THE people are demanding a right to vote on the question of Prohibition, says John E. George, of Queen Anne's, and other leaders are seeing the signs of the times and declaring for this great principle.

ROCK HALL

The R. C. Festival and Supper on Saturday night had the appearance of being a record breaker in crowds, attractiveness and otherwise.

There seems to be some soreness concerning the organization of the Watermen's Association, and talk at the gathering. This is deplorable, as quite a number had intended to become members, but will now stand aloof.

The old political pot has got beyond the simmering stage down this way. Candidates Turner and Dodd were among us Saturday night and were greeted by lots of loyal supporters and acquisitions to the organization forces. The candidates showed beaming pleasure over the surety of their coming election in the primary. Messrs. Dodd and Hadaway, opposing candidates for the Clerkship, indulged in pleasantries on Saturday night by engaging in a drawing contest as indicative of their success at the polls next September. Mr. Dodd won out. Other candidates were on hand and mingled with the voters freely.

The mass meeting here this evening promises to be a record-breaker. Every voter should be present and hear the next Governor, Hon. Emerson C. Harrington. He, or some of the other prominent speakers of the evening, have surprises up their sleeve to be handed out, so it is reported.

Mrs. J. J. Blackiston, who has been ill for sometime, continues in a precarious condition.

Elder R. T. Baer and wife paid their farewell visit here last week. He has been transfered to the S. D. A. Conference in South America. He is now on a visit to his parents in the West, after which he will take passage from New York to his new assignment. Mr. Baer is a splendid specimen of the christian gentlemen and gospel minister, and many here regret his transfer.

Mrs. A. P. Levey and son, Rulon, returned to their home in Baltimore last Monday.

Rev. R. L. Kirby, like another of the peninsula preachers not many miles from here, found he could not properly feed his flock without a help-mate, so again embarked on a matrimonial trip. Congratulations, Robert. May your future be "one long sweet song." But don't forget the folks back home. Call in when you can.

Rev. Jesse Bicknell, of St. Paul's P. E Church, Baltimore, is recuperating at Capt. Franklin Akers after a severe illness.

Rev. Frank Hay Staples, of Old St. Paul's, Baltimore, John Rodenhi and Harry Stewart are enjoying their vacation at Capt. Franklin Akers'.

Quite a number of people attended the wedding of Mr. Joseph Gagalski and Miss Stella Cornelius in the Catholic Church last Saturday evening.

The ladies of Chesterville M. E. Church, South, will hold a festival on the church lawn, Saturday evening, June 19th, 1915. The public invited.

The special meeting which was to have been held last Sunday at Worton Presbyterian Church will be held next Sunday, June 20th. All invited members will please attend as the business is very important.

Children's Day exercises at Union Church Sunday morning at 10 o'clock. An interesting program is in waiting.

Union Methodist Episcopal Church was reopened last Sunday with raptured success. Dr. John H. Beauchamp, pastor of Perryville Meth. Epis. Church, held the chalk for $400 needed. In response to his tender but urgent appeal $440 were soon marshalled in good subscriptions. The evening service was recalled. Rev. John W. Prettyman, a former pastor, to whom we are also indebted, stood by like a brave admiral to the last. We beg to record our heartfelt thanks to Drs. Beauchamp and Prettyman for their peerless service; the splendid men and women who left field and fold, and got under the burden; the enchanting quartettes of Sudlersville and Crumpton; last but not least the liberal doners whom we shall always cherish.
