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers"—said one of the greatest thinkers this country ever produced.

Says the Engineer:

"Did you ever think what it means to run a train—signals jumping by every minute and several hundred lives depending on you not missing one of them?

"Well, maybe you can guess what a help it is to an engineer to find a tobacco that sharpens you up and steadies you just right without any 'rebound'."

PICNIC TWIST is made of the mild, mellow part of the leaf. You get real satisfaction out of this mild, naturally sweet, long lasting chew, without a dark, heavy tobacco's "come back."

IF NOT, WHY NOT?

THIS is a very important question to you. If you have already worn one of the Hand-Made Suits of either the Adler Rochester or the High Art Brand, then you are fully acquainted with their Superior Finish and Perfect Fit. If you haven't worn one it's high time you were becoming acquainted with them, for we assure you that no such clothing was ever kept in Chestertown till Bordley & Son had the nerve to buy them. Hundreds of young men—the best dressers in Kent and Queen Anne's counties—cheerfully attest their Lasting Superiority over the trashy, ill-fitting, machine-sewed stuff being constantly offered you as made-to-measure. These suits are so constructed that they are not only a perfect fit when bought, but stay in shape in spite of wear and weather until you are tired of wearing them. have them in every conceivable style, color and model, and in every instance from $3.00 to $5.00 less than the so-called made-to-measure trash you are being constantly importuned to buy. All we ask is to give us a trial and let us prove our assertion.

Respectfully,

BORDLEY & SONS

The Galena Gun Club held an open handicap blue rock shoot at Galena Wednesday afternoon for the Fred Gilbert Silver Loving Cup, presented by the DuPont Powder Co. A strong wind piercing the shooters in the face caused the targets to take very irregular flights. Never the less very creditable scores were made. The close scores of Prettyman, Brown, Burns and Rasin made a very interesting finish, Prettyman landing the cup by one target. Full score as follows:

WEDDING NOTES

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mrs. P. J. Cooper on College avenue when her daughter, Miss Lillie A. Cooper became the bride of Mr Howard E. Mench, of Worton on March 17th, 1915, by Dr. L. E. Barrett. The bride was attired in an evening dress of white embroidered crepe voile with blue ribbon girdle and streamer at left side. The groom wore a navy blue serge suit. Many pretty and useful presents were received. After the wedding refreshments were served.

Miss Mignoette Townsend, of Bruceville, and Mr. Allan H. Wilson, of near Chestertown, were married on Tuesday, March 2, by Rev. Mr. Tumbelston at the Baptist parsonage, Easton. The bride was attired in dark blue with hat and gloves to match. The groom wore the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Wilson left by train for Baltimore, where they will make their future home,

A quiet wedding took place Saturday in Centreville at the home of Mr. O. H Ford. The contracting parties were Miss Annie Sparks, of Crumpton, and Mr. W. Harry Jones, of Sudlersville. The bride was one of the most popular teachers in the county, the groom a prominent business man, being the junior member of the firm of Chas. B. Chance & Co. Immediately after the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. L. P. Corkran, they motored to Middletown, Del., where they took the train for points north.

THE DEATH ROLL

James Bramble, a brother-in-law of Mrs. W. B. Coleman, died of the infirmities of age, in Baltimore, Saturday. He was formerly a merchant of Centreville and was buried at that place. Mr. Bramble was a civil war veteran and served three years in the Union army.

Mrs. Annie May Frazier, wife of Mr. J. E. H. Frazier, of Piney Neck, died at her home at that place Monday, age 47. Funeral was held Wednesday at Piney Neck church, Rev. Mr. Prettyman in charge, and enterment at Wesley Chapel cemetery.

The bearers were Alfred and Harry Hudson, John Ward, F. B. Adley, Thos. Beaton, Frank Collison. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

Mrs. Mary V. Adkins, widow of the late Franklin B. Adkins and the eldest daughter of Bishop William Forbes Adams, died early Thursday morning at the Episcopal residence in Easton of heart failure after an illness of about one month. The keenest sympathy is felt for the good bishop and his family in this affliction. Besides the bishop she is survived by two brothers, Maj. Charles W. Adams, of Baltimore, and Dr. Wilmer Adams, of Wilmington, and three sisters. Mrs. Addison B. M. Willson, of Philadelphia, Miss Louise Adams. and Miss Pauline Adams. Always unostentatious, Mrs. Adkins' benefactions were boundless.

She was unassuming in manner, gentle in demeanor, ever courteous, and withal a friend indeed to many.

Clarence B. Beck

Word reached relatives Thursday of the death in St. Louis in the afternoon of Clarence Benjamin Beck, son of the fate Horace and and Matilda Beck, of Kent county, Md., and uncle of State Senator W. W. Beck, of Kent. He was born on the Eastern Shore and for many years had conducted a coal business in St Louis. He was 70 years of age.

His widow, who survives him was formerly Miss Mary Vickers, of Baltimore, and son, Clarence Beck, and a daughter, Mrs. Edith Barringer, also survive.

Mrs. Mary C. McClain.

Mrs. Mary C. McClain died at her home, near Church Hill, on Saturday morning, February 27th, after a short illness of pneumonia, aged 38 years.

She was the wife of Mr. Charles H. MaClain, and the daughter of the late Jacob Kendall, of Rock Hall, formerly of Queen Annes county. Funeral service was held on Monday at 10 a. m. at the Holy Family Church, Church Hill, Rev. C. P. McGoldrick officiated. Interment in Still Pond cemetery.

The deceased is survived by her husband and nine children, the youngest being but one month old.

The pall bearers were: Messrs. Samuel Magrogan, Joseph Magrogan, Robert Magrogan, John Maloey, Michael Maloey and Charles McKee. The deceased was a niece of Mr. Daniel McKee, of this town.

CHURCH NOTES.

We are glad to state that Dr. W. R. Graham is able to be up and about the house, but his physician forbids him preaching Sunday. There will be the usual Sunday-school at 2.30 and Christian Endeavor service at 6.45 p. m. A "Billy Sunday service" was held Thursday evening after the prayer-meeting.

Sunday was missionary day at Christ Church Sunday school and more than $17 was raised. The banner which was won by Miss Clara Usilton's class, was presented by President Lewin Howard. Mr. Robert Huey and Mrs. S. R. Matthews tied for the attendance banner. Easter carols were rehearsed.

Mr. Robert G. Nicholson haa been elected delegate to Conference from St. James M. P. Church and Mr. Samuel Mann alternate. Rev. Mr. Jester's return was asked for.

Dr. L. E Barrett is expected to return to his church here for another year both by his congregation and the people generally. He suits us and we seem to suit him, eh, Doctor? Then, why should there be any change?

Chestertown M. E. Church, Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., pastor. Services next Sunday, March 21st, as follows: 10.30 a. m., the pastor will preach a short sermon, followed by Sacramental service and reception of probationers; 2.15 p. m., Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class; 7.00 p m., a special service will be held, led by Mrs. Merrick Clements. Billy Sunday's Song Book will be used and the testimony of several ladies and gentlemen who have heard the noted Evangelist, will be given, followed by closing words by the pastor. All invited, come early and secure a good seat.

Because of the illness of Dr. W. R. Graham no church services were held at the M. P. Church Sunday. Large crowds were present and heard Dr. Barrett preach at both services in the M. E. Church.

Rev. O. B. Rice goes to Conference next week. He has served the people of Quaker Neck faithfully for two years and has been asked for again, but it is understood he will leave. There are three or more charges after Mr. Rice including Bosman, Fairlee and Galena. It is hoped the popular pastor will remain in Kent.

The Rev. Charles E. Beltecher, Missionary from Alaska, will speak in Emmanuel Church, next Monday at 4.30 in the afternoon and 7.30 in the evening.

The Rev. H. B. Bryan will preach on Wednesday, March 31 instead of March 25 as announced.
