

Have You A

Good Tailor?

CLOTHES shouldn't be bought in the same way as you buy a hat, pair of shoes, or a necktie. Clothes are personal. They reflect the wearer's individuality and ought always to come from a good Tailor. You can tell a man with a Tailor-made Suit the moment you lay eyes on him. THERE'S A SMARTNESS THERE WHICH IS UNMISTAKABLE.

We can furdish this suit for you. The buying is easy, 500 patterns to select from.

$12.60, $15.00, $18.00, $20.00

Up to the finest fabrics made. Come see. We'll make your Suit to order for LESS MONEY than you'll pay for Ready-made same quality. Large output, minimum expense is why. Respectfully,

W. E. MOODY

Special Representative for Kent and Queen Anne's of the International Tailoring Co., of New York, Chicago and London.

Your Check is Your Surest Receipt!

YOU PAID that bill. You are SURE of it. And your wife remembers that you DID too. But here is a NEW BILL with the words "PLEASE REMIT!" Rather unpleasant. What are you going to do about it? YOU CAN'T FIND THE RECEIPT. Well, the only sure way is to PAY BY CHECK. Then you can show your VOUCHERS AS RECEIPTS. The CHECK WAY is the SAFE WAY!

PAY YOUR BILLS BY CHECK.

ROCK HALL

Mr. J. Frank Wheatley, of Chestertown, spent Sunday with his son, C. Frank, and family, and like young Frank, he was uncommunicative as to news items, so far aa concern the writer.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Crew, of near Worton, accompanied by Master Reuben Levy, were guests of relatives here on Sunday.

Mr. Alex. Taylor, accompanied by a friend, were on a visiting tour Sunday among sick folks. They found Mr. Gilmor Bryden quite sick, but improving somewhat. They also found Capt. Bill Coleman a victim of rheumatism.

Mr. George H. Davis is conducting a private hospital, with his wife, mother and Capt. J. B. Downey as patients.

An oyster packing house is now in operation, and notwithstanding 25 cents reduction in day wages and two cents reduction in shucking measure, the employees are really glad of the resumption of work at the establishment, and others are feeling the effect with pleasure.

What Chester needs just now is several more Johnny Jeromes. Capt. Johnny is the "king pin," sure.

A young son of Mrs. Minnie Hodges, in colliding with a team had his arm broken last week. The injury was so serious that Dr. Selby deemed it wise to send the boy to the hospital.

Dr. Beale on Saturday night had a patching up case on his hands. A young man of Skinner's Neck, in a tusseling bout, had his head forced through a window, which caused some ugly cuts.

Mrs. Ora E. Senger, and her charming little daughter, Miss Hilda A., of Baltimore, recently visited the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Whaland, at Rock Hall. Since Mrs. Senger's marriage she has traveled extensively, and it is delightful to her many friends here to listen to her graphical description of the many beautiful places she has visited.

CRUMPTON

A sumptuous supper was served to the fox hunters of Kent and Queen Anne's counties at the Crumpton House Thursday evening.

Miss Neva Walls has returned from Philadelphia.

Miss Hattie Fennimore, who has been spending the past two weeks at home, will return to Atlantic City Monday.

Miss Ethel Ryland is visiting in Centreville.

Mr. Ronald Harrison has returned to Pierce Business College, Philadelphia.

Miss Mary Barnes is in Philadelphia purchasing spring millinery.

Mrs. C. W. Clements is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Price Vansant, in Wilmington.

Mrs. George Harrison entertained Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harrison, of Philadelphia, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. S. Orem and grand-daughter, Miss Bertha Godwin, have moved in the Sheppard property, on Second street.

Miss Helen Numbers, of Millington, spent several days this week with Miss Sallie Orem.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Price are visiting relatives in Wilmington.

Glad to report Mrs. Sallie Fennimore as convalescent.

Mrs. H. Clay Stevens is the guest of her son, Mr. Samuel Stevens, Smith River, N. J.

Messrs John Moffett and Thos. Newcomb also expect to build near Mr. O'Neil's.

Stavely & Bowers, who are likely to do this work are erecting a large warehouse opposite the station.

LOOKOUT for the change of advertisement of George H. Camp, Chestertown, in the NEWS next week.

KENNEDYVILLE

The regular meeting of the Kennedyville Grange, No. 244, held a special meeting in Weer's Hall on Saturday last when three candidates were given the third and fourth degrees. Our Worthy Lecturer had prepared a splendid program to which quite a few visitors came and enjoyed. At the close of the program a splendid supper was served to all present which was greatly enjoyed. The next meeting will be held in the hall on Monday next, 7.30 p. m.

We are sorry to report Dr. James W. Urie on the sick list at this time and hope he will soon be quite well again.

Mrs. T. E. W. Crew and Mrs. George M. D. Glenn spent Sunday with their sister, Miss Lulu VanDyke.

The entertainment will be given in Weer's Hall on Saturday, March 27 and not the 20th, the change in date being made on account of sickness.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Redmile and Mr. and Mrs H. S. Redmile and family motored to Wilmington, Del. and back on Sunday last.

Mrs. John D. McCabe left on Monday for a short visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall, of Whaleyville, Md.

Miss Mabel Hague who has been on the sick list for the past few days is able to be out again.

Master Arthur Cleaver met with an accident one day last week while playing on the school yard. He fell and one of the boys fell on him and broke his collar bone. We are glad to know he is getting along as well as can be expected.

Mrs. E. T. Othoson spent Wednesday last as guest of Rev. and Mrs. Frank S. Cain at their home.

Miss Alice Walter, of Middletown, Del., is spending sometime as a guest of Miss Nellie Othoson.

Mr. Baldwin Weer is still suffering with a gathered ear.

Following will be the order of service in the Methodist Protestant Church on Sunday next, March 21st: Sunday school 9.30 a. m., preaching 10 30 a. m. and 7.45 p. m. by pastor, Rev. Frank S. Cain; Christian Endeavor 7.15 p. m,

A very important meeting of the members of the Worton Presbyterian church will take place on Sunday evening, March 21st. All who are interested in the life and continuation of this church are earnestly requested to be present. The absence of members from this meeting will be interpreted as an admission that they do not care whether the church lives or dies; that they desire to see the church close. Reports from the treasurer and financial secretary will be read.

It is hoped that all who have obligated themselves to support the Worton and Kennedyville Presbyterian Churches will fill such obligation in time for such to be embodied in the annual report which takes place the end of this month. Last year the pastor wrote a statement to each individual concerned; this year he is unable to do so. Will all, therefore, kindly accept this notice as personal.

Mr. Clews will preach next Sunday on "Some Hindrances to Christian Living."

GRANGE NOTES.

Owing to so much sickness in the families of a number of our members, Worton Grange had the poorest attendance on last Monday night in its history, only 19 members being present. However a very profitable and enjoyable meeting was held.

The usual routine of business was soon dispensed with and the lecturer programme was entered into with zest, and zeal. The programme opened with singing, Sift well the seed; Reading, The uses of sulphur by Sister Turner; Clipping, by Sister Lee; Reading, Back to the farm, by Sister Anna Jones; Reading, When to apply lime, by Bro James Lee, followed by a discussion on the subject by our worthly master. B. F. Rash and Bro. Harry Rash, of Fairlee; Clipping, by Sister Clark; Reading The Unspoken word, by Sister Blanche Loller; Singing, Be Faithful O Patron. As visitors we were pleased to have with us Bro. and sister Harry Rash, and Bro. and sister Fletcher of Fairlee Grange Sister Fletcher, who is some what of an orator recited a very amusing German piece, and Sister Rash in a few well chosen words told us how they enjoyed being with us, we then closed our meeting by singing the parting song in our grange Melodies, to meet next Monday night, March 22, at 8 o'clock.

Remember the hour, and be not late, for it has been changed from 7.30 to 8 o'clock, for your especial benefit, and by that time we hope that the sick in our midst will be so much improved that our normal attendance will again be restored.

A special meeting of Kennedyville Grange was held last Saturday afternoon with a most excellent attendance. The third and fourth degrees were given to four candidates by the Master Geo. W. Sutton. After the business session the meeting was made public and a number of visitors shared with the Grange members the interesting literary program prepared by the Lecturer, Mrs. Geo. W. Sutton.

The program opened with a reading by Miss Mabel Cleaver, entitled, "The Ever Faithful Few," which was much appreciated, followed by a solo by Miss Nellie Othoson, "It's a Long, Long Way to Tipperary" which was followed by a humorous selection by Miss Anna Melvin, entitled "The Blessings of a Forgittery," which was most delightfully rendered; Miss Lillian Cornelius read very entertainingly. The Lecturer asked of a number present, "Who would you rather be if you were not yourself?" and the answers given implied a blissful content with their own individuality, which seems to prove that Kent is the proverbial "garden spot" to produce such a satisfied state of mind.

The remainder of the afternoon and the early evening were spent in most enjoyable social intercourse, and in serving a most tempting and bountiful supper of which about ninety persons partook.

The Master and Lecturer have undertaken their work with much earnestness and we should have a most profitable and interesting year in our Grange work. The Lecturer is planning some interesting and helpful programs for the near future.

St. Patrick's Day was observed at Fairlee Grange on last Wednesday evening, readings, solos, duetts etc. were rendered in good old Irish style. Quite a number were present to enjoy the good programme. The next special meeting will be held next Wednesday, March 24. The usual progamme prepared by Lecturer Sister Acca Grew will be interesting and beneficial to all. The Garner will be edited by Sister Harvey Morris. A Special Supper committee will be in charge.
