LOCAL NOTES

The first home-grown strawberries of the season were brought to Chestertown Wednesday by Mr. John Robinson from across the river, and were on sale at Kirby's at 20 cents per quart. Mr. Polk Bramble picked ripe berries off his patch several days ago, but did not have enough for market.

In the publication of bids for Betterton school an injustice was done our local contractor, A. M. Culp, whose original bid was but a few hundred dollars less than the winner's, Mr. Lane. Mr. Lane the lowest bidder, reduced his bid owing to the change in plans so that the building will come within the means at hand, thus making Mr. Culp's bid look large compared to Mr. Lane's.

Kent County owners of Ford automobiles, who have purchased new machines since last August, are greatly interested in the reports from the factory concerning the number of cars being sold. It will be remembered that the Ford Company announced last year that if 300,000 cars were sold within the year there would be a substantial rebate amounting to from $40 to $60 to each purchaser of a new car. This number has been reached and $50 will be rebated to each owner.

The Centreville town commissioners have declared a tax rate of 77 cents. This rate is made up of the following items: For general town expenses, forty cents; for water tax, ten cents; for sewer tax, ten cents; for fire company, five cents; and for permanent roads, twelve cents.

Wool buyers are paying 23 cents per pound for wool. Good lambs are bringing $6 per head this week and are being shipped by the score every stock day.

The Town Improvement Association will meet in special session next Tuesday at 3 p. m., at the home of Mrs. W. B. Copper, on Washington avenue. Business of importance requires the attention of every member.

Prof. W. Travers, of M. A. C., will be glad to assist or give desired information to farmers for spraying tomato and potato plants as well as apples and other fruit. He has been over on Gen. Vandiver's farm and his work there speaks for itself. Prof. Travers' address is College Park, Md.

The big transit car of Graham, Clements & Sutton to be used on the Tolchester route has arrived and will be put on at once. It is a dandy and will comfortably seat 15 persons.

The tomato contracts are about all signed as follows: Broad Neck, $9.60; Still Pond, $9 50; Betterton, $9; Leary's Wharf, $8 10; Brown's Wharf, $8 40; Rock Hall, $8 40; Tolchester, $8.40; railroad, $8; Buck Neck, $7 80, etc.

The lecture on the Holy Land given in Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, Wednesday evening, by Rev. W. A. Melvin, of Washington, was an interesting, instructive and delightful treat. The church was well filled by an appreciative audience. Mrs. Melvin, who is favorably known here as Miss Minnie Peregoy, managed the lantern. These lectures are a labor of love and are being sought after by scores of churches.

It is reported that Mr. Clifton Jarrell will tenant the "home farm" next year and that Mr. Josiah Massey will remove to the Massey farm, near Chestertown. Mr. M has shown our neighbors how to raise big crops and he will be welcomed back to Kent.

The case of Thos. G. Wroth versus Walter Kendall for $200 due him from sale of hay, etc., removed from Kent, was tried in Centreville Court this week. The jury brought in a verdict of $19 in favor of Mr. Kendall! W. W. and S. Scott Beck and J. H. C. Legg appeared for Kendall and H. H. Barroll and T. J. Keating for Wroth.

Accidents.—Mr. Wm. Henry, foreman of the Enterprise, had his arm broken at the wrist, and Mr. Norman Peterson, a compositor of that office, was somewhat bruised and shaken up when the former's motorcycle skidded in the sand near Chesapeake City last Friday afternoon and threw them on the road. They were on their way to the W. C. and Delaware College game at Newark, Del., when the accident occurred. They walked to the home of Mr. A. E. Davidson, who summoned Dr. C. C. Laws, of Chesapeake City, who rendered medical attention.

Master Linden Stafford while playing on the Avenue hill fell and broke a bone in his knee Tuesday. Dr. Simmons attended him. The break is quite unusual and requires careful nursing. Linden is a popular little man and has the sympathy of a host of friends.

FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

It is reported that there will be four nice homes erected on Mt. Vernon Ave. this year and one of them is already engaged. This will make one of the fine avenues in town.

Next Tuesday evening the Choral Association of Chestertown will give their second musical festival. The selections include religious, classical and humorous music and rendered by the first Community Club in the United States, as far as can be learned. The admission is put at only 35 cents so that all can enjoy same. See adv. in another column.

The wedding of Mr. John Richards and Miss Jane McRochester, both of Church Hill, took place Thursday morning, Dr. G. Manley Sharpe officiating. The groom will be remembered as the excellent character of Mordecai in Queen Esther while the bride was one of the attractive attendants of Zeresh.

The Baccalaureate sermon before the Chestertown High School graduates will be preached by Dr. W. R Graham in Christ M. P. Church on Sunday, June 6th. The College exercises begin Sunday, June 13th.

Autographic Kodak

The Autographic Records are made on the margins between the exposures.

It is not intended that they be made to appear in the prints themselves but that they be simply preserved as an authoritative reference. It is obvious, however, that they may be shown on the print itself, if desired.

It is the Kodak Wonder of the age. Call and let us show you the simplicity of it.
