SATURDAY, AUGUST 21, 1915.

The Organization in Kent are the friends of the watermen and have always diligently looked after their rights and interests.

WHEW! Mr. Barroll says he spent $14,000 in politics during his tenure as Boss! What for, Boss? Where did it go?

MR. A. PARKS RASIN, cashier of the Peoples Bank of Chestertown, Md., has filed papers with the Supervisors of Election as a candidate for Clerk of the Circuit Court subject to the Republican Primary.

FROM every precinct in Kent comes the cheering news that the people are lining up against Barrollism. The indications all show that the Organization will win in every precinct, with but two exceptions. If Mr. Barroll will keep up his abuse on the stump these two may get in line!

THE Republicans in Kent will have an interesting primary from present indications. Already Messrs. Weller and Warburton have filed papers for governorship as has Duer and MacKlin for Comptroller. In local politics Police Justice Virgil Kendall has thrown the gauntlet to the "Powers that Be." Judge Kendall aspires to be a member of the State Central Committee. A meeting of Republicans is called for today to "suggest" names for various places.

IF the voters of Kent desire to see a Republican fill part of the term of Treasurer S. G. Caldwell they will vote for Mr. Caldwell for Register of Wills. If the voters prefer a Democrat to fill out this term, then be sure and vote for Mr. George W. Sutton for Register of Wills.

Mr. Caldwell is now treasurer and his term will not expire until June, 1916 If he is nominated and elected Register of Wills he will have to resign the treasureship and Gov. Goldsboro will name his successor. There is no necessity for this if the Democrats will nominate Mr. Sutton. Why not? Mr. Sutton is fitted in every way to fill the position, intelligent and honest, a tenant farmer and granger, a Democrat and a worker in the ranks of his party under all circumstances.

IN linking up the new road system of Maryland with new bridges, the state commission estimates that over $1,000,000 will be needed. The new bridges are considered necessary, as the present structures are either unsafe or are approaching that condition.

Among the new bridges desired on the Shore and their respective costs are the following:

Synepuxent Bay, at Ocean City, $75,000.

Pocomoke River, at Pocomoke City, $60,000.

Chester River at Chestertown, $100,000.

Nanticoke River, at Vienna, $200,000.

Bohemian River. $100,000.

Sassafras River, $50,000.

At Chesapeake City, $50,000.

Elk River, $50,000.

WHAT THE CANDIDATES WILL HAVE TO DO

Certificates Of Candidacy Must Be Filed With Supervisors—Time Is Twenty Days Prior To The Primary Election.

Local candidates in Kent county will have to think of filing their papers with the Election Supervisors. Under the Primary Election Law all candidates must secure from the Supervisors of Elections a proper blank and fill out according to law. These certificates must be properly sworn to and filed with the Supervisors not less then twenty days before the day of the primaries, being August 24. All offices which pay more than three hundred dollars the fee shall be $25 00. Such offices as State Central Committeemen, Delegates to the State Convention and precinct executives pay no fee as there is no remuneration attached to such offices. In this county the candidates for Clerk, Senator, Register of Wills, House of Delegates, Sheriff, County Treasurer, County Commissioner must post with his papers $25.

When the full list is in the Supervisors will cause the list to be printed alphabetically in the newspapers at least eight days before the day of the primaries.

The Corrupt Practices Act governs the Primary Election the same as the general election, and the same laws about soliciting votes within one hundred feet of the polls and all other requirements of the general elections.

Candidates for the State Convention and for the Democrat State Central Committee must file their papers the same as other candidates. If there are not more candidates filed for these offices than the number to be selected then there is no reason to print the name of the candidates on the official ballot. This is also true of any other county office.

THE Republicans are preparing to line up a strong ticket this fall. Such men as A. Parks Rasin, Jos. Mallalieu, Henry Brown, Chas. N Satterfield, Robert R Hill, T. H. M. Bramble, Wm. E. Owens, Capt. James Wilson, Col. W. J. Vannort and others are being mentioned for places on the ticket.

KENT COUNTY'S REPRESENTATIVES IN 1914

Played An Important Part In Legislature—Senator Beck Champion of The Farmers And Watermen

The NEWS points with pride to the men sent to the Legislature from Kent in 1914. In the summing up of their work we find the following from the files of this paper:

Kent county had a strong delegation in the Legislature and they were recognized as such by their fellows.

Senator Beck was a leader in all the work of the session and Kent is proud to have had such a man at Annapolis. He was a credit to his party, to his county and to his State.

Messrs. Turner and Shallcross were faithful and true to every trust and never missed a roll call.

These men were enabled to get for Kent nearly everything asked for.

First, they got the road from Chestertown to Rock Hall, work on same being advertised in this paper to be awarded April 21st. The distance first contracted for is 5.40 miles and goes as far as Fairlee.

Next comes the Shepherd Bill which gives to the oystermen full protection of all natural bars. This was surely a great victory for Kent's large class of men viz, the fishermen.

Then comes the purse net bill which was fought for night and day by Senator Beck and finally passed.

Then every good temperance citizen will rejoice at the passage of an anti-shipping bill. This bill applies to all nine counties on the Shore. It limits the quantity received in any one month to one gallon of whiskey or 72 bottles of beer. A record is kept by all carriers and same returned monthly to Sheriff and Clerk of Court. It was asked for by a meeting of the temperance people of Kent.

The county gets $2,400 for its school fund through the alertness of our representatives.

School bills, town bills and other local matters of minor importance were looked after.

The biggest "plum" gotten by Kent was the appointment of Lewin W. Wickes, Esq., as a member of the Tax Commission, reference to which is made in another article. Mr. Wickes is capable, industrious and faithful and has been congratulated on all sides.

The bill reducing the number of commissioners from 5 to 3, beginning in 1917, and thus saving the county $1,000, will have the approval of most of the tax-payers.

We also find this statement during the session "Senator Beck feels that he is in the Senate as a representative of the farmers of this section in particular and of the State of Maryland in general, and that it is his duty to serve their interest. Just now he is supporting bills which will go far toward improving the condition of the Maryland agriculturist: One is to provide for a State grain inspector and the other to protect the farmer against loss when he ships his product to a commission merchant who either fails before he pays the farmer, or is dishonest and tries to "do" the shipper out of part, if not all, he owes for the merchandise purchased."

Mr. Turner introduced a bill to appropriate $10,000, for the purchase of hog cholera serum to be used by the State Live Stock Sanitary Board.

He was recognized as one of the best men in the House and did much toward keeping down the expense of the session.

The bills carrying appropriations for large sums were passed with a referendum attached so that the people should say whether or not they should pass.

Kent representatives stand for the referendum when money is to be expended for public improvement and have proven their belief by their actions.

The Organization Ticket in Kent stands for clean politics and for progress on every question of public interest.

Aug. 21, 1915—4t.

THE Primary Election will take place Tuesday, September 14th. All the laws governing elections will prevail.

THE Grange meeting at Betterton on Thursday was well attended and the proceedings quite interesting to those present.

ALL registered voters who are on the registration books as "declined" and who are voting for the first time at a primary election since April 16, 1914, have the right to affiliate on September 14 and participate in the primaries on that day. This ruling was handed down Friday by Attorney General Poe, who also ruled that all males who attain the age of 21 years before the general election next November, but who are not of age at this time, have the right to vote in the primaries under the provisions of 160 E. of Chapter 792 of the Acts of 1914. There are about 35 "declined" voters in Kent.

THE Barroll organ with its usual "assumption" says in speaking of the position of the Centreville observer:"

"We are aware of the fact that the Observer is supporting Mr. McMullen for State Comptroller, but we have also been informed that the paper is supporting Senator Lee. We are sure of one thing and that is that the popular sentiment in Queen Anne's is overhelming for Senator Lee and the rest of the State ticket!"

Now if the latter part of this statement is as true as the assumption that the Observer is for Lee then Mr. Lee has a very poor chance in Queen Anne's for here is what the Observer says last week in closing a column article entitled "Don't Rock the Boat":

"THE OBSERVER'S conception of its duty to the Democratic party in Maryland is that it shall not attempt to dictate the party's standard bearers; that it shall not attempt to mould opinion as between two equally good men; that it shall never, upon any occasion, try to make a thief of one and a saint as another. That is not our duty as we see it. A newspaper's duty to its party is to lubricate the wheels of political progress with the oil of genuine and wholehearted interest, free from bitterness or prejudice; give the claims of all the candidates within the party equal and unbiased handling; assume the position that the Democrats of the State are capable of doing their own choosing and assist them in their honest endeavors by giving unprejudiced reports of candidates' activities."

We hope to live long enough to see this condition prevail in Kent politics but so long as the people have to reckon with Bossism as personified in the Boss of the Antis, it can never be. He does not want harmony unless it is Borroll harmony But this Primary will put an end to Barrollism in Kent. The people are aroused as never before and reports of the coming victory continue to be heard.

MR. HARRINGTON AND HIS ASSOCIATES WILL SURELY WIN.

With the primaries less than a month off, the indications now are that the Hon. Emerson C. Harrington, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor; Albert C. Ritchie, candidate for Attorney-General, and Hugh A McMullen, candidate for Comptroller, will each win by a large majority. In the convention, many are claiming that they will have at least one hundred votes, when only sixty-five are needed for a majority.

The Harrington people have carefully gone over the situation, and not counting a single delegate from Baltimore city and some of the doubtful counties, they give Mr. Harrington 79 votes sure, and with a possibility of getting 20 more, making a total of about 100 delegates in the convention.

The counties that are now sure in the Harrington columns, are as follows;

Alleghany seven; Anne Arundel, five; Baltimore, seven; Calvert, three; Caroline, four; Cecil, four; Dorchester, five; Harford, four; Howard, three; Kent, three; Prince George's, five; Queen Anne's, three; Somerset, four; Talbot, four: Washington, six; Wicomico, four, and Worcester, four—a total of 79.

In addition they say they have a splendid chance of carrying Carroll, Frederick and St. Mary's counties, and at least two of the city districts making a total of about 100 delegates.

ITS DIFFERENT NOW

Senator Lee Has Completely Changed His Method Since 1913.

Frank A. Furst, chairman of the Harrington-Ritchie-McMullen Campaign Committee in the city, Wednesday made a somewhat facetious comment upon Senator Lee's past attitude toward the participation of party organizations in primary elections and the meeting Tuesday night, when the Lee Campaign Committee was organized by Mayor Preston, with Daniel J. Loden, chairman of the Democratic City Committee, and Edgar N. Ash, treasurer of the Committee, among the prominent officers.

"As I recall," said Mr. Furst, "Senator Lee made a strong and winning fight two years ago for a plank in the Democratic platform declaring that the proper function of party organizations is to elect and not select party candidates. Although it seldom has been my good fortune to agree with Senator Lee in political matters, I thought his idea was sound and I was glad when he succeeded in having the convention incorporate it into the party platform upon which he ran."

"Imagine my surprise when I saw in this morning's papers that the Mayor and my other good friends in the city organization who are supporting Senator Lee had formed a Lee campaign committee and had placed at its head and on its executive committee the men who occupy relative positions in the regular party organization."

"Surely, Senator Lee does not approve such a course."

A DEFINITE ECONOMY PLAN THAT PROMISES RESULTS

The most practical and sensible plan yet proposed looking toward the elimination of waste and inefficiency in the State Government, is, it seems to us, that advanced by Comptroller Harrington, as reported in the Sun of yesterday. Mr. Harrington suggests that the Democratic State Convention shall name a commission, which shall, after a study of the whole subject, determine upon some comprehensive plan of reform and submit it to the Legislature in the form of such bills as will remedy the trouble.

It is a better plan, we believe, than that of Mr. Joseph D. Baker—to have the Legislature name a commission, to report to the succeeding Legislature—chiefly for the reason that it promises relief at least two years earlier.

It is a plan upon which all candidates and leaders and factions may well agree. Because Mr Harrington mentioned it first is no reason why a good suggestion should be objected to by his opponents in the party. The whole matter of reform in State affairs is not a factional, nor even a political question, but one of real State-wide interest and importance. The faction or party which goes about finding a remedy in the most sincere and practical way is likely to find strong popular support, and any man or set of men who hinders or attempts to play politics wit it is very likely to hear from the people in a way that he will not like.—Editorial in Baltimore Sun of Thursday, Aug. 19, 1915.

The Organization in Kent believes in providing for all the children of Kent the best Public School System that can be secured within the people's means.
