PRACTICAL PERTINENT POINTERS

One secret of our success lies in the fact that we never sacrifice one desirable quality to another. We aim at a splendidly balanced whole. This Bank is safe and modern in every respect. Nothing is more important than these two qualities and all that they imply. But in addition, unfailing courtesy is our invariable rule.

So make our bank your permanent ally—in other words, your best friend.

"WICOMICO NEWS" GIVES JUST ESTIMATE

Of Honorable Emerson C. Harrington, The "Unbossed Office Holder."

In view of the candidacy of the Hon. Emerson C. Harrington for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, we publish below a glowing tribute paid to, and a just estimate of him which appeared in the columns of our esteemed contemporary The Wicomico News in its issue of September 17th, of last fall.

Mr. Harrington being a candidate before the people this year, our voters are entitled to know all about him, so that they may know the type of man, his political ideals, ability and character before deciding upon whom to support.

The article quoted below being a fair estimate of Mr. Harrington by one who evidently knows him well, is worth reading and re-reading, and the democratic voters of this county would do well to heed advice to be found therein.

The article referred to is as follows:

Will Be Candidate For Governor 1915

WILL PROBABLY BE EASTERN SHORE CANDIDATE

Is Known as One of Best Political Fighters in State—Has Made Good in Every Office He Has Ever Filled. An Unbossed Office-Holder.

Hon. Emerson C. Harrington, Comptroller of the Treasury, and probable Democratic candidate for Governor next year was in Salisbury this week attending court. It has been rumored for some time that Mr. Harrington would be a candidate for Governor next year and that he would have the Eastern Shore behind him in this fight. It is now settled and that his platform will be his record in public life from the time he was elected State's Attorney for Dorchester county.

Mr. Harrington has filled several important offices in the past few years. He was appointed Insurance Commissioner by the late Governor Crothers and filled the office very acceptably. Later he became the candidate of the Democratic Party for Comptroller in the memorable fight of 1911, and while the candidate for Governor was defeated, Mr. Harrington won out by more than 13,000 plurality, showing his great popnlarity with the voters of the State.

He was re-elected Comptroller last year and his conduct of the office and as a member of the Board of Public Works has been all which could be asked for from a Democratic standpoint. He has made good in both places. He has shown his independence as a member of the Board of Public Works and has stood for first-class appointments and a strict compliance with the rules governing the various offices at the disposal of this important board. Mr. Harrington belongs to that class of Democrats which recognizes no Boss and which believes in giving the people the right kind of administration at all times, believing that the best interests of the Democratic Party can be served by placing competent men in office without regard to political pull from the Bosses.

There are some indications that Mr. Harrington will enter the primaries with a good chance of having a majority of the nine counties on the Eastern Shore behind him. Should this prove to be the case he will be a hard candidate to beat. No other candidate in the party will have as many votes if these reports prove to be true. Mr. Harrington stands well in Western and Southern Maryland and his friends say he should stand as good a chance in Baltimore as any other candidate outside the city and should there be two candidates in the field from Baltimore City that Mr. Harrington would split the vote with them there thus giving him even a better chance for the nomination than any other candidate in the field.

Mr. Harrington is recognized as one of the best political generals in the State. He is a past master in the art of politics and is said to play the game straight at all times and to have the reputation of being square and strictly honorable. He will make a foeman worthy of any man's steel and if nominated would make a hustling campaign from one end of the State to the other."
