FLORIAN VARKONY AS CASPAR IN "DER FREISCHUTZ."

STRONG MUSICAL TRIO.

The Varkony-Hines Company, on the sixth day of our Chautauqua, is one of the strongest trios in Chautauqua work. Florian Varkony, Gabriel Hines and Miss Elizabeth Oliver are all three artists.

Florian Varkony won fame as bass-baritone at the Budapest Royal Opera House, where he sang for three years. He was born in Austria-Hungary, and his first appearance in "Carmen" in Budapest won him the praise of the critics. Since coming to America Mr. Varkony has achieved a triumph with his grand opera selections.

One of the best pianists before the public is Gabriel Hines, a musical genius who won the second prize of $1,500 offered by the directors of the Panama-Pacific Exposition for the best American opera. His opera is called "The Voyage of the Pilgrims" and traces the course of national development westward from the landing of the pilgrims until the opening of the great exposition.

The third member of this talented trio is Miss Elizabeth Oliver, a soprano with a pleasing voice. She is also a trained reader, and their programs will be interspersed with several selections of this kind.

MISS ELIZABETH OLIVER, FLORIAN VARKONY AND GABRIEL HINES.

CHAUTAUQUA AND CHILDREN.

This year the Chautauqua Association announces that it has adopted a definite rule for children. It has been decided that no child unaccompanied by an adult will be permitted to sit nearer the front than the eighth or ninth row. Neither will adults unaccompanied by children be permitted to occupy the front rows, except in the case of the aged or infirm. It is expected that one adult will not accompany more than four or five children. It is believed that this rule will be warmly approved by all, as it is fair to both adults and children.

A WORD FOR MOTHERS

It is a grave mistake for mothers to neglect their aches and pains and suffer in silence—this only leads to chronic sickness and often shortens life.

If your work is tiring; if your nerves are excitable; if you feel languid, weary or depressed, you should know that Scott's Emulsion overcomes just such conditions.

It possesses in concentrated form the very elements to invigorate the blood, strengthen the tissues, nourish the nerves and build strength.

Scott's is strengthening thousands of mothers—and will help you. No alcohol.
