MILLINGTON

Asbury M. E. Sunday-school is rehearsing for its Children's Day service, which it expects to hold Sunday evening, May 30th.

Miss Marguerite Ahern spent a few days last week with friends in Wilmington, Del.

Mrs. Annie Price returned home Friday of last week after spending two weeks with relatives at Kennedyville.

Services to-morrow, May 16th, at Asbury M. E. Church, will be as follows: 10.30 a. m., preaching by the pastor, Rev. G P. Smith; 2.30 p. m., Sunday-school, subject, "David Spares Saul"; 8 p. m., preaching by the pastor; Thursday, 8 p. m., Young People's service; Friday, 8 p. m., prayer-meeting.

Mrs. William Legg, of near town, and Mrs. F. C. Numbers attended the State Convention of the Daughters of America, which was held in Baltimore on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week Mrs. Legg was a representative of Golt Council No. 78, and Mrs Numbers a representative of Millington Council No. 80.

Mrs. Philip H. Wood, Jr., of Wilmington, Del., is visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs. J. P. Ahern.

Mr Edgar Painter, of the Post Artillery, Fort Delaware, was the guest last Sunday of his cousin, Mr. Paul C. Price.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society of Asbury M. E. Church will meet next Thursday evening, May 20th, at the home of Mrs. C. M. Hurtt.

Mrs. Marowitz returned last Sunday to her home in Baltimore, after spending a couple of weeks with her daughter. Mrs. I. Hollins.

The P. O. S. of A. attended services three times last Sunday—the Asbury M. E. in the morning, the Trinity M. E. South in the afternoon and the Holy Cross Chapel in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Vansant, of Wilmington, Del., visited his mother, Mrs. Mary Vansant, last Monday.

Millington was a scene of gaiety and activity on Saturday last, as we had two shows here, one being Hunt's circus and the other Whitmore's Medicine Co., besides two games of base ball, and we are glad to note that our boys came out victorious by winning both games.

STILL POND

Mrs. Wm. Wilmore and little daughter have returned to their home in Baltimore after spending a few days with aunt, Mrs. Charles Toulson.

Mr. and Mrs. Burhman and interesting little daughter from Baltimore spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stanley.

Mrs. Newton Kelley and son from Baltimore, is visiting her father, Mr. John Robinson.

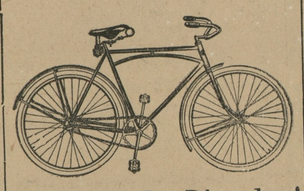

Mrs. L. B. Harper, who has been quite sick, we are glad to report is better at this writing.

The baseba l team from here went to Double Creek, last Saturday afternoon and defeated the fast and strong team of that place. D. C. had been boasting that they were the only team in the county who had not been beaten this season. "But," when our boys with Thompson and Jones as batteries got through with them the score stood 9 to 5 in favor of Still Pond.

The Still Pond public school team defeated Locust Grove on the former's diamond by the score of 23 to 5 on Saturday last. Batteries for Still Pond, Taylor and Jones, Locust Grove, Freemond, Gary and Vandyke.

Last week's paper stated Miss Sara Pennington was visiting at home while Drexel Institute is under quarantine. This is a mistake as the school is not under quarantine.

A special program was presented in Christ Church Sunday School in observance of "Mother's Day," which was enjoyed by a large company. The exercises were in charge of Mr. Robt. Huev's class of young men and included: Opening chorns; prayer, by Mr. Frank Elburn; introductory remarks, Mr. Huey; recitation, Dorothy Woodall; reading, Mrs. Harry Cannan, accon p nied by a solo by Miss Flora Wheatley; essay, by Lewin F. Howard; solo, by Mrs. Wm. Spielberger; reading, Russell Wheatley; singing by primary class and closing with doxology, as follows:

Praise God for Mother, Home and Love.
Praise Him for Bible from above,
Praise Him for Church and Country dear,
Praise Him for Christ throughout the year.

Then followed the monthly missionary meeting, at which the class taught by Miss Mamie Thompson won the banner, which was presented by Dr. W. R. Graham in well chosen words. The total collection was over $30. After the Sunday school session the class of young ladies taught by Miss Thompson carried the flowers used at the Mother's Day services to sixteen different ladies and others unable to be present.

The following officers of the Juvenile Home Missionary Society of Christ M. P. Church were elected Sunday:
