MR. HARRINGTON ASKS QUESTIONS

Wants To Know Why Mr. Lee Is Anxious To Quit Senate.

"Our good Democratic friends, who were advocating my friend, Blair Lee, for nomination for Governor, are asking us questions," said Emerson C. Harrington, candidate for Democratic nomination for Governor, in a speech at the Patterson Democratic Club, Baltimore, Wednesday night. "Now I want to ask Mr. Lee a question:

"Why are you so anxious to quit the United States Senate and become Governor of Maryland?"

"Why are you willing to desert the President of the United States in these days of peril, when he needs your support in the Senate and the support of every American citizen?"

"Did you not plead for the election to the Senate two years ago because you were a personal and strong political friend of President Wilson?"

Distinguished Visitors in Town.—The Board of Directors of the Southern States and Atlantic Mutual Fire Insurance Companies of Philadelphia, who have offices at 921-925 Chestnut Street, held their July or mid-summer Directors Meeting at the home of Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard on Thursday, July 22nd, he having been on the Board of Directors of the above Companies for the past several years.

The gentlemen came by special train to Elkton, where they were met by automobiles and brought to Chestertown and after dining at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard, the business meeting was held and the party returned home by moon-light after having visited old St. Paul's and a number of historical points of interest in our County.

The Officers and Directors of the Companies were as follows:

Frederick A. Downes, Philadelphia, President of both Companies.
G. C. Hobson, Philadelphia, Secretary.
I. W. Haskell, New York, of the Southern Cotton Oil Co.
A. Franconi, New York, of the Standard Oil Company
Guy H. Rodman, Chicago New Orleans Acid and Fert Company.
W. A. Witherspoon, Richmond, of the Virginia C. C. Co.
E. E. I. Tesrier, London Representative, Virginia C. C. Co.
H. C. Cornwall, New York, of the Industrial Cotton Oil Co.
W. S. Royster, Baltimore, Rovster Guano Co.
Frank R. Scott, Elkton, of the Scott Fertilizer Company.
