Personal and Social

We are glad to report R. Hynson Rogers, Esq., as greatly improved. A singular incident in connection with his case is told. A sample of his blood was sent to the labratory for examination and when the report came it showed puss evidencing blood poison of a most serious character! Dr. Brown, his physician, made a further examination, and discovered that the report was on the blood of another patient who died the next day. Mr. Rogers' test proved satisfactory and his case was diagnosed as erysipelas.

Mr. and Mrs. Loud, of Baltimore, are guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank B. Hines, in Chestertown.

LOCAL teams have drawn on Chestertown talent frequently for help. Mr. Edw. Blackway, played with the Middletown, Del., baseball team Saturday, while Mr. Merritt Brown played with Sudlersville. Jack Enright, the Washington College twirler, who left here early in June for Texas, is now with the Easton Club. Coach Kibler knocked two homers, and a double with the bases filled in the ninth inning—which won the game for Easton—in their game with St. Michaels last week. The score was 7 to 5. In the baseball game on Thursday at Easton with St. Michaels, Enright pitched a great game for Easton winning by score of 13 to 0. Tom Kibler is putting up a wonderful game as captain and manager for Easton. Home-run Baker played third for Easton. Number of Chestertown people were present. Washington College players are doing good work for both St. Michael's and Easton.

The Chesterown Fair comes on the 27, 28, 29 and 30th, of this month. Save a little back to call on the firm of Bordley & sons, who have something interesting in this issue that you should see and notice on Page 5.
