THE BIG FAIR

Fine Racing Program—Running Races Each Day—Beginning on July 27 and Holding Till July 30.

The annual Kent and Queen Anne's county fair this year promises to be a big event.

The officials are at work on a fine racing program, which in addition to the usual trotting and pacing races, will consist of a running race each day.

The Fair Grounds have recently been put in fine shape. All the buildings have been beautified by white wash, while 30 new stalls have been added.

Forty horses from Baltimore will take part in the running races.

No poultry exhibit will be held this year.

The following received the privileges at the Fair Grounds:

John S. Vandegrift, dining room, hot sausage, cigars, tobacco and hot coffee.

Chestertown Candy Kitchen, soft drinks and ice cream.

Harry Hodgkin, popcorn, candy and fruit.

T. T. Horn, peanuts.

T. B. Elliott, dairy lunch, milk, pies and sandwiches.

The following will have exhibits at the Fair Grounds:

Howard Harper, Still Pond, Oldsmobile.

W. H. Reynoleds, Townsend, Studebaker.

J. H. Clendaniel, Jr., Kennedyville, Overland.

Davis & Satterfield, Chestertown, farming implements.

A. S. Turner, Worton, farming implements.

Graham & Thomas, Chestertown, farming implements.

C. C. Baurercamper, Chestertown, farming implements.

T. B. Kilbourn, Fairlee, farming implements.

H. D Orem will have the Bull Tractor and Universal Tractor on exhibit.

PINEY NECK

MILLINGTON

Mrs. S. C. Dudley, of Church Hill, was the guest this week of her son, Mr. C. B. Dudley.

Mrs. J. P. Ahern and Mrs. P. H. Wood, Jr., spent a few days last week in Baltimore, and while there attended the funeral of the former's sister, Mrs. Elma Lewis.

Mrs. R. C. Stevens and son, Graham, returned home last Saturday, after spending two weeks at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Bertha Sturdevant, of Wilmington, has rented Mrs. Kate Tonkin's house on West Cypress street and will remove to same at once.

Mrs. W. I. Jarvis was taken to the St. Agnes Hospital, Baltimore, last Tuesday to be operated on for appendicitis. She was accompanied by her husband and Dr. Merritt Brice.

Rev. Warren L. Steeves, a Chautauqua lecturer, will preach at Asbury M. E. Church to-morrow, July 18th at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., and at Trinity M. E Church, South, at 3 p m. He will also give a lecture in Comegy's Hall on Monday evening, July 19th, at 8 p. m. Admission 25c.

Rev. and Mrs. G. P. Smith are spending ten days at Rehoboth.

Mr. K. R. Pfeffer, of Reisterstown, and Miss Blanche S. Godwin, of Philadelphia, are visiting at the home of the latter's aunt, Mrs. F. C. Numbers.

Mrs. Eva W. Porter and three children, Eugene, Esther and Millard were guests last week of relatives and friends in Clayton.

Miss Bowman, of Aberdeen, visited her brother, Mr. Martin Bowman, this week.

Mrs. Philip H. Wood, Jr., returned last Tuesday to her home in Wilmington, after spending two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Ahern.

FAIRLEE

The ladies of Fairlee M. E. Church held a very enjoyable reception on Saturday evening at the parsonage in honor of Miss Annie Bramble of Va. A musical and literary program was rendered and a social hour was enjoyed by a large number.

Rev. Leonard White and family have returned home after spending two weeks with his father, Rev. John White.

Mr. J. Edwin Strong and family of Wilmington spent the week end at the parsonage.

Mrs. John C. Strong and two sons of Wilmington are visiting the parsonage.

Mrs. Louisa Legg has gone to the Blue Ridge mountains for the summer.

Mrs. Morris Bramble and son are spending the week at Blue Ridge Summit.

Mr. E. J. Watson, near Tolehester, got an average of 22 bushels per acre from his wheat yield.

42 bushels of wheat per acre from a field containing 4.83 acres was gotten by Mr. R. G. Nicholson, near Chestertown.

Threshing is now in progress in Cecil County, and the yield is disappointly small. We have heard of no good crops, and the ones that have been reported show an average of only 40 to 60 per cent of last year's crop. Some yields are amazingly low. A gentleman from the First District told the NEWS man yesterday that the yeild in that section is only from 5 to 18 bushels per acre—News.

LOWER KENT ITEMS

Last Sunday's service at the M. E. Church was specially interesting. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Prettyman, was at his best in the delivery of a direct message from the Great Head of the Church. His subject was, "Religion a failure when operated by those with 'profession without possession,' or with 'possession without confession,' but never a failure when prosecuted with zealous christian activity from start to finish." The choir work was also inspiring. A large assembly were amply paid for their braving the heat and dust of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Downey, of Baltimore, are enjoying a short stay at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Downey.

Mr. J. W. Fogwell, of up county, was a Sunday visitor among friends here.

A splendid picture of Mr. C. L. Dodd has been generously distributed in this section. Many recipients have framed the picture and hung it in their homes. Many on Sunday last wore the picture on the lapels of their coats or waists as they passed through here. The ladies seem to be specially pleased with the picture, and if their male relatives and friends don't vote for the genial Mr. Dodd they will know the reason why.

The Attorney's office opened here last Saturday looks suspicious to not a few of our people. Nevertheless the unterrified Organizationists are getting lots of fun out of the incident. One prominent old Guard declares he is the office clerk and notwithstanding the arduous work of writing from 200 to 600 letters of an evening, he is enjoying his job. Some of the "O. G." want the State's Attorney to open up an office here, but Harry says he "can't spell able." Whereupon the O. G.'s offered to rig an auto with a house on it for his use, but he says he can win without such appendage.

Our threshermen report wheat turning out poorly. Watermen, too, are finding fish and crabs very scarce this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wearer, of Baltimore, are spending Mr. Wearer's vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hayes.

Mrs. Harry Sinclair and little daughter, Virginia, are spending several weeks with Mrs. Sinclair's father, Mr. Fithian.

Mr. Blank and family, of Baltimore, are spending the summer with Mr. Blank's brother, Mr. A. Stein.

Mr. Frank Puppe has his house nearly finished and is quite a handsome residence.

The heavy rain after the long drough that came on last Sunday was most welcome.

The R. H. Sunday school together with the Salem S. S, held their annual picnic at Annapolis and Chesapeake Beach on Wednesday. The day was an ideal one and a large crowd attended.

Wesley Chapel held its Sunday school picnic at Tolchester Beach yesterday, Friday.

Mr. Nelson Stevens and family are at their country home for the summer.

Mr. Walter Hadaway lost a valuable young cow this week, it became choked on peaches, which they were unable to remove, the cow finally suffocated.

Miss Ida Frazier, daughter of Mrs. Frazier, of near Rock Hall and Mr. James Blackiston were quietly married at the M. E. Parsonage by the Rev. J. W. Prettyman on Saturday evening, July 3rd.

The bride wore a white gown and carried lovely flowers. The groom wore the conventional black. The happy couple will reside with Mrs. Frazier. Congratulations.

Mr. L. Milton Jones and family, of Baltimore, are at Vemmeer, their country home, for the summer.

CHURCH NOTES.

Sunday was missionary day in Christ Church Sunday School. Miss Mamie Thompson's class won the banner which was presented by Mr. W. A. Wheatley. A feature of the singing was a fine baritone solo by Mr. J. Hydie Thompson.

One of the "orators" at the 4th of July service in Christ Church was Master Harry Followfield, a manly speaker.

Rev. F. D. Reynolds, of Waverly, occupied the pulpit in Christ Church Sunday in a most acceptable manner. Mr. C. N. Satterfield had charge of the young people's service at night to which there was a fine attendance not with standing the rain.

Chestertown M. E. Church Rev. Louis E. Barrett, D. D., Pastor. Services next Sunday, July 18th, as follows: 10.30 a. m. preaching by the pastor: 9.30 a. m. Sabbath School and Pastor's Bible Class: 6 30 p. m. on the Church Green Epworth League Song Service, followed by brief sermon by the Pastor. All invited.

Rev. J. Franklin Bryan, a native Kent countian, will fill the pulpit of Christ M. P. Church Sunday, July 18th.

STILL POND

Miss Elnora Ross, of Seaford, Del., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bowers.

Miss Edna Wroth has returned home, after visiting friends and relatives in Baltimore, Md., Rome, Georgia and Wolf City, Texas. Miss Wroth had a delightful trip, and speaks very highly of Southern hospitality.

Mrs. Wm. T. Stanley has returned home, after spending some time with her son, Mr. Price Stanley at Delaware City, Del.

Miss Minnie Medders and niece Miss Dorothy Medders, spent a few days this past week in Baltimore.

Miss Jennie Bowers is visiting her many friends at Savage, Md.

Miss Ann Walters is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Grey, in Baltimore.

Miss Ruth Baxter is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Bell in Baltimore.

KILLED IN POWDER WORKS

Foreman In Du Pont Mills Is Badly Injured.—Some of Kent's Boys Come Home.

Harry Caizer, of Kirkwood, Del., died at a hospital Wednesday morning from burns received in an explosion of green powder at the Henry Clay plant of the Du Pont Powder Company near Wilmington Tuesday night. Daniel Toomey, foreman of the plant, was seriously burned. No cause is known for the explosion.

Mr. John G. Westcott, of Chestertown, was to have gone to work in Caizer's place but for some reason did not arrive to take his turn and thus his life was saved.

Several young men from Chestertown working in this mill decided to return home. Others, however, decided to stick it out at $90 per month.
