LITTLE BOY RUN OVER

An accident happened in the village of Kennedyville on Thursday morning. William Urie, son of Dr. and Mrs. James W. Urie, was riding in a dearborn and fell to the State road, striking on his head and cutting it quite badly; the dearborn also ran over him across the neck and breast.

He was picked up unconscious and carried into the home of his parents, where his father began working on him immediately, soon restoring him to consciousness, and so far he is unable to tell just how seriously he is hurt, but finds there are no bones broken. Whether he is hurt internally or not cannot be decided at this early writing. LATER—The little boy's injuries do not seem to be serious.

JAMES W. CHAPMAN, JR. APPOINTED

Member of Baltimore City School Board—A Fine Appointment And Unsought.

It is with special pride the NEWS announces the appointment of James W. Chapman, Jr., Esq., as a member of the School Board, of Baltimore City, by Mayor Preston. This position came entirely unsought by Mr. Chapman and is quite a compliment in many ways.

The appointee is well known in Kent being the son of Mr. James W. Chapman, of Chestertown. His rise in the world has been on merit and his honors well deserved. He has always felt a keen interest in the public schools and feels that he owes a great deal to them. He graduated at Chestertown High School, from Washington College, and John Hopkins University and has degrees A. M., L. L. B., Ph. D., thus fitting him in an especial manner for the duties upon which he enters. The Mayor has made a wise choice and the chosen will make a splendid man for the place. It is such appointments which raise the standard of positions. There is no pay connected with this place.

SCHOOL NOTES

As stated last week the public schools in Kent will reopen Monday, Sept. 13.

Miss Helen Comstock, of Cornell, has been appointed year worker in extension work and will take up the canning club feature at once.

Miss Edith Collison's appointment at Lankford has been confirmed.

Miss Bessie Jewell has resigned as teacher at Piney Neck and Miss Daisy Patrick named.

Miss Miriam Leaverton, the splendid teacher of primary class, in Chestertown, has been granted a leave of absence for a year and Miss Ida Smith appointed substitute.

Scholarships were named Tuesday as follows: State Normal — Marguerite Hersch, Blanche Scotten, Eloise Wilkins, Isabel Jones; St Mary's Seminary—Elizabeth Brice. Applications will be received by the School Board for vacancies at Charlotte Hall and Md. Institute.

Horse Notes.—Twinkle March, now owned by Mr. Holt Woodall, has been going to the front at the county fairs, winning second money or better.

Mr. Thos. Matthews has purchased from Mr. Bedford Titter his promising pacer, J. K., record 2.20½. He will be raced at Salisbury and Cambridge by Mr. E. H. Johnson.

Mr. Wm. T. H. Whiteley has traded his valuable pacer, Billy Hailthorpe, to Mr. Enoch H. Johnson, for Vollie J., a fine young bay pacing mare, and a money consideration.

Nancy Hanks, 2.04 champion trotter from 1892 to 1894, died on Monday at Hamburg Place, Ky., the estate of J. E. Madden, who purchased the horse several years ago to pension her until death. Nancy Hanks was foaled in 1886.

THE Bell lot next door to Mrs. George Bell's on Queen street, has been purchased by MRS. FRANK E. DUYER.

THERE will be no reserved seats at the Chestertown Chautauqua events. The first come will have the choice of any seats.

Announcements have been received in this section of the marriage of Miss Nora Rabbitt, daughter of Mrs. William Henry Rabbitt, of Washington, D. C., to Mr Jacob Thomas Shallcross, of that city, formerly of Sassafras, Md., in that city on Wednesday, August 11th.

"Out of the Chrysalis"

A STORY FOR ALL THE YEAR.

By MINNIE E. HICKS.

This is a story for Christmas, because, with the angels' song upon the plains of Bethlehem, was struck the opening chord of the never-ending anthem of Redemption; it is a story for Easter, because it was then that Christ himself showed the way through the darkness of the tomb into the glory of the resurrection; it is a story for all the year, because, during every one of the three hundred and sixty five days, there comes to each heart some thrill of hope, some aspiration towards better things, some longing to be and to do more,—all of which are but God's way of telling man that the soul is immortal. Copies of this booklet can be had at the Maryland Workshop for the Blind, 501 West Fayette Street, Baltimore, Md., or from Minnie E. Hicks, Chestertown, Md. Price 15 cts. a21 4
