STORM AT TOLCHESTER

Lightning played havoc at Tolchester late Monday afternoon just after the storm broke. One of the small grovehouses was struck. A Baltimore woman, with a child, was sitting in the house when the bolt caused it to crash. Falling timbers injured her so seriously that physicians who were called from a nearby township refused to allow her to return to twe city.

Falling trees caused damage to racer dip and badly damaged the bowling alleys.

Windows in Mr. C. D. Wood's home on Lusby farm were riddled with hail and 35 window panes broken. Corn in that section was broken off and damaged severely.

ROCK HALL

Mrs. A. Alexander is on a two weeks stay at Atlantic City and is enjoying a daily dip in the briny ocean, the effect of which is making her feel as fine as silk.

Mr. Harry Carter and two sons were taken to the hospital this week. They are victims of typhoid fever.

Mr, John Diehl lost a horse a few days ago from paralysis of the back.

Mr. Guss Harding has a horse in similar condition. The horse has been in a sling for some time but is quite hearty.

Several storms have visited this and nearby sections during the week doing considerable damage to trees and crops. A portion of the gable end of the new High School building was torn away.

The tomato cannery started up this week.

A Curiosity.—A car full of white potatoes was brought to the NEWS office this week by Mr. Harry C. Lake, of Rock Hall. This car was dug up by Mr. Lake in his potato patch and in it a potato had grown as large as possible without bursting the side of the car.

THE Kennedyville Grange will hold a special meeting on Monday evening next, Auguest 16th. A full attendance is urged.
